Demonstrations Given Thursday For Garden Club

Medford Garden Club held a well attended morning laboratory session at the Girls Community Club Thursday. Clever ideas in gift wrapping were demonstrated by Mrs. L. L. Rentz and Mrs. Otto Ewaldsen, while Mrs. W. C. Rookard gave instructions in the art of making sachets, vinegars and candles from fragrant and spicy herbs.

Main event of the afternoon session was an interesting talk given by Mrs. Chester Maris of Smith River Calif on the culture of hardy fuschias. She brought a great many species with her from her garden in Smith River.

Mrs. G. Q. D'Albini was tea chairman for the afternoon, assisted by Mrs. R. T. Nichol, Mrs. J. W. Jacobs, Mrs. F. Cochran, and Mrs. O. H. Brenneman. The tea table was centered with an arrangement of asters and Michaelmas daisies.

Honored guests for the afternoon were Mrs. C. C. Sater, state chairman of "Northwest Gardens"; Mrs. L. G. Gentner, state district vice-president, and Mrs. B. T. Nichol member of the state horticultural awards committee.

Prizes were won by Mrs. L. Williams and Mrs. H. F. Cope. New members in attendance were Mrs. Hugh H. Reed, Mrs. Edna Halverson, and Mrs. Harriet Merritt.

Pasadena Pianist Presents Concert For Local Society

(By Mrs. E. E. Gore)
One of the most outstanding piano recitals to be given in Medford in quite some time was that of Harlow Mills, Pasadena pianist Monday evening at the Purucker Piano House, under the auspices of the Medford Musical Society. Having played for this group on two previous occasions, the concert was like a reunion of old friends and a spirit of anticipation and a feeling of enthusiasm for the young artist prevailed which will long be remembered.

The program exemplified the classic and romantic schools of music with a popular Sonata, Op. 81, by Beethoven, and a varied group of Chopin which were followed by two of Mr. Mills own delightful compositions. A march by Prokofieff, a prelude by the modern Russian master of composition, Shostakovich, and a charming concert piece, "The Juggler" by Toch, followed. The closing group consisted of three brilliant concert numbers by Franz Liszt.

Mr. Mills musical interpretation is eminently artistic and very satisfying while his lovely tone and facile technic enable him to adequately express the beauty inherent in each number. Encores were "Etude in D-flat", Chopin; "On Wings of Song", Mendelssohn, "Oriental Etude", Poldini; "Du Bist de Ruh", Schubert Liszt.

The president of the Musical Society, Mrs. O. L. Williams, assisted by her daughter, Miss June Williams, Mrs. Richard Payne, Mrs. Darrel Huson, Mrs. Herman Purucker and Mrs. John Carter greeted the guests at the door while in town Mr. Mills was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Huson, 45 Lindley avenue.

Chorus Announces Practice Session, Plans For Season

Rogue Valley Mixed chorus, organized last year under the leadership of Miss Mabel Nansen, school music supervisor, will begin the 1945-46 season with a practice Tuesday, Oct. 9, at 7:30 p. m. in the high school music room officers announce.

Last spring this group presented a successful concert and plans to make several appearances this year. Singers who were members last year will automatically continue their membership, it is said, and other singers of the Rogue Valley region who would enjoy singing some of the best musical literature are invited to attend the first practice.

Alanus Pruitt is president of the group and Miss Olive Curry is secretary.

Members Present Society Program

A study on "Uprooting from the Church," prepared by Mrs. A. H. Gregory, was presented at the meeting of the Adult Missionary society of the First Christian church held in the recreation room of the church last week. Mrs. Eula Foley presided.

The worship service on "Their Insecurity - Our Fellowship" was presented by Mabel Buchanan and Georgia Burnham presented "The Pastor's Call to Colors." "Migrant Congregation, Civilian" was given by Mrs. George Corum and "Migrant Congregation, Military" by Mrs. M. E. Olson.

The Rev. Delbert Daniels spoke on "A New Sense of Significance."

Refreshments in the Hallway were served to 46 members and guests by Mrs. May Hon's group.

Women's League Plans Activities At Board Meeting

To shape plans for the fall and winter, board members of the Jackson County League of Women Voters met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Justin Smith, 21 Geneva street. Mrs. Smith states that tentative plans were outlined for presenting three speakers at open meetings during the late fall and winter, with details to be announced later.

Reports were heard of the last state board meeting and an announcement made of a regional meeting in Eugene Nov. 3. The Oregon league will concentrate this winter on a three-point program which includes increased state support for public schools, equalization of school taxation and a study of a unified statewide system for child services. It was announced. Continuing support will be given to the county manager system and to a state merit system.

Among other projects, the national league is endeavoring at this time to arouse interest in the national and international food situation. National officers point out that furnishing of food supplies to other countries need not be on a relief basis, since some have the funds to pay for food.

A membership committee, headed by Mrs. William Bowerman, will take up activities at once.

Pfc. Fraedrick, Sergeant Knitter Married in East

Prospect - Pfc. Jean Fraedrick, women's army corps, was married to Master Sgt. John Knitter of Philadelphia, Penn., Sept. 1 at Dayton, Ohio. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fraedrick, Jr. of Prospect. The couple made a wedding trip to New York City and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Knitter graduated from the Prospect high school in 1940 and after attending school at Eugene the following year completed a course at the Medford beauty school. Prior to her enlistment in the WAC she was employed in Medford beauty shops.

Sgt. Knitter, who recently returned home after overseas duty, and Mrs. Knitter both expect to be released from the army soon and will then make their home in Oregon.

Sojourners' Club Annual Guest Day Set For Thursday

One of the large social affairs of the coming week will be the party which Medford Sojourners' club will give at the Girls' Community club Thursday afternoon in observance of the annual guest day. Dessert, to be served at 1 p. m. will be followed by an afternoon of cards.

Each member of the group is privileged to invite a guest. The committee in charge is headed by Mrs. Vincent Smith and she will be assisted by members of the board.

Reservations are to be made by calling 3466.

College Women Announce Date Of First Meet

Fall activities will be resumed by the College Women's club of the Rogue River valley with a meeting Saturday, Oct. 13, at the home of Mrs. George S. Jennings, Saginaw Drive.

Mrs. Walter Inch will discuss the constitution adopted at the world security conference at San Francisco.

Social chairman for the meeting is Mrs. Victor Birdseye.

Medford Couple Leave For California Town

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoppe, 53 North Peach street, left Friday morning for Needles, Calif., where they will reside for the present. The couple planned to stop for a few days in San Francisco before continuing south. Their daughter, Miss Joan Hoppe, student at Medford senior high school, will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eden, 211 Genesee street, for the school term.

The so-called "Big Hatteras blues" weighing up to 14 pounds, which appeared off the North Carolina coast in 1935, have never returned. Some fishermen say they are due back in 1949. No one knows why the blues periodically reach this size, nor where they come from.
