FACTS about the FUR TAX

1. The Luxury Tax Law was passed as a temporary wartime emergency measure, to be continued at least SIX MONTHS AFTER the President has officially proclaimed the cessation of hostilities.
2. To date, no such official proclamation has been made. No one knows when it will come.
3. Even if the proclamation of the cessation of hostilities should come TODAY the tax would still be on for at least SIX MORE MONTHS — that is, until some time NEXT SPRING
4. Remember, this tax is a law, like any other law. Only an Act of Congress can repeal it before the termination date, now provided.

If you need a fur coat now, by all means, BUY IT NOW. It may be a long time before the war tax on furs "comes off"

In the meantime, Montgomery Ward offers you the finest fur values that money can buy. Because we are the nation's largest retailer of popular priced furs, it is possible for us to bring you an unusually large selection of prime quality furs, superior in workmanship and design, at LESS than you'd planned to spend.

LIEUT. MCELHOSE SERVES ON B-29 CREW IN PACIFIC

B-29 Base, Guam, August 30 —First Lieutenant Richard A. McElhose of Medford, Oregon, was a member of B-29 crews of the famed 19th Bombardment Group who played a part in Japan's defeat by flying missions against strategic targets until the Japanese surrender. As part of the Guam-based 314th Bombardment Wing, this Superfort flier contributed to the Wing's impressive record of 80,000,000 pounds of bombs dropped on 96 targets on 61 missions during the 20th Air Force's all-out 160-day air assault between March 10 to August 15. For his part in this offensive, this Oregon flier received the following awards: Air Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters, and Distinguished Flying Cross with one cluster. Lieutenant McElhose's father resides on Rose Avenue, Medford, Oregon.

Warren Barnes
On the Transport Meriwether in Tokyo Bay (Delayed)—Warren H. Barnes, seaman, first class, Route 4, Medford, Ore., sailed into Tokyo Bay aboard this ship and landed the first occupation forces on the conquered soil of Japan. A few hours before General of the Army Douglas MacArthur's triumphant arrival at Atsugi airfield, the Meriwether landed a contingent of Marines at Futtsu Saki, on the eastern shore of Tokyo Bay. The ship moved past silenced Japanese batteries of 16-inch guns and unloaded the first Marine occupation force.

Richard Witt
Fort Lewis, Wash.—Richard H. Witt of Medford, Ore., who for the past 3 1/2 years has served in the AAF, will revert to inactive status on Oct. 1, it was announced by Lt. Col. Harvey D. Taylor, commanding the separation center here. Lt. Witt will return to Medford where he will resume his profession in connection with Beck's Bakeries.

Elmer Czech
Somewhere in the Pacific—Elmer Herman Czech, chief gunner's mate, USN, whose wife lives at 315 West 2nd street, Medford, Ore., whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Czech, live at route 1, Watertown, S. Dak., took part in a dual celebration aboard his Pacific aircraft carrier, the USS Intrepid, on August 16. The officers and men of this famed ship celebrated the victory in the Pacific and the observance of the ship's second year in service. The day of celebration began with thanksgiving services and closed with a spectacular fun show. The noon meal was turkey with all of the trimmings.

Hershey Thomas
Aboard the USS Nevada in the Pacific—Hershey J. Thomas, seaman, second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Hershey, Butte Falls, Ore., celebrated the surrender of Japan aboard this famous American battleship as she rested at anchor in Leyte gulf after a 32-day mission into the East China sea. The announcement by the commanding officer that the Japanese had quit touched off a demonstration unlike any this veteran ship had ever seen. Sailors tossed their hats in the air and began jitterbugging to the strains of the ship's band. It was "Holiday routine" for all hands.

F. L. Fousha
In the Western Pacific—F. L. Fousha, seaman, first class, whose wife, Frances, lives on Route 1, Medford, Ore., serving on the USS Rutlicus, a navy cargo carrier, has a personal interest in island hopping — his ship has been linking these far flung bases in a supply lifeline since the westward offensive began in the Gilberts. Operating through rain, air raids, and darkness, "Rudy's" crew have brought supplies—everything from battle equipment to groceries—to augment invasion drives in the Marshalls, Marianas and the Philippines.

Franklin Elrod
With the 77th Infantry Division in the Pacific—Franklin A. Elrod, Route 4, box 205, Medford, Oregon, has been promoted to sergeant.

Sgt. Elrod is a machine gun squad leader with the 306th Infantry, 77th (Statue of Liberty) division.

He was inducted into the army June 10, 1944, and received his basic training at Camp Wolters, Texas. He joined the 77th division in June 1945.

Sgt. Elrod graduated from the Medford high school in June 1940 and prior to his induction he was employed by the Southern Oregon Sugar Pine Company.

He is authorized to wear the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with one battle star and the good conduct ribbon.

His wife, the former Allene Bumgardner, and their two children reside at the Medford, Ore., address.

Ralph DeJarnett
Headquarters, 13th Air Force, Philippines — Ralph E. DeJarnett, son of Mr. Roger DeJarnett, 5637 North Interstate, Portland, recently was promoted to sergeant. He is an airplane mechanic in one of the B-24 squadrons of the 13th Air Force's "Bomber Barons" Liberator group.

Since arriving overseas in September, 1943, and joining the "Jungle Air Force" he has seen action in the Solomons, the Admiralties, New Guinea, Netherlands East Indies and the Philippines.

Howard Wilson
Howard Stiefel Wilson, seaman, first class, USNR, Route 1, Medford, Ore., served aboard the famed Pacific fleet aircraft carrier, Enterprise, the "fightingest carrier in the fleet," now back in the States for repairs after having been hit by a Jap suicide plane on May 14. The Enterprise, whose record of battles dates back to Pearl Harbor, accounted for 911 Jap aircraft shot down by her planes and guns, and 71 ships sunk and 192 probably sunk by her planes during her 275,000 miles of war duty.

Members of 131, the first Vega squadron to be transferred from the Atlantic fleet to the North Pacific fleet, wear two distinguished flying crosses and 81 air medals.

Pvt. Lee Bumgardner
With U. S. Forces in France—At a formal ceremony held in Paris recently, Pvt. Lee R. Bumgardner, a former tank driver, now a guard with the 382 military police Bn., at the Calas staging area in Southern France, was presented with the silver star medal.

Pvt. Bumgardner, the husband of Mrs. Fern L. Bumgardner of Medford, Ore., was with the 702nd tank Bn., in Luxembourg last Christmas Eve when the Germans waged a sneak attack against his unit. While running for protection within his tank, which was covering a road block, he was wounded by a bullet, but continued on. Upon reaching the machine-gun mounted on his tank, he fired upon the enemy, killing approximately 40 of them, and thus holding up their attack considerably.

Vernal Bumgardner, Jr., a brother, is serving with the army air corps.

a one-bowl cake method especially for the West!

"It's faster, simpler, easier! We tested it under Western conditions in 117 Western homes"

So says Sperry's Martha Meade

USE JUST ONE BOWL
Take it easier! Save fuss and muss! Mix all ingredients in one bowl, yet get a better cake.

DON'T CREAM THE SHORTENING
It's simpler this way. Just add the shortening to the dry ingredients. It's a real short cut.

DON'T BEAT THE EGGS
Separate beating is unnecessary. That's why it's faster... saves over half the usual mixing time.
