

Textiles From Loom Of Nation's Outstanding Weaver On Display

An exhibit of textiles from the loom of Dorothy Liebes, considered the nation's outstanding weaver, will be on display in the windows of Mann's Department store beginning today and remaining through Saturday. The exhibit, brought here by the Contemporary Book club, will be used by Mrs. Ernest Barnes in a talk on textiles at next meeting of the group and because of its outstanding nature, is being made available to the general public.

Mrs. Liebes, who had charge of the decorative arts building at the World's Fair, San Francisco, is now in business in San Francisco and in addition to designing and producing hand-loomed textiles, designs fabrics and advises on color combinations for textile manufacturers. The exhibit to be shown here comes from the Museum of Modern Art in New York and has been shown in other leading museums of the nation.

Unique materials and color combinations have earned Mrs. Liebes' her nation-wide reputation. In addition to the usual wool, cotton and rayon, the weaver uses raw silk, jute, bamboo reeds, plastics, ribbon, glass yarn and other materials with unusual color combinations.

In addition to her commercial enterprises, Mrs. Liebes is also national director of arts and skills for the Red Cross and has been engaged in setting up programs for some 80 hospitals in the nation.

Mrs. Barnes' lecture for the club, to be given during a meeting next week at the home of Mrs. Edwin R. Durno, is being presented as part of the club's program on "post war development" study theme for the year.

In addition to Mrs. Liebes' exhibit, Mrs. Barnes will use materials from Mann's store, including the new glass fabrics, for her talk.

Mrs. Harry Holmes, president of the club, made arrangements for display of the textile exhibit here.

HALSEY'S FLEET EN ROUTE HOME; GIVEN SEND-OFF

Honolulu, Oct. 11—(AP)—Admiral William F. Halsey's third fleet, bearing 38,000 crewmen and navy discharges, was homebound today in a seven-mile-long procession headed by 15 warships.

Thousands of islanders gave Halsey a tumultuous send-off as he steamed past Diamond Head aboard the flagship USS South Dakota. He will lead the fleet's victory parade into San Francisco bay about noon Oct. 13. Other units of the fleet will go to Seattle and San Pedro for Navy day celebrations.

Warships En Route
Also en route to the Pacific to the west coast was a big flotilla of warships commanded by Vice Admiral John H. Towers, commander of the second carrier task force.

Due in San Francisco next week was the navy transport Joseph T. Dickman which arrived from Manila yesterday carrying 1,419 American, British and Canadian army soldiers and civilians liberated from Japanese prison camps. The group included 555 U. S. army men and 96 officers, most of whom were with Gen. Jonathan Wainwright on Bataan. The transport Storm King, touched Pearl Harbor carrying 600 liberated English, Dutch and Canadian prisoners.

Halsey Leads
The battleships Texas and Arkansas preceded the third fleet's main force under a "change of plan." The Texas is en route to San Pedro and the Arkansas will disembark its discharges at Seattle.

Halsey led the following ships toward the west coast:

For San Francisco—Battleships South Dakota, Alabama, Wisconsin and Colorado; cruiser Vicksburg and Destroyers De Haven and Moore. Rear Admiral J. F. Shafer, whose flag flies from the Alabama, was in charge of the unit.

For Seattle—Battleship Iowa, cruiser Amsterdam and destroyers Taussig, Brush and Swenson, all under command of Rear Admiral Oscar C. Badger. The Colorado will go to Seattle after disembarking its passengers at San Francisco.

For San Pedro, Cal.—Battleships Nevada and West Virginia, and destroyer Collett, under Rear Admiral I. C. Sowell.

NEW WORLD-WIDE LABOR UNION TO MAKE PUBLIC BOW

Washington, Oct. 11—(AP)—A new world labor organization claiming 75,000,000 members under mixed communist, socialist and left wing leadership is making its first public bow this week.

The organization was established Oct. 8 in Paris after a meeting of delegates representing 46 countries which began on Sept. 25. The United States was represented by an all-CIO delegation led by Sidney Hillman.

Drives Wedge
The name is the World Federation of Trade Unions. Its creation drives another wedge between the Congress of Industrial Organizations and the American Federation of Labor here. The AFL has refused to participate in any international labor organization in which the Soviet Union or the CIO are represented.

Prior to the Paris meeting the British Trades Union Congress met in Blackpool, England. George Meany of the AFL addressed that congress, charging that Russian trade unions were instruments for the "virtual enslavement" of millions of Russian workers.

Remarks Protested
Russian spokesmen bitterly protested Meany's remarks. But the World Federation of Trade Unions, with the CIO and the Russian unions both in powerful positions within its organization, still hopes for AFL participation.

Dispatches from Paris indicate that the new labor organization expects the present leadership of the AFL ultimately to be overthrown. The new leaders would be expected to bring the American federation into the world group.

Frenchmen Leader
Meantime the World Federation of Trade Unions gets going with a Frenchman of mixed communist and socialist sympathies in the driver's seat. He is Louis Sallant, a 35-year-old leader of French underground resistance to the Germans after the 1940 armistice. He has no formal political affiliations but has supported communist views as often as socialist views in the day by day development of French politics.

PERON'S POLICE CHIEFS OUSTED

Buenos Aires, Oct. 11—(AP)—The two chief police officials charged with enforcing Argentina's state of siege were deposed today in the wake of the forced resignation of Col. Juan Peron, "strong man" of the military government.

The two were in charge of police who used Tommy guns, tear gas and sabers to break up anti-government demonstrations and jailed 2,000 protesting students in the past week.

Peron resigned yesterday as vice president, war minister and labor minister in the government which he had led with an iron hand.

Whether Peron's resignation effectively ends his reign of power still was not clear. Foreign Minister Juan I. Cooke admitted at a press conference that Peron may have resigned only to give him political freedom to
