Only light workouts were scheduled yesterday and today for Medford's undefeated Black Tornado to allow the boys ample time to heal wounds suffered in their 52 to 7 trouncing of previously-unbeaten and unscorched Eugene Friday night.

A number of scratches and rock cuts were received on the Eugene field which is minus a single blade of grass. The game was by far the roughest so far this year and there are several body bruises to be healed before another tough contest, with Eureka here Friday night.

Although Bob Watson and Glenn Bostwick led the Medford touchdown parade that left 5500 fans aghast special credit can be given to no particular Tornado player. Those long scoring runs were made possible by excellent downfield blocking as well as superb work in the line. Darrell Riggs Glenn Tingley, Nick Greene, Al Kircher, Lynn Resonette, Herb Hill—in fact the whole forward wall played a bang-up game. A surprise to the Medford fans who saw the game was the excellent passing of Jim Cave, who up until last Friday had been playing center.

Cave was shifted to the passing spot whenever the occasion demanded and tossed several nice ones, including a 30 yard heave to Kircher.

The Eureka game will be no push-over, according to advance dope drifting in. The Loggers have a host of lettermen back, including all of last year's second string, which was just about good enough to beat the average small school. They probably will rely mostly on a strong passing attack, a department in which Medford's defense hasn't been too strong.

The Southern Oregon League picture took a decided turn for the better over the week-end so far as Medford is concerned. Previously-unbeaten Ashland, which had loomed as a strong contender, bowed before mediocre Klamath Falls by a 13-6 count but Grants Pass loomed as a formidable foe by trouncing Coos Bay, 20 to 0. Grants Pass engages the Pelicans on the Caveman field next Friday in a game which should just about decide where Medford will find its trouble in winning the league championship. Grants Pass should be able to lick the Klamath eleven but will probably be out-manned, something that played an important part in Ashland's loss.

On paper, which is no way to figure outcome of a ball game, Medford should be 20 points better than Grants Pass for the Tornado beat Coos Bay 40-0 while the best Grants Pass could do was 20-0.

Norval Stockstill, the Talent boy who wrestles Tex Porter in the opening match of Mack Lillard's Thursday night armory program, is not new to the squared circle although he has only one previous experience in the local ring. Stockstill used to be a very capable fly-weight and lightweight boxer around Ashland when the sport flourished there and did considerable leather pushing on smokers at Talent a few years ago. It was while showing he decided to give up boxing for a career and took up the business of tug and haul. When war broke out he took his undefeated mat record into the coast guard with him and decided to follow the long hard road of the professionals.

Once while on leave he tangled with a fellow from Alabama as an added feature to one of the Medford armory cards and lost to the southerner, who outweighed him by about 25 pounds.

Since that match he has met such well-known men as Harold (Blood and Guts) Davidson, Bob Kruse and a host of other ring notables. He only recently returned from a tour of Idaho on which he accompanied Maurice Tillet, the famous French Angel.

Stockstill has now been honorably discharged from the coast guard and plans to follow the mat profession in earnest. At the present time he is making his home in Ashland, pending arrival of his wife and family from Portland.

Standout Tornado Guards

Nick Greene, left, and Glenn Tingley, first string guards on the Medford high football squad, will be seen in action at the local stadium Friday night when the Tornado meets Eureka, Calif. ### Larry MacPhail To Face Hearing For Assault, Battery

Bel Air, Md., Oct. 9—(U.P.)—Hearings will be held here Oct. 16 on assault and battery charges lodged against President Larry MacPhail of the New York Yankees baseball club.

The charges were an outgrowth of last Friday's telephone service stoppage.

MacPhail assertedly became impatient when he couldn't get a long distance call through from his nearby country estate and stormed into the Bel Air telephone exchange. According to the two people there, he struck one, District Manager Thomas Dwyer, and spoke disrespectfully to the other, Chief Operator Mrs. Anna Towner.

They called the police and county sheriff who booked him on charges of disorderly conduct. He was freed pending the hearing on $554 bail.

Mexico City, Oct. 9—(U.P.)—United States players, led by National Champion Frank Parker and Mrs. Patricia Todd, moved into advanced rounds of the Pan-American tennis tournament today.

RECORDS TOPPED IN YESTERDAY'S SERIES CONTEST

Chicago, Oct. 9—(U.P.)—Baseball's official record keeper had a severe case of writer's cramp today.

During one of the wildest, most thrill-packed games in world series history the Cubs nosed out the Tigers, 8 to 7, yesterday in 12 innings to set the following records:

Gate receipts—The total take for the first six games, $1,388,277, including $100,000 in radio receipts, cracked the previous all-time high of $1,322,328.21 set by the Tigers and Cincinnati Reds in the seven-game 1940 series. Tomorrow's seventh game turnstile registration should raise the total receipts to approximately $1,600,000.

Most players: The Tigers and Cubs, in each using 19 players yesterday, surpassed a previous series mark of 18 held by the 1936 Giants. The grand total of 38 shattered the previous two-team high of 29 set by the Giants-Senators in 1936.

Longest game: Yesterday's battle, which continued for 3 hours and 28 minutes, broke by 34 minutes the previous high of 2:54 established by the Yankees and Dodgers in 1941.

Pinch hitters: The Cubs, in using their 11th pinch hitter yesterday, set a new record for National league "tardy entries." The Giants held the previous high of nine in 1923.

Other odds and ends records were: (1) most times at bat for one club in a game, Detroit—49; most times at bat, one player in a game, Mayo, York and Fafko, 6 (ties old record). (2) Most pitchers used in a game for both clubs, 9 (ties record).
