MIDWAY AUCTION YARDS
MARKET REPORT SEPTEMBER 6
171 Head Salable

MARKET swinging back to normal after two weeks uncertainty. It appears that fat cattle of all classes will remain somewhere near previous prices. The only point of definite weakness seems to be in the cutter or hamburger trade, where oversupply is glutting central markets.

FAT COWS scored from $11.80 to $9.30 according to grade with one exceptional 1250 pound cow bringing $12.40. Bulk of common fleshy cows $8.00 to $9.00. Heifers $13.00 to $12.00 for best grades. Others 10.30 to $11.30. Several loads of fat and feeder steers this week. Quite a few buyers on the market for feeders. Best steers $13.20. One load averaged $12.40. Feeders salable $12.00 to $10.00, most going around $11.50. Bulls $10.00.

VEAL brought $13.00 and $12.50 for best. Others down to $11.00.

SPECIAL NOTE!! We feed and water cattle at our Yards too! And the cost doesn't take the profit out of your sale. No yard in Southern Oregon offers the buyers and sellers the advantages and conveniences found at our yards, such as cheap hauling, trailer rental, free delivery to slaughter houses, special advertising and livestock scales.

Take advantage of a modern yard where up to date sales methods are employed to get the most money for your cattle. Sale every Thursday.
