Miss Davis Wed To Warren Helm At Local Church

The marriage of Miss Jeanne Davis of Shady Cove, to Warren J. Helm of Medford was solemnized Saturday, Sept. 15, in the parlor of the Presbyterian church. The Rev. Harry W. Hansen read the double-ring ceremony before the fireplace which had been decorated with flowers and tall candelabra holding lighted tapers.

Miss Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis of Shady Cove, was given in marriage by her father. For the wedding she wore a powder blue suit with navy blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias and roses. Her maid-of-honor, Miss Betty Stewart of Grants Pass, wore a beige suit with beige and black accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Sgt. Donald Helm served as best man for his brother. A small group of close friends and members of the family were present for the wedding and after the service a reception was held at the Medford Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Helm made a brief wedding trip and are now residing at Shady Cove. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Helm of Medford.

Harr-Lewis Rites Held in Houston Of Interest Here

Friends of Lt. John B. Harr and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harr of Copper Route, Jacksonville, will be interested in the news of the officer's wedding. His bride is the former Miss Dorothy Lee Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garland N. Lewis, Houston, Texas.

Miss Lewis and Lt. Harr were married Sept. 15 at West University Methodist church in Houston by Dr. Harry G. Knowles. The bride's wedding costume was a gray faille gown worn with gray accessories and a veiled hat. Her flowers were a corsage of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Gaynell Ayers, the bride's only attendant, wore aqua crepe with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Lt. (jg) Edward E. Lewis, brother of the bride served as best man for Lt. Harr and ushers were Charles M. Lewis and Ward Onstad.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding. Miss Virginia Epperson poured, Miss Charlene Barton served and Miss Ann McElroy presided at the bride's book.

Mrs. Harr graduated from Crane high school in Houston while the groom attended Jackson county schools and later the University of Oregon. He served overseas with the air corps and was a prisoner of war in Germany for 18 months after having been forced down during a raid.

Adarel Chapter Has Homecoming Thursday Night

Jacksonville—Many members and guests were present for the annual homecoming of Adarel chapter No. 3, O.E.S., Jacksonville, held Thursday evening following a covered dish dinner. Notable among the guests were Mrs. Lorena McNaair, Ashland, grand conductress of the grand chapter of Oregon; Mrs. Hope Wood, grand representative of South Carolina, who gave an interesting paper on that state; Mrs. Adelaide McClary, worthy matron of Alpha chapter of Ashland, and Mrs. Amelia Hiles, worthy matron of Reames chapter of Medford.

These guests were escorted to the east and each was presented with a corsage.

The annual homecoming was inaugurated by Nettie Thompson, worthy matron of Adarel in 1918, and each year since has brought many members from distant places to spend an enjoyable evening in their home chapter.

Mrs. Ethel Pease headed the committee which had charge of the dining room and table decorations.

Lodge Will Visit Neighboring Group

Plans are being made for members of Olive Rebekah lodge to visit the Jacksonville lodge Oct. 1. The visit will be made following a brief business session at the lodge hall here.

Visitors at the last meeting of the Medford lodge were Mrs. Fannie Calvert, Rebekah from Bremerton, Wash., and Mrs. Laura Carlson, Rebekah from Westwood, Calif.

Mrs. Eden Naffziger and Mrs. Veva Wimer presented a program. Chester Cole appeared in a solo, accompanied by Vera Smith and little Stevie Hoag gave two readings. Mrs. Bessie Hubler sang, accompanied by Mrs. Ella Gould and Vera Smith gave a piano number.

The lodge plans a rummage sale for the near future.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Rose Young and a committee.

Portland Visitor Is Guest of Littles

Relatives Receive News of Wedding Held in England

Filled with English tradition is the report of the wedding of Miss Doreen Mary Garnett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Garnett of "Glen Top", Daisy Bank Leek, to Donald S. Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sanford Richardson of Table Rock, received last week.

The wedding, which was solemnized Monday afternoon, September 3, in the Old Church of Leek, England, was preceded by the ringing of the church bells and as the couple left the church the bride's young cousin, Miss Peggy Hulce, presented her with a silver horseshoe.

The vicar, the Rev. N. W. Watson, M. A., R. D., was the officiating clergyman. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white figured satin with hand embroidered veil, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her bridesmaids were Miss Joan Worsley and her cousin, Miss Patricia Peach. The former wore a frock of ecru net over blue taffeta with head-dress to match and carried a bouquet of pink carnations; the latter a dress of pink crepe de chine with overdress of white net, head-dress and nosegay of pink and white sweetpeas.

The bride's mother wore a brown costume with corsage of pink carnations. Best man for the bridegroom was Roy Corden, cousin of the bride, and groomsmen were Wm. A. Bowyer and M. Phillip Bailey.

Miss Parr presided at the organ and played "The Bridal March" for entrance of the wedding party. The service was fully choral.

Following the wedding a large reception was held at the Three Horseshoes, Blackshaw Moor, after which the couple left for a honeymoon at Llandudno on the coast of Wales. The bride wore for traveling a grey costume with navy blue accessories.

The bride is the only child of the R. H. Garnetts of "Glen Top". She is a cadet officer in the Girls Training Corps, which was very active during England's years at war. She and Lieut. Richardson met at an officers' dance when he was stationed in England.

Lieut. Richardson attended the Central Point schools and was graduated from the University of Oregon school of law. He was associated with the law firm of Green and Landye in Portland, when he entered the service. He received his officer's training at Camp Davis in North Carolina and was with the 95th division through the European campaigns and until V-E day. He is now in command of Headquarters Battery 547th AAA Bn. in Belgium.

The couple will be at home in Portland when Lieut. Richardson is returned to civilian life.

Stanford Students Leave For School

Several Medford students left Medford last week for Stanford university in California where the fall quarter opens Sept. 24. Thursday morning Bill Patton left by motor for the school, where he will enroll for his freshman year, and leaving by plane Thursday were the Misses Lois Pringle and Patricia Farrell. Both young women will be seniors this year. Miss Barbara Inskeep, a junior, left Saturday by car and also leaving that day was Allen Lewis, a sophomore.

Accompanying Young Patton was his mother, Mrs. C. Reese Braley and Mr. Braley, and the couple is remaining in San Francisco for a week's vacation. Miss Inskeep's parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Inskeep, motored as far as Dunsmuir with their daughter.

Birthday Party Given For Son

Sidney Joe Smith celebrated his fifth birthday anniversary last Sunday with a party given by his mother, Mrs. Stanley Smith, at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Binard, Thomas Road. A group of eight playmates were invited for an afternoon of games and a birthday cake and other refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Rogers, Jr. (nee Peggy Ann Young) were married at St. Mark's Episcopal church here in August. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young, Phoenix-Jacksonville highway, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Rogers, Sr., GeBauer apartments. —(Shangle Photo).

Pauline Clement, Laurence Jones Married Sunday

The wedding of Miss Pauline Rita Clement, daughter of Peter Clement, Medford, and Laurence Chalmers Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, also of Medford, was an event of Sunday morning at the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses. The Rev. D. E. Millard performed the ceremony at 9 o'clock before a group of 25 relatives and friends of the couple. A group from the Eagle's lodge, of which the groom is a member, were present in uniform.

Before the ceremony Rev. Millard sang "I Love You Truly." The bride wore a dark suit with corsage of gardenias and pink roses. Mrs. Leland Jones, sister-in-law of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a suit of aqua color with gardenia corsage.

Jesse L. Gentry was best man. The groom is an employee of the Bear Creek Orchards. He and his bride will make their home in Medford.

Farewell Party Given by Club; Couple Leaving

Mrs. E. W. Hoffman was honored guest at a farewell party given at her home Sept. 14 by members of the Jolly Stitches' club. Mrs. Hoffman and her husband, Dr. Hoffman, will leave in the near future to make their home in McMinnville. The doctor is retiring and in McMinnville the couple will live near relatives.

Pinochle was played during the evening, with Mrs. Harry Barneburg receiving prize for high score and Mrs. O. V. Hayes the consolation prize. Refreshments were served.

Present were Mrs. G. G. Stagg, Mrs. Hans Rammin, Mrs. Bessie Johnston, Mrs. Ralph Atwood, Mrs. Ida Hollars, Mrs. O. V. Hayes, Mrs. Frank W. Oveiman, Mrs. Harry Barneburg and Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman.

Miss Babcock Wed To Cpl. Schurman In Kansas Service

Among recent weddings was that of Miss Doris Genevieve Babcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Babcock, Coker Butte Road, and Cpl. Kenneth P. Schurman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aver Schurman of Atchison, Kan. The service was solemnized at four o'clock in the afternoon, Sept. 12, at the First Christian church of Atchison, with the Rev. Loyd Northcott reading the double-ring ceremony.

The bride's wedding costume was of coral pink with accessories of white and her flowers were a pink rosebud corsage. She wore a string of pearls, gift of the groom. The matron-of-honor, Mrs. R. W. Morrison, sister of the groom, wore a dark green afternoon dress, brown accessories and a corsage of white asters.

Orean Hale acted as best man. Seventy guests were present for the reception at the home of the groom's parents. The wedding cake formed the serving table centerpiece, with flowers and lighted candles completing the table decorations.

Assisting the groom's mother at the reception were Mrs. Richard Linell, Mrs. Harry Kreider and Mrs. C. C. Anderson.

Cpl. and Mrs. Schurman left later for Medford and are now visiting at the home of the bride's parents. For traveling Mrs. Schurman wore a powder blue gabardine suit with white accessories.

Cpl. Schurman recently returned home after serving in the Mediterranean theater of operations with the Fifth army, during which he was decorated. He reports later to Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., and then to an Alabama camp. Mrs. Schurman, a graduate of Medford high school, will resume her work at the Medford Laboratories, remaining here for the present.
