Red Cross Women Urged to Enroll With Gray Ladies
Women who have engaged in Red Cross activities now dropped or being curtailed, because of the end of the war, were asked today to consider enrollment in the Gray Ladies. It was pointed out that in the Red Cross re-conversion program some types of volunteer duty is no longer needed but that increased work will be found for the Hospital and Recreation corps, or Gray Ladies.

HIROHITO MAY GIVE UP THRONE TO SON
Tokyo, Sept. 22.—(U.P.)—Indications that Emperor Hirohito is considering abdicating in favor of his 11-year-old son increased today despite a denial from the royal household. Many informed Japanese believed Hirohito intends to remain on the throne only long enough to complete his surrender commitments.
