IODINE AND YOUR HAIR, IF ANY

Nobody ever told me when I was a youth and had all my hair that nearly every one needs a wee bit of iodine every day. Had I known about the body's requirement of iodine I might have kept my hair on longer. You youngsters today can hardly appreciate how fortunate you are to have a guy like Ol' Doc Brady to teach you these things.

CHINESE COMMIES AGREE ON STATUS UNDER GEN. CHIANG

Chungking, Sept. 19.—(U.P.)—The newspaper Ta Kung Pao, quoting "authoritative sources," said today the Chinese Communist-Kuo Min Tang conference reached a partial agreement providing that the communist party shall be given equal status in China under overall leadership of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

The newspaper said communist representatives, headed by Mao Tse Tung, and national government leaders partially agreed on three points:

1. The national policy of China is peace and nationwide reconstruction to form a foundation for a democratic, independent and free country. Under this policy, all political parties will be under leadership of Generalissimo Chiang, with the communists and Kuo Min Tang on an equal footing.

2. The central government will recognize the legal status of all political parties before convocation of the national assembly, and before Kuo Min Tang one-party control is abolished.

3. To call a conference for representatives of all parties and national leaders without political leanings to discuss methods whereby political parties can participate in the national government.

The newspaper said agreement had not been reached on other thorny problems, including control of the armies and recognition by the central government of local governments elected in communist-controlled areas.
