

rites Thursday for F. Hubbard, County Pioneer

Funeral services for Fortunatus Hubbard, 79, Jackson county pioneer and one of the early owners of the present Hubbard Brothers company here, will be held at the Perle funeral home Thursday at 2 p. m. with the Rev. Louis C. Kirby, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating. Hubbard passed away Sunday at the home of his son, Ferdie A. Hubbard, in Central Point. Interment will be in Medford I.O.O.F. cemetery.

Hubbard, born May 28, 1866, in Illinois, came to Jacksonville in 1883 with his father who established an implement business in that town. He went into business with his father in 1884 and the firm was later moved to Medford under the name of Hubbard Brothers Fortunatus Hubbard was the eldest of the Hubbard brothers and the last to survive. Ashel C. Alexis and Oatis having all preceded him in death.

The deceased was married in 1894 to Theresa McKee of Jacksonville and three children were born to this couple. All three, Earl of Seattle, Ferdie of Central Point and Aletha of Seattle, survive. His second marriage was to Lydia Meadows, 440 South Riverside, who survives, and other survivors are a grandchild and great-grandchild in Seattle.

Hubbard retired from active business in 1926 and in the interest of his health went to Crater Lake National park as a ranger. The latter years of his life were spent with his son and daughter in Seattle. He was a life-long member of the Odd Fellows lodge and also belonged to the Elks lodge, Kiwanis club and Rebekah lodge while residing in Medford. Mr. Hubbard, active in the city's civic affairs, was widely known as a public spirited citizen and held in high esteem and regard while in business in Medford.

FIRES CONTINUE IN LATE SEASON

Late season fires continue to occur in the Rogue River National forest, with one additional blaze reported Monday afternoon in the Union Creek district according to headquarters of the service. This brought to five the number of fires reported over the week-end and Monday.

The Union Creek blaze is thought to have started from a logging operation and covered five acres, a forest official stated. A blaze in the Applegate district discovered yesterday morning, said to have spread from a camp or warming fire, covered less than an acre according to the fire guard sent to the scene.
