Frieda Nichols Becomes Bride Of Bill Lorton

At an evening ceremony Wednesday, Aug. 29, in the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses, Miss Frieda A. Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Nichols, Sr., became the bride of Bill J. Lorton. The Rev. D. E. Millard read the service before about 45 friends and relatives.

Before the ceremony Rev. and Mrs. Millard sang "Moonlight and Roses" and "I Love You Truly," and Mrs. Millard played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a gown of white lace and net over satin, with a long train and fingertip veil, and her bouquet was of gardenias and gladioli. Miss Violet Long, maid of honor, wore a pink satin gown and carried a bouquet of violet-blue asters, and the bridesmaid, Miss Irene Minger, wore a dress of pale blue net over satin and carried pink asters. Reginald Duke Lorton, brother of the groom, was best man.

At a reception after the wedding, the bride and groom first cut the wedding cake and serving was continued by Miss Minger and Mrs. Marcella Godley of Jacksonville. The couple will make their home in Medford.

Mr. Lorton, formerly a sergeant in the army air force, was honorably discharged Aug. 22 after 7½ years service, three years of which were overseas duty. He escaped from a Japanese concentration camp last Sept. 7 after 2½ years confinement, and holds the air medal, purple heart with two oak leaf clusters, good conduct ribbon, American defense ribbon with bronze star, Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with two campaign stars, Philippine defense ribbon, Philippine liberation ribbon with bronze star, and the presidential distinguished unit citation with two oak leaf clusters.

Oak Grove Club Fetes President; Leaving Medford

Members of Oak Grove Neighborhood club met Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. E. C. Root, Jacksonville highway, for an outdoor breakfast honoring the club president, Mrs. E. W. Hoffman, who plans to move from Medford to McMinnville, Ore., in the near future.

Following the nine o'clock breakfast, a remembrance gift was presented by the club to Mrs. Hoffman.

Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman have purchased a home in McMinnville, and plan to move north when they have sold their home here on the Jacksonville highway. The doctor will retire from active practice as a chiropractic physician. He formerly lived in McMinnville, before coming to Medford in 1921 to maintain an office in the Fluhrer building until 1938 when ill health forced partial retirement.

Dr. Hoffman has a brother and Mrs. Hoffman a sister living in McMinnville. Mrs. Hoffman also has a son, Richard Lambert, serving in the merchant marine, and the doctor's daughter, Mrs. Lee Watson, lives in Medford.

Medford Students Leave This Month To Enter Schools

Several Medford students are leaving the city this month to enter colleges for the fall term. Members of sororities on the University of Oregon campus in Eugene will leave this week to prepare the houses for the annual "rush week," which begins Sept. 9. "Freshman week" follows on Sept. 17, and registration for fall term classes will be Sept. 21 and 22 with classes starting Monday, Sept. 24. Registrations for rush week closed Aug. 25.

Oregon State College in Corvallis will commence fall term at the same time, but rush week is held there after classes start. Students returning to OSC will leave later in the month. Among those returning to the University this fall will be the Misses Joyce and Joanne Utz, who were pledged to Delta Zeta sorority last spring. They will leave the first of this week to help reopen the house on the University campus after several years absence.

The Misses Eva Hedrick, Virginia Hammond, and Phyllis Field, members of Pi Beta Phi sorority, plan to leave Sept. 6 to participate in rushing, and Miss Betty J. McKenzie is returning to the Gamma Phi Beta house at Eugene about this Wednesday.

Miss Betty Mack plans to leave for the Alpha Delta Pi house Thursday, along with Mrs. Ray Casbeer, nee Paula Blanton, who will take part in rushing, but does not plan to enter fall term classes. Miss Anne Scrippler will go in time to begin the fall term, although she does not plan to attend rush week activities.

Miss Betty Rose, Alpha Delta Pi, and Miss Betty Kay plan to return to Eugene for winter term at the University.

Garden Group Plans Luncheon

The first fall meeting of the Medford Garden club will be held Thursday, Sept. 6, at the Riverside USO center, beginning at 12:30 p. m. with a luncheon featuring herbs. Each person is requested to bring either a hot dish, salad or dessert, and open faced sandwiches.

Members of all clubs of the Oregon federation, and any persons interested in joining the Medford group are invited to attend.

Guest speakers for the afternoon will be Mrs. Mabel Maris of Smith River, Calif., who will speak on "Hardy Fuchsias," and Mrs. Ganyon of Jacksonville, whose subject is "The Magic Power of Herbs." The horticulture committee asks that any persons attending who have fuchsias or herbs in their gardens, bring specimens for an exhibit.
