General Eisenhower Reports

General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower's "The True Glory," a thrilling film report depicting the action on the Western front from D-Day to V-E Day, comes to the Rialto theatre Wednesday for a four-day engagement. "The True Glory" is the story of the Nazis' defeat on the Western Front, and a stirring tribute to all the people who made victory possible. It reveals the teamwork among nations, services and men. "The True Glory" is acclaimed the most outstanding and exceptional pictorial report of World War II, co-directed by Capt. Garson Kanin for the United States and Carol Reed for the British.

Double Trouble at Rialto

Preston Foster and Gail Patrick have their hands full of double trouble in the persons of the Wilde Twins in "Twice Blessed," starting today at the Rialto theatre. On the same program Claudette Colbert and Ben Lyon appear in "I Cover the Waterfront," re-engaged by popular demand.

Conley Promoted—Promotion of Ensign Benny Conley of the merchant marine corps to his present rank was learned this week by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Conley, route 1. Ensign Conley, who was promoted from a chief petty officer, entered the merchant marine in September, 1944 and is now stationed at San Pedro, Calif., awaiting transfer to Honolulu.

Humphries Discharged—Following three and one-half years overseas with the Eighth Air force stationed in England, Thomas Humphries returned home last week and is residing at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Humphries, 322 East 12th street. A technical sergeant with headquarters of the Eighth Air force, Humphries received an honorable discharge from the service Sept. 27 at Ft. Lewis.

Musical

"Diamond Horseshoe," the romantic story of a girl who looked for love and a boy who wanted to sing, opens today at the Craterian theatre. Starring Betty Grable and Dick Haymes the film has a strong supporting cast with Phil Silvers, William Gaxton, Beatrice Kay, and Carmen Cavallaro.

Cookery will be the subject for the meeting. Those attending are asked to bring luncheon service.

Talent Meeting—Talent Extension unit will meet in the city hall at 10:30 a. m. Oct. 10. The lesson will be "sugar extending," and a pot luck luncheon will be enjoyed at noon. The meeting will be the first of the season and all ladies interested are invited.

In Hospital—J. P. Graham, well known Medford restaurant owner and state executive committee member of the Disabled American Veterans, is recovering in Sacred Heart hospital from an appendectomy performed Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Graham reside on Cottage street.

Cox Promoted—Reed Cox, with the 101st Airborne division in France, has been promoted to corporal according to information received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cox, 336 Mae street. Cox, who has been in Europe since March, was in Germany for a time. He expects to return home in December. Cpl. Cox' wife and daughter live in Bliss, Ida.

Unit To Meet—Medford Home Extension unit will meet Wednesday at the housing unit on Priddy avenue, the session to begin at 10:30 a. m. Miss Marian Farrell, county home demonstration unit, will speak on "Developing Good Taste in Clothing." Members are asked to bring a sack lunch and coffee will be served. Anyone interested is invited to attend and those desiring further information may call Mrs. Roy Guyer, 5842.

Could Cleopatra Drink a Pearl with Stomach Ulcer Pains?
An intriguing story of Cleopatra is the one where an admirer praised the beauty of two of her pearls, whereupon she dropped one into a glass of wine and drank it. She would hardly have done this had she suffered after-eating pains. Those who are distressed with stomach or ulcer pains, indigestion, gas pains, heartburn, burning sensation, bloating and other conditions caused by excess acid should try Ulig's. Get a 25c box of Ulig's Tablets from your druggist. First dose must convince or return box to us and get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK. Western Thrift and drug stores everywhere.

Robinson's Kin To Reside in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman W. Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Armond arrived in Medford Tuesday from Bremerton, Wash., and plan to make their homes in the city. Robinson, former chief yeoman in the navy, and son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Robinson, 18 Hawthorne avenue, received an honorable discharge recently after three years in the navy, two of which were spent overseas.

HAMILTON TO MANAGE UNION OIL STATION

H. K. Hamilton, well known Medford service station man with a background of 12 years in this business in Medford, has assumed management of the Union Oil Service Station at Fifth and Riverside streets. Hamilton has been associated with Hawkinston Tire Tread Service for the past 10 years. The new company will feature tires, recapping, accessories and general automotive service. The Union Oil Service Station will open under his management this week. Mr. Hamilton has two sons in the service, Harper, Jr., now being stationed on Tinian island as a bombardier on a B-29, and Robert serving in the Pacific on a destroyer escort.
