INCREASE SHOWN IN COUNTY HELP FOR AGED, NEEDY

Routine reports covering the month of August were reviewed at the September meeting of the Jackson County Public Welfare commission held earlier this week.

General assistance reports showed that this type of aid totaled $8,097 for 204 persons, including 122 families and 82 single persons. This was somewhat higher than for the month of July, when general assistance for 219 persons totaled $7,895. In August of 1944 this type of aid for 163 persons totaled $5,762.

Old age assistance totaled $30,278 for 856 cases in August as compared to $26,643 for 841 cases in 1945 and $26,861 for 821 cases in August of 1944. Sixteen children were maintained in foster homes at a cost of $476 during August as compared to 20 children for $730 in July.

Aid to dependent children totaled $5,233 for 161 children as compared to $4,059 for 153 children in August of 1944. Blind assistance totaled $573 for 12 cases. This is an addition of one case over the previous month.

Prominent D.A.V. Auxiliary Women Visit Central Pt.

Central Point, Sept. 21—Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Licklider, route 1, box 482, are Mrs. Bessie O'Toole, past department chaplain, Disabled American Veterans auxiliary, department of California, and Mrs. Henrietta E. Mills, national second junior vice-commander of the D.A.V. auxiliary. Both are from Los Angeles.

During their stay here Mr. and Mrs. Licklider have taken their guests to many of the scenic spots of the district. The two women have also signed two members for Florence chapter No. 42, Los Angeles, the new members being Mrs. Licklider and Mrs. Mina Stewart of Rogue River.

En route home the women will visit several auxiliaries in California returning in time for a show at the Sawtelle Veterans' hospital. In 21 years Mrs. Mills, who stages shows for the hospital, has missed but one month's performance.

CAA Seeks Trainees For Duty in Alaska Aeronautical Work

Civil Aeronautics Administration, through its Seattle office, has announced formation of a class of 45 aircraft communicator trainees for its Alaska service. Purpose of the training, scheduled to begin in Seattle Oct. 8, is to provide skilled aeronautical communications personnel for the Federal Airways System in Alaska.

Trainees will be paid approximately $175 per month while training and will receive not less than $2900 per year upon completion of the course. Only single persons, 18 to 39, will be accepted, except that a limited number of married couples without dependents will be taken. Requirements include at least two years of college or certain aeronautical or radio experience in lieu thereof, and a touch typing speed of at least 35 words per minute.

Additional information may be received by contacting the CAA Communications station, box 286, Medford.

Boy Scout News

Boy Scout Troop 2 has resumed regular Tuesday night meetings at the Lincoln school gymnasium. At last Tuesday's meeting plans were made for troop hikes, troop service projects, overnight camping trips, troop entertainment and sports and a court of honor every three months.

Under supervision of Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Dick Hake the troop began plans for a fair. Presentation of the Gen. Eisenhower medal earned in the last national paper drive, and some merit badges earned at the scout summer camp were presented at Tuesday's meeting.

The troop will have a drum and bugle corps under supervision of Bils Heine.

Indianapolis (U.P.)—A library card dated 1887 was recently returned to the Indianapolis Central library by a 90-year-old Greenfield man, who said that since he could not read well any more, he might as well return the card.
