

NAZI BRUTE BEAT VICTIMS ON WAY TO GAS CHAMBER

Lueneburg, Sept. 22—(U.P.)—Victims about to be sent to the gas chambers at the nazis' Oswiecim concentration camp were kicked and beaten into trucks for their last ride, Mrs. Ada Dimko, Polish woman doctor, told a British military court today.

Dr. Dimko was the only witness today at the trial of 45 Nazi camp guards and commanders who could be executed if found guilty of the charges against them, which include camp atrocities.

Under cross examination, the black haired Jewish doctor, who testified yesterday that her whole family had been exterminated in the gas chambers, testified that she saw Josef Kramer beat resisting prisoners with his fists.

"He was engaged in catching some and hitting and kicking into trucks those who were not quick," she said. Kramer was commander of the notorious Bekken camp after leaving Oswiecim.

When defense attorneys insisted her statements about Kramer were a complete fabrication, Dr. Dimko said:

"I would like to point out to the court that it was me, not the defending council, who was present at the incidents, described."

She protested vigorously when defense counsel said he doubted her testimony that 4,000,000 Jews and Gypsies had died in the gas chambers.

Although she described her own health as "fair" because of helping at the hospitals in both camps, Dr. Dimko said she, too, had been beaten.

DIXIE SOCIALITE GIVEN LIFE TERM FOR WIFE MURDER

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 22—(U.P.)—Samuel C. Epes was found guilty of murder today on charges of poisoning his slender blonde wife and burying her in an army foxhole last winter, but the jury's recommendation for mercy sent him to prison for life instead of to the electric chair.

Judge A. L. Gaston immediately pronounced the sentence of life imprisonment for the wealthy Richmond, Va., socialite. Epes was moved to the white-washed state penitentiary a mile and one-half away to begin serving this afternoon the life of toll decreed by the court.

He was led out a side door and through an alley to a blue sedan, followed by a throng of bobby sox high school girls and other spectators clamoring to touch the condemned man.

The world's tallest tree is a 364-foot redwood near Dyer-ville, in Humboldt County.

WIFE FEARS MATE WHO FORGAVE HER BUT NOT PASTOR

Hollywood, Sept. 22—(U.P.)—Mrs. Bonnie Allen, 27, feared tonight that her soldier husband's refusal to forgive the pastor who fathered her baby would mean trouble for the preacher when Pvt. Elmer Allen returns from overseas next month.

Allen, in a letter, offered to forgive her for bearing the 14-month-old son which a superior court jury last spring declared was fathered by Mrs. Allen's pastor, the Rev. Cecil King.

"He says he loves me still," Mrs. Allen revealed. "But he hasn't forgiven Dr. King. When I come home, he wrote me, 'you can bring the baby with you.'"

"Now I'm afraid there will be plenty of trouble when Elmer comes home after being in Europe more than two years and meets with the Rev. King," Mrs. Allen added.

PROSPECT GROUP HELD FOR THEFT

Eugene Bellows, 21, Vean Robertson, 22, and a 17-year-old juvenile, all of the Prospect district, are in the Jackson county jail on charges of car theft and forgery. They were arrested last night at Prospect by sheriff's deputies and state police on a warrant held by the sheriff's office, charging forgery. They admitted stealing an auto at San Jose, Calif., which was in their possession.

Bellows and the juvenile were arrested in bed at a Prospect residence Thursday night but Robertson was not there. Later he was seen driving rapidly by the house in the stolen car. Bellows and the youth were brought to Medford and lodged in the county jail, the sheriff's deputy and police returning to Prospect in search of Robertson.

Aid of the deputy sheriff at Prospect was obtained and the stolen car was found on an unused road, hidden in brush. Robertson later was found hiding in a cabin in the vicinity of Flourence Rock.

The men are under investigation on further charges, it was stated.
