Golden Wedding Celebrated By Medford Couple

A reception at the Methodist church Wednesday evening marked the golden wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Belknap, route 4. More than 100 friends of the couple gathered in the church parlors, made colorful for the occasion with autumn blossoms, to extend best wishes to the couple. Dr. Belknap, retired Methodist clergyman, was at one time pastor of the Medford Methodist church.

Dr. L. C. Kirby, present pastor, presided during a program which opened with greetings from Clarence A. Meeker. Dr. Susie Standard presented readings and the Misses Bernice and Marjorie Bloomingcamp gave piano duets. Other musical numbers were given by Mrs. Lucile Schoppert, who sang.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Belknap spoke following a talk by Dr. Kirby, the elderly pastor, who is 93 years of age, reminiscing about his service with the local church during 1909 and 1910.

During the serving of refreshments the Belknaps cut the first slice of the wedding cake after which Mrs. Albert Franks finished the cutting. Hostesses for the reception were members of the Mary and Martha circle, of which Mrs. Ralph Woodford is president.

Dr. and Mrs. Belknap were married in Dayton, Ore., and following his retirement from the ministry in 1924, have resided on a farm on route 4. Last summer he was given an honorary doctor of divinity degree at Willemette University at Salem.

The Belknaps left later in the week for Wenatchee, Wash., to visit relatives.
