Eagle Point Dog Wins First Place At Portland Show

Swan-ee Ace Skipper, black cocker spaniel bred and owned by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Swan of Eagle Point, was judged best cocker in the dog show held at Portland, Sept. 16 and 16. Shown for the first time, Skipper not only won five points toward his championship title but also placed second in the sporting group, where he competed with pointers, setters, springer spaniels and other sporting varities.

Swan-ee Sue, Skipper's half sister, also bred by Mr. and Mrs. Swan, and now owned by Mrs. Charles R. Greene, 611 South Riverside avenue, attained her championship rating at the same show, having won the required 15 points at licensed American Kennel club shows. Ginger, red cocker female owned by Mrs. Greene, was reserve winner in the show.

The dogs were taken to Portland by Swan and Greene.

Halsey Can Relax— If He Has Cushions

Tokyo, Sept. 18 — (U.P.) — Admiral William F. Halsey could relax aboard his flagship today —provided he had enough cushions to sit on—because now he has ridden that white horse.

Maj Gen. William G. Chase, commander of the first cavalry division which is occupying Tokyo had a horse saddled and waiting when Halsey showed up for a visit yesterday. Halsey climbed gingerly aboard the horse and rode around the parade ground.
