Luncheon Club Is Entertained

Mrs. Carolyn Adams was hostess for the Friday Luncheon club last week, entertaining at her home on the Old Pacific highway. Mrs. John Selder led the devotional period and accordion music was presented by Rita Rogers and Barbara Vance. Mrs. Joseph Wilkinson gave a reading.

Since Mrs. Adams celebrated her birthday anniversary that day, she was presented with a cake plate.

Troop Schedules Many Activities; To Meet Tuesday

Fall is proving a busy time for members of the Ladies Mounted Troop with both rodeo activities and meetings. Last Tuesday night 23 members were guests of Mrs. William Grenbemer for a dinner held at the Grenbemer home, 23 Rose avenue, and this week the Troop members will ride to the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. E. Phillips Tuesday evening for dinner Saturday a number of riders from both the Troop and the Sheriff's posse went to Roseburg for the rodeo being held there this week-end by the Douglas County Sheriff's posse and last week-end Troop members rode in the Victory Rodeo given by the posse here.

Last Tuesday's meeting was given an unusually interesting turn by the appearance of six costumed men who had been riding that afternoon with the cast of "Canyon Passage," being filmed at Diamond Lake by Universal. In the group were four members of the Sheriff's posse, Frank Cullen, Paul Bulkin, Tony Boltano and C. Lysal Fidler, Jim Warren of the Ashland Riding association and Grant Withers, Hollywood movie actor. The men wore the boots, black felt hats and other clothing typical of the pioneer days of which the story deals and had been made up with picturesque beards and sideburns in such a manner that friends and relatives failed to recognize them. Walter Leverette and Mr. Grenbemer were also present during the evening.

Troop members planning to ride from the stables to Big Boulder Ranch, the Phillips' home, are asked to be at the stables and ready to leave at 6 p. m.

All four young people will be entering for their freshman year. The three young women graduated from Medford high school while young Shafer is a graduate of the Phoenix high school and resides on route 4.

Agees In East, Canada For Extended Journey

Mr. and Mrs. Z. N. Agee, 518 South Oakdale avenue, left Medford several days ago for an extended trip through the middle-west and eastern states and into Canada. They planned to visit Chicago, Mishawaka, Ind., Toronto, Montreal, St. Anne De Beaupre and Hamburg in Canada and in the latter city will be present at the golden wedding anniversary celebration of cousins. Mr. and Mrs. Agee plan to be absent about three months.

Dorna McIntyre, Joseph E. Smith Married Recently

Gold Hill—At a candlelight ceremony the evening of September 6 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Reinking, Jacksonville, Miss Dorna Maurita McIntyre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McIntyre of Jacksonville, became the bride of Joseph E. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Z. Smith of Gold Hill. The Rev. Lawrence Mitchellmore read the double ring service at an altar of gladioli and greenery.

The bride's wedding costume was of turquoise blue with navy and white accessories and her corsage was of gardenias and yellow rosebuds. Mrs. A. E. Reinking, matron-of-honor, wore a dress of flowered white organza and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A. E. Reinking was best man for the groom.

A reception for a few relatives and close friends followed the ceremony.

Mr. Smith, BKR3c, reported to the naval base at Bremerton, Wash., Sept. 11. Mrs. Smith will make her home with her parents in Jacksonville.

Constitution Day Program Planned For Chapter Meet

A program on Constitution Day will feature the first fall meeting of Crater Lake chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, to be held the afternoon of September 22 at the home of Mrs. R. E. Green, 701 Park avenue. A covered dish luncheon will be served at one o'clock with Mrs. R. M. Spencer and Mrs. O. E. G. Meyers assisting Mrs. Green.

Constitution Day is Sept. 17 and material pertinent to this historical anniversary will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Green.

Members attending are asked to bring luncheon service.

Wesleyan Guild Plans Meeting

With "school time" as the program theme, Wesleyan Service Guild of the Methodist church will hold the first meeting of the fall season Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Clarence A. Meeker, 724 East Jackson street. The program will be preceded by a "school lunch" picnic at 6 o'clock to which members are asked to bring a sack lunch, coffee and dessert to be provided by the hostess.

Mrs. Dorothy Waldron will have charge of the program. Mrs. E. C. Faber is president of the group.

Circle Meeting Held Wednesday

Laura Wicker was initiated as a social member of Chrysanthemum circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, at the regular session Wednesday. The resignation of Cecilia Gustafson as captain of guards was announced and Sadie Gill was elected to succeed her.

Bi-County Meet Held by Union Attracts Many

Nearly 350 members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union attended the bi-county convention of the union held here Thursday, with the Medford group as hostesses. Mrs. Mable R. Lowther of Ashland, bi-county president, conducted the sessions which were held in the First Methodist church, and attended by women from Grants Pass, Ashland, Prospect and Medford.

Memorial services were led by members of the Ashland Union and Mrs. Grant Thrasher, Grants Pass, gave the devotional message assisted by Mrs. Anderson, Prospect. Noon-tide prayer was led by Mrs. Marietta Pratt of Grants Pass.

Main speaker of the afternoon session was Mrs. Clarence A. Meeker. She deplored the increased use of alcohol on the part of young people, due to the strain of war living, and indifference to this spread of drinking. The speaker stressed the need of religion in the home and for adjustment to peace-time life.

Mrs. Wilkie, Grants Pass, gave the afternoon devotional message and Mrs. Thrasher gave a review of the book of Job. The Youth's Temperance council of Grants Pass repeated their pledge and told of their work under the leadership of Mrs. Anderson.

Mrs. Belle Littrell presented an offering as a memorial for her sisters, Miss Agnes Phillips, who passed away recently.

It was announced that Mrs. Ruth Tooze, state union president, will visit the bi-county union in November on her way home from the national union executive meeting in Chicago. Grants Pass will entertain the bi-county convention next year.
