

Army Choice Over Wake Forest, Bears Over Huskies, Says Fraley's Follies

By Oscar Fraley
United Press Sports Writer
Detroit, Oct. 5—(U.P.)—Buttressed within the World Series baselines of Briggs Stadium—the third edition of Fraley's Follies, or the weekend football winners.

East:
Army over Wake Forest—and Manager Cholly Grimm is an easy guy, too.
Yale over Holy Cross—Stan Hack wrangles steers and chews tobacco.
Navy over Duke—Peanuts Lowrey is plenty salty.
Pitt over Bucknell—Phil Cavretta: Good hit, good field, good guy.
Penn over Dartmouth—Andy Pafko, a rookie but not at milking cows.

Midwest:
Illinois over Indiana—Bill Nicholson color blind only.
Minnesota over Nebraska—Mickey Livingston socks 'em.
Michigan over Northwestern—Roy Hughes steadies away the blues.
Ohio State over Iowa—Hank Wysz: Corset or no, he's in form.
Also: Kentucky over Michigan State; and Purdue over Wisconsin.

South:
Georgia Tech over Notre Dame—and Steve O'Neil is plenty jittery.
Mississippi over Vanderbilt—Skeeter Webb is seeing red.

(Poetry yet).
Alabama over LSU—Eddie Mayo is a real blue chip guy.
Georgia over Miami—Doc Cramer is known as "Flit" because he's death on flies.
Clemson over North Carolina State—easy as Hank Greenberg hits homers.

West:
UCLA over COP—Roy Culenbine is one of the best bowlers and golfers in the Majors.
California over Washington—Rudy York is of German-Irish-Indian descent.

Southern California over St. Mary's Pre-Flight—Jimmy Outlaw robs 'em of hits.
Oregon over Idaho—Paul Richards, poor fellow, is a sports writer in the off-season.

Southwest:
Oklahoma A & M over Denver—Virgil Trucks is another of those Irish-Indian combinations.
Arkansas over TCU—Stubby Overmire is a Dutch devastator.

Texas Aggies over Oklahoma—you folks sure have plenty patience.
Also: Rice over Southwestern, Texas over Texas Tech and Tulsa over Drake.
(Season record: 81 right, 13 wrong).

Oregon Hoopers To Make Eastern Tour

Eugene, Ore., Oct. 5—(U.P.)—The University of Oregon Webfeet today were signed up for two eastern appearances in December.

After approval by the Oregon Athletic Board, the Webfeet agreed to play in the eight-team DePaul University tourney at Chicago Dec. 12, 14 and 15 and possibly other games with Buffalo, Philadelphia and Washington. On Dec. 19, the team plays Long Island University at Madison Square Garden. It will be their fifth appearance at the Garden and the first since the 1941-42 season.

Closing time for Sunday Too Late to Classify 4:00 Saturday afternoon. Please remember.

TORNADO LEAVES FOR CONTEST AT EUGENE TONIGHT

Medford high's football team, with two straight victories tucked under their belts, left this morning for Eugene where they will tackle the Eugene Axemen tonight. Coach Al Simpson said the squad is in good shape and seems completely over their bulge of confidence which was so noticeable at Coos Bay last week.

Al Kircher has returned to the lineup and will replace Tommy Mottern as first string tackle, Simpson said. Howard Whillcock may be shifted from end to tackle where he will have a better opportunity to use his brawn.

Eugene will be one of the toughest teams the Black Tornado will be called on to face this season and Simpson was preparing his boys for a bitter contest. A wet field is in prospect for the game which may hinder Medford's dazzling T-formation.

The squad will remain in Eugene to see the Oregon-Idaho game Saturday afternoon, returning to Medford Sunday.

DAVIDSON LOSES; FIGHTS REFEREE

Harold (Blood and Guts) Davidson lost his half of the Medford armory double main event wrestling program last night to Jack Lipscomb but had nobody to blame but himself. Lipscomb took the first fall in the second round but Davidson opened the third with choke holds in an attempt to get even. Referee Earl Yoakley tried vainly to break it up and was felled heavily by Davidson. Davidson and the arbiter tangled several times in a brief few minutes before Yoakley gave the match to Lipscomb on a foul.

Davidson and Yoakley continued their feud in the ring and then took it to the dressing room when law enforcement officers were called to break it up.

Yoakley showed no desire for more fisticuffs as he let Rough Rufus Jones do pretty much as he pleased in giving Georges Dusette a thorough beating to take the other half of the twin bill.

Angelo Martinelli showed plenty of clever grappling as he took a lone fall decision over Ernie Piluso before a near-capacity crowd.

Suits Forgotten; Playoff Delayed

Seattle, Oct. 5—(U.P.)—The initial playoff game between the San Francisco Seals and the Seattle Rainiers for the Pacific Coast league Governor's Cup will be held tonight.

The opening game, originally scheduled for last night, was postponed when the Seals arrived in full strength—minus their uniforms and equipment.

MEDFORD GUN CLUB TO SLATE SHOOT SUNDAY

Medford Gun club will hold its regular pre-bird hunting season shoot at the club grounds at Crater Lake Four Corners at 11 a. m. Sunday. Owing to shortage of shells, shooting will be limited to club members but non-members, bringing their own shells, will be extended the shooting courtesy by the club. Soft drinks, sandwiches and coffee will be available during the program and the public is invited to attend.

Despite the shortage of ammunition, several hunters have reported success in their search for deer in the wilds of Southern Oregon. Among those who have weighed their deer in at Lamport's "Big Buck" contest, and where they shot them, are Ernest Lyman, Table Rock; Paul Yocum, Antelope; Herb Goff, Lakeview; Frank Foley, Lakeview; R. M. Webber, Mt. Ashland; Claude Sholler, Malin; R. S. Wiler, Lakeview; Claude Jones, Cottonwood Creek, and A. L. Nash, Prospect.

Many local nimrods are still in Eastern Oregon and several nice bags are expected to be reported when they return. Some less fortunate would-be hunters are kept at home through lack of shells, which are being allotted to dealers according to their 1941 sales. Larger quantities are not expected to be released until late spring or summer of next year.

Fishing the past week in Rogue river has taken a decided turn for the worse, according to Al Piche, who provides us with the weekly dope. Piche explained the lack of catches to the fact that salmon now are through spawning and are seen in the river protecting their spawning beds and since no loose eggs are floating downstream, trout and steelhead have moved to other locations. The salmon will linger and die while steelhead will move upstream, but trout of smaller size are starting to migrate to the ocean.

We don't put too much stock in Piche's fishing reports at this time, however, for he has been promising us a catch all summer and has, so far, failed to produce.

Fair fishing for bass is reported at Lake O'Woods and perch are easily caught by bottom fishing with bait, Piche reports.

Salmon along the coast are starting to run and very shortly there will be good fishing in tide waters of many streams.

Hotels Sold Out For World Series Games at Chicago

Chicago, Oct. 5—(U.P.)—There were 135,400 rooms in this city's 1,385 hotels today but somebody got there first.

World series fans curled up in the railroad stations and wandered the streets. The optimistic haunted hotel lobbies.

Even the Turkish baths hung out "no vacancy" signs.

A Hotel Sherman room clerk offered a slim hope.

"A fellow bringing his own cot can get space in a hallway," he said.

The Blackstone was booked solid through November 29.

There are between 4,000 and 5,000 seats in the bleachers at Cubs park. The line began forming yesterday.

Reserved seats were sold out a week ago.

Those lucky enough to have tickets were asking—and getting—as much as $100 for a set of three grandstand seats regularly priced at $18.

State's Attorney William J. Tuohy revived a little-used statute providing a $5,000 fine for the sale of tickets for more than face value and said it was the duty of police to arrest all scalpers.

In the eyes of the Collector of Internal Revenue, however, scalping is permissible so long as the scalpers stamp the amount of the purchase price on the back of the ticket and pays the government 20 per cent.

DOYLE FAVORITE
New York, Oct. 5—(U.P.)—Jimmy Doyle, clever Los Angeles welterweight, is a heavy favorite to beat Johnny Green of Buffalo, N. Y., tonight in their 10-round bout at St. Nicholas arena.

FSA HEAD NAMED
Washington, Oct. 5—(U.P.)—President Truman today named Watson B. Miller of Maryland to be federal security administrator, succeeding Paul V. McNutt, now the high commissioner to the Philippines.

MC SPADEN TIED FOR HONORS IN OPENING ROUND

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 5—(U.P.)—Rangy Ed Furgol, former Detroit public links star, shared a four under par 66 with Harold (Jug) McSpaden, Sanford, Me., to lead the field into the second round of the Tacoma Open Golf tournament today.

Rising from comparative obscurity Furgol grabbed three birdies on the tough first nine for 34 and came up with three more for a 32 on the final lap in yesterday's opener.

Veteran McSpaden settled for three birdies out and one in for 32-34. He hit all three in regulation figures and left four putts hanging on the lip.

The stroke of the day came on the ninth hole when McSpaden drove 280 yards from behind a tree to land within inches of the green.

A stiff wind and bumpy greens kept McSpaden's companion in the Big Four at par and above par figures. Lord Byron Nelson, of Toledo, O., banged out 36-34-70, while Sammy Sneed, Hunt Springs, Va., and Ben Hogan, Hershey, Pa., slid in with 72's.

Forty-four Texas cities had a population of more than 10,000 in 1940.

Wife of Doctor Shoots Nurse In Fit of Jealousy

San Francisco, Oct. 5—(U.P.)—Mrs. Annie Irene Mansfeldt, 46-year-old wife of a society doctor, today faced a murder charge—convicted too late that the nurse she suspected of having an affair with her husband had never cared for him.

Authorities said meanwhile they wished to "talk to" her husband, Dr. John Mansfeldt, a general practitioner and grandon of the late concert pianist John Mansfeldt, who disappeared shortly after visiting the hospital where his wife had brought the dying nurse.

Mrs. Mansfeldt is held pending arraignment for the fatal shooting of Mrs. Vada Martin, 32, a special nurse. Earlier she told authorities a partially incoherent story of shooting Mrs. Martin as the two women sat in one of the Mansfeldts' two cars. A week before, she said, she had found the attractive nurse sitting in her husband's automobile.

Jaffers reported that Mrs.

Mansfeldt was sleeping quietly without sedatives despite extreme agitation earlier in the evening over the fact she had not seen her husband since the shooting.
