

COULEE WATER IS RELEASED TO AID STRANDED BARGE

Coulee Dam, Wash., Sept. 19.—(U.P.)—A man-made crest of high water surged down the mighty Columbia river today after Grand Coulee dam engineers increased the flow to lift a stranded oil barge 400 miles away.

More than 12,000,000 gallons of water swelled the west's biggest river and engineers said it would take another two days for the river to rise two or three feet at Celilo Falls, near The Dalles, Ore.

The large oil barge is stranded sideways in the swift, narrow channel below the falls. A powerful tug has negotiated the treacherous "chute" between The Dalles and the falls, ready to apply pressure and free the barge when the river rises.

To Take 80 Hours

The 11 drum gates atop the huge dam were lowered several inches, which swelled the waterfall over the dam's face. Then all but three of the gates were closed last night after the river's level had been raised nearly five feet at the dam. It is estimated the crest will take 80 hours to reach Celilo Falls.

Farmers along the Columbia posted guards along the rising stream and anchored irrigation pumps and floating docks more firmly. Army engineers spread a warning of the emergency the entire length of the river. Grand Coulee dam is west of Spokane in north central Washington, while Celilo Falls is on the Washington-Oregon border, far to the south and west.

REVOLT OF YOUNG JAPANESE IS TOLD

Tokyo, Sept. 19.—(U.P.)—Lt. Gen. Shizuiichi Tanaka, commander of Japanese eastern army headquarters, personally quelled a revolt by a group of young officers who took over control of the Imperial Palace in an effort to forestall formal announcement of Japan's surrender, the Tokyo newspaper Mainichi said today.

The newspaper gave a detailed account of the uprising, which assertedly was made by a group of Japanese general staff officers. The Mainichi version, however, did not wholly confirm previous reports that an uprising had taken place at such a time as to affect surrender negotiations between Japan and the allies.

The revolt, if confirmed, might provide a possible explanation for a delay of some 24 hours between the Tokyo radio announcement at 2:40 p. m. Aug. 14 (10:49 p. m. Aug. 13 PWT) that the Imperial rescript would be forthcoming "soon" and its actual delivery by the emperor over the radio.

ONLY TWO LEFT IN COUNTY JAIL

There are now only two prisoners in the county jail, the lowest number in several months. They are Robert B. Merrill, awaiting action on an assault and robbery charge, and LaBern F. Keller, charged with contributing to delinquency of a minor girl, age 15.

Keller, according to the district attorney's office, brought the girl here from Eugene where he was arrested the first of the week on information furnished by the Lane county city. Keller, the district attorney reports, has offered to plead guilty. He was discharged from the state prison last June on a burglary charge, the authorities report.

Merrill escaped from the county jail six weeks ago and was arrested recently in Los Angeles and returned here for trial on the robbery charge. He will probably be called before the grand jury at its next session.

Rolling Restaurant..

Maintaining a railroad's track and roadbed in A-1 condition requires the services of a large number of construction crews. Hard workers—these men require plenty of wholesome food at regular mealtime intervals. But, being constantly on the move they are frequently many miles distant from a city or town.

To meet this situation, Union Pacific provides two "outfit cars" for each construction crew. In one of these cars there is a dining room, kitchen, and storage space for food... a rolling restaurant. The other car is converted into comfortable living quarters for the manager whose chief occupation is the preparation of meals.

There are a thousand of these outfit-car managers—fifty of them women. They find a deep satisfaction in their culinary ability to provide tasty, well-balanced meals... and in keeping their home-on-wheels spic and span.

Needless to say, the ringing of the dinner bell is a welcome sound to the construction crews who are doing their part to speed vital freight shipments, and the armed forces, over the Union Pacific Strategic Middle Route, uniting the East with the Pacific Coast.
