Young Folk Leave To Enter Schools For Fall Classes

The second week of September will see more students leaving for colleges and universities, both in Oregon and other states, in addition to those who have already left the valley.

This week-end the Misses Jo Anne Adler, Hortense Jennings and Joan Smith of Medford and Miss Jarmaine Clark of Ashland will leave for the University of Oregon at Eugene, where they will participate in sorority rush week activities. Miss Calista Farrell, Miss Charlene Thurston and Miss Rhoda Williams of Medford and Miss Marjorie Lutz of Ashland will leave later for the freshman week program. Miss Betty Frey is leaving Thursday to enroll for her junior year at the university and Miss Phyllis Williams will leave about Sept. 21 for her sophomore year at the school.

Young men attending the university from here will include Harry Nordwick, who is returning to continue his studies, and Milton Pitts, formerly in the army air corps, who will be enrolling for his freshman year.

Students entering Oregon State college for their freshman year include the Misses Marjorie Johnson, Clare Thomas and Audrey Jarmin, while the Misses June Jarmin, Joan Burk, Ruth Andrews and Mildred McKenzie are returning.

Miss Helen Webb is leaving Wednesday to enter Mills college in California, where she will be a junior, and Miss Nanette Holmes has already left for the south and later will enroll at Dominican college near San Rafael, Calif. Late in September the Misses Patricia Farrell, Barbara Inskip and Lois Pringle will return to Stanford university.

Entering the University of California as a freshman this fall will be Miss Helen Rubenstein and also attending that college will be Bob Littrell, formerly in the army air corps. Paul Antony and David Chirgwin expect to enroll at Oregon State college as freshmen this month and Gerald Pence has left for California for college.

Attending Whitman college at Walla Walla, Wash., which opens Oct. 24, will be Miss June Williams and Miss Elaine Walker, another freshman, will enter Mills college. Miss Nancy Swem has already left for Midland college in Nebraska, and Miss Joyce Bateman is returning to Willamette university at Salem.

Younger girls who have left for school are Miss Nancy Newbury, who will attend Annie Wright Seminary in Tacoma, Wash., this fall and Helen Humphrey, who will be a student at St. Helen's Hall, Portland.

Royal Neighbors Hold Initiation

Two new members were initiated into the Royal Neighbor lodge when Mistletoe camp met Thursday evening. Following the ceremonies refreshments were served by a committee of which Mrs. Grace Wakefield was chairman.

It was announced that there will be no social meeting of the order during September and the next business session will be Oct. 4 at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. Bebb Returns Home

Mrs. Royal E. Bebb, 528 South Grape street returned by plane Thursday after a two weeks' visit in Portland. Preceding the Portland visit Mr. and Mrs. Bebb and Mrs. Curtis Jester and daughter, Penelope, 526 South Holly street, spent a week vacationing at White Horse, Calif.

Herbs Featured At Annual Dinner Of Garden Club

Medford Garden club opened its fall activities with the annual dinner followed by the first business meeting of the season, Thursday at the Riverside USO. Many tasteful dishes and beverages containing herbs were prepared and enjoyed by the club members and guests. Mrs. Arthur Adler was hostess chairman for the day, assisted by Mrs. L. G. Gentner, Mrs. Eugene Orr and Mrs. C. C. Sater. Mrs. L. Greenleaf and Mrs. Irene Leighton had charge of decorations, arranging the tables with fruits, flowers and vegetables, and choice dahlias were furnished by Mrs. Roy Sawyer.

Following dinner the program chairman, Mrs. Neil Davidson, introduced Mrs. Florence M. Gonyon, Jacksonville, who gave an educational talk on "The Magic Power of Herbs." An interesting display of about 50 different herbs had been arranged by Mrs. W. C. Rookard, the club's president, and Mrs. C. C. Sater.

Club members were presented with copies of the club's new year book, prepared by Mrs. Sater and a committee. Mrs. Gentner and Mrs. Greenleaf were awarded prizes.

Mrs. S. B. Osgood, president of the Grants Pass Garden club, and a group of Grants Pass members, were in attendance and extended an invitation to Medford Garden club members to attend their opening tea and program to be held at the home of Mrs. James Lium of Grants Pass Wednesday, Sept. 12, at 2 p. m.

Flowers for the Chamber of Commerce offices will be furnished by Mrs. F. W. Rehling and Mrs. H. J. Ticknor during the month of September.

Medford Student Leaves For Nebraska College

Miss Nancy Swem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Swem, 38 Ross Court, left Monday night for Fremont, Neb., where she will enter Midland college, a Lutheran church school, for her freshman year. She was accompanied as far as Portland by her sister, Mrs. Otto Ewaldsen, who returned to Medford Saturday night.

Miss Swem graduated from Medford high school with the class of 1945. She has been identified with musical and other activities of the high school group, was named queen of the 1945 junior class prom and is a past queen of Medford Bethel, Daughters of Job. Since graduation she had been employed in the office of the American Fruit Growers.

Californian Returns After Visit in City

Mrs. L. T. Lamb, formerly of Medford, is active in the civic work of her community, serving as educational chairman of the board of the Marin Campfire Council, vice-president of the Conservation league, and president of the Marin branch of the A.A.U.W. She is leaving later in the month for a trip east and will visit in Chicago, Detroit and New York, returning home by way of Los Angeles and spending a few days with friends in that city.

Church Evening Guild Announces Guest Night

Guest night will be held by the Evening Guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church when the group meets Monday, Sept. 10, at the Markade on North Oakdale avenue at 8 p. m. This will be the first meeting of the guild since the summer vacation.

Mrs. Vera Strader, president of the group, urges members to be present for this first meeting and states that any woman interested is cordially invited to attend.

Lt. Vilm in Medford After Overseas Duty

Lt. Elizabeth Vilm of the Women's Army corps, overseas for more than a year, has returned to the United States and is now in Medford with her mother, Mrs. E. N. Vilm, 517 South Grape street. Lt. Vilm reports upon expiration of her leave to headquarters of officers' strategic services, Washington, D. C.

Miss Vilm entered the women's army corps in February of 1943 and after completing indoctrination and officers' training was stationed in this country for several months before being sent to England. She remained there for about a year and then was transferred to a post near Paris, from where she returned to the United States.

Mrs. John Young Is Honor Guest At Tea Saturday

A tea given Saturday afternoon by women of the SCU club honored Mrs. John R. Young, who with her husband, Col. Young, and their daughter, will leave this week to reside at San Luis Obispo, Calif. Col. Young, post commander for the past 14 months at Camp White, has been assigned as commander of the San Luis Obispo camp.

The tea was at the home of Mrs. I. E. Schuler, Medford Heights, and about 50 guests, numbering both townswomen and those of the military circle, called during the afternoon. Mrs. John W. Horsley and Mrs. Thomas McCullough presided at the tea table which was arranged with gladioli and lighted tapers.

Saturday evening Col. and Mrs. Young were honored guests at a cocktail and dinner party given by officers of the post at the officers' club.

Mrs. Young has been active in various Red Cross corps of the county and camp and has also been identified with other groups during her stay in the valley.

Lodges to Ship Pears to Home

Plans for shipment of Medford pears to the I. O. O. F. home in Portland were made at a meeting of Olive Rebekah lodge Monday night, the gift to be made jointly with the Medford Odd Fellows lodge. Mrs. Edna Wilson, Rebekah from McCloud, Calif., was a visitor at the meeting.

Plans were made for the Sept. 17 meeting of the group. Mr. and Mrs. Eden Naffziger, Mrs. Edith Whillbeck and Mrs. Yeva Wimer are planning an interesting program and in charge of refreshments will be the Mesdames Rose Young, Ella Gould, Agnes Furch and Anna Corby.
