

LOCALS

Bike Stolen—John Great, 920 Beatty street, reported to city police Friday the theft of his World bicycle, license No. 288, from in front of a local theater.

Awning Burns—Slight damage was caused to an awning at the Western Auto Supply store, South Riverside avenue, Friday evening, firemen, who extinguished the blaze, reported.

To University—Among Medford students returning to the University of Oregon is Robert Pittenger, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pittenger, route 4, Pittenger, president of Asklepiads, pre-medical honorary fraternity, is entering his third year at the university.

Auto Accident—A car driven by Elton F. Hanscom, Central Point, was badly damaged Friday night when it struck a power line pole on North Central avenue, breaking the pole and turning the auto on its side, city police reported yesterday. Hanscom and two passengers in the car were uninjured, the report stated. Hanscom also reported to officers yesterday the theft of a tire from the car.

Building Permits—Applications for building permits were filed at the city superintendent's office Friday by Howard Fletcher, 327 Fairmount street, and O. A. Selby, 30 North Peach street, both to erect garages costing $150.

Officer Home—First Lt. Stanley H. Brewer, who recently arrived in Medford after serving with the Third army in Europe, is visiting Mrs. Brewer at her home, 145 North Ivy street. He will then report to Ft. Lewis for reassignment. The lieutenant's home is in Kellogg, Ida.

Discharged—T/Sgt. Leroy J. Cameron, Gold Hill, and T/4 John W. Eads, 203 North Ivy street, were recently given honorable discharges at Fort Lewis, Wash. Given an honorable discharge from the navy at Bremerton was Gerald C. Rood, aviation metalmith second class, USNR, of 807 West 11th street.

Navy Men Released—Among those recently given honorable discharges at the Puget Sound Naval Yard, Bremerton, Wash., were Paul C. Jennings, chief motor machinist's mate, 1028 West Tenth street; Ray D. Watson, Jr., chief commissary steward, route 1, box 207; and Leslie H. Snyder, seaman first class, USNR, 308 Alice street, all of Medford.

Visiting Here—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Launspach, of Stockton, Calif., formerly of Medford, arrived in the city Friday to spend a week with his mother, Mrs. George Launspach, 307 South Oakdale avenue, and sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Robbins, and son, Herb, 915 West 11th street.

Jennings Home—Paul Jennings, former deputy sheriff of Jackson county, arrived in the city Thursday following an honorable discharge from the navy after two years and ten months in the service. As a chief machinist's mate, Jennings served 20 months with the Atlantic fleet. Mr. and Mrs. Jennings reside at 304 North Ivy street.

Transferred—Robert R. Leavitt, S 2/c, in the navy, has been transferred to Norman, Okla., for training as a combat air crewman according to information received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Leavitt, 39 Summit avenue. Young Leavitt has been in the navy five months and just completed training at San Diego. He is a graduate of Medford senior high school.

Enters College—Kenneth Maurice Thurston, recently honorably discharged from the navy where he was a pharmacist's mate second class, has left for Pullman, Wash., to enroll in the department of veterinary medicine at Washington State college. Thurston was last stationed at the naval hospital, Corvallis. He was in the navy three years, spending a considerable time in the Pacific theater. His brother, Jim, AmmT 1/c, is in San Diego at present and another brother, Sidney, Y 1/c, is now stationed at a naval air base near Boston. The young men are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Thurston, Eagle Point.
