Notre Dame, Army Favored To Take Top Tussles; Oregon Granted Edge

By Oscar Fraley
United Press Sports Writer
Chicago Oct. 12—(U.P.)—Bunts and punts with a red cap from Harlem in the LaSalle street station—the fourth of Fraley's

"infallible" follies, or the week-end football winners.

Midwest:
Notre Dame over Dartmouth—smash your baggage?
Indiana over Nebraska—he did.

Purdue over Iowa—so you are leaving Chicago, huh?
Missouri over Iowa State—the guy seemed glad.
Ohio State over Wisconsin—now where are those tickets?

East:
Army over Michigan—it's gonna be a rough trip, boys.
Columbia over Yale—and don't think I'm kidding.
Cornell over Princeton—what track?

Harvard over Rochester—probably the wrong track.
Pittsburgh over Michigan State—it was.

South:
Alabama over South Carolina—one bag is missing.
Mississippi State over Detroit—you say that again.
Duke over Wake Forest—rough brother rough.
Florida over Vanderbilt—the train is late.

West:
Southern Cal over San Diego Navy—ah, the right gate.
UCLA over California—or it is!

St. Mary's over COP—yep!
Colorado over Colorado State, Oregon over Oregon State, and Washington State over Washington.

Southwest:
Arkansas over Baylor—finally, our car.
Texas over Oklahoma—Whoa! Rice over Tulane—you can put me down now porter.
Tulsa over Texas Tech—all aboard for Noo Yawk!
(Season average: 115 right, 18 wrong.)

The average elevation of Louisiana above the sea is only 100 feet and the only parts reaching 400 feet are hills in Claiborne parish.

BIRD SEASON TO OPEN TOMORROW; PROSPECTS GOOD

Hunting season for upland game birds and migratory waterfowl opens tomorrow morning and predictions are that nimrod who trek to the open stretches of the valley will have little trouble bringing home the limit. Large quantities of Chinese pheasants and quail have been nesting in the valley regions.

Bag limit for pheasants is four males a day, eight in possession but not to exceed eight in any seven consecutive days. Season closes Oct. 28. Bag limit for California or valley quail is 10 in any seven consecutive days or in possession.

Duck and goose shooting will not be good until the migrants are blown out of the northlands by a storm. Excellent weather in the Canadian breeding grounds is expected to keep the fowl there for several weeks. About the only shooting of waterfowl now will be offered where the birds have been nesting in Oregon.

Bag limit for ducks, except American and red-breasted mergansers, 10 in any one day of which not more than one may be a wood duck.

Bag limit for geese, except Ross's goose, four singly or in the aggregate of snow or white-fronted geese, and two of other species including brant in any one day. Total daily limit, six.

COACHES RETURN TO LOCAL POSTS

Bill Bowerman, athletic coach at Medford high school until he entered the army, and Norm Worthley, who held a like position at the junior high school before entering the navy, were back on the job today, following honorable discharges from the service.

Worthley took over the coaching reins at the junior high and will be assisted by Jake Schaefer, who had been signed as head mentor in Worthley's absence.

Bowerman is now employed in a teaching capacity at the high school and advisor to Coach Al Simpson. It was understood there will be no change in the present coaching set-up with Simpson to finish the grid season before any changes are considered.

By Nelson Leads Field in Seattle Open Tournament

Seattle, Oct. 12—(U.P.)—It's the old story again of Byron Nelson against the field as 54 professionals and 33 amateurs go into the second round of the 72-hole $10,000 Seattle Open Golf tournament at Broadmoor club today. And the field was on the short end of the odds after Nelson's magnificent first round of 31-31—82, eight under par, yesterday. A gallery of more than 2,000 persons, who watched the Toledo, O., master and his blistering pace on the 18th hole, loosed a cheer that reverberated over the rolling Broadmoor acres.

Piche's piscatorial prognostications name Rogue river as the spot to fish this week-end. Al says steelhead are being taken in most parts of the river. Some anglers report good results on single eggs while others have better luck on roe. A light seven strand wire leader with size four or six hook is advised for steelhead fishing.

We are forced to draw in our horns on last week's statement that we didn't know how reliable Piche's information was since he had failed to fulfill a promise to bring this department a catch. Last Monday morning three nice trout, taken near Gold Hill, were found on our typewriter with Piche's card attached. Guess the guy can catch 'em, after all.

Salmon are reported being taken about five miles below Grants Pass and apparently are in good shape. This is the late fall run of Chinook. Salmon fishing at the mouth of the Rogue is now good but will improve greatly after the first heavy rains.

A cross section survey of farmers of the valley report pheasants and quail are numerous. Season opens tomorrow and runs until Oct. 28. Opening day will find best hunting in open country but after the birds take that terrific beating on opening day, best hunting will be along the heavy brush of Bear Creek and on the upper slopes of the east side, along the upper irrigation ditch.

Mask's Head Butts Are Too Much For Angelo Martinelli

Angelo Martinelli made a gallant effort to beat the Gray Mask in their main event of last night's Medford armory wrestling card but fell victim to the Mask's terrific head butts and lost, two falls to one. Martinelli gave the Mask a thorough going-over, much to the delight of the sell-out crowd, but couldn't cope with his adversary when the butting started.

Gorilla Poggi took two straight falls over Jack Lipscomb in a short but wild bout. Poggi took the first fall in the second round with a half crab but fell victim to Lipscomb's choke hold and was counted out in the third frame. As Lipscomb got to his feet he stepped on Poggi's throat and that was too much for Referee Earl Yoakley, who gave Poggi the match on a foul.

Norval Stockstill lost a one-fall decision to Joe Lynam, who substituted for Tex Porter. Stockstill made an excellent showing until the third round when Lynam's experience paid off.

Oregon, Staters Minus Grid Stars

Corvallis, Ore., Oct. 12—(U.P.)—Oregon State will meet University of Oregon here Saturday without two regulars. They are Harvey Cutts, right guard, and Buster Hollingsberry, center. Two other Orangemen who might not play were Stan McGuire, left end, and Dick Gray, left half.

Eugene, Ore., Oct. 12—(U.P.)—Leg injuries handicapping Jackie Leicht and Bobby Reynolds today showed no marked improvement and it was believed possible they may not be eligible to play Saturday against Oregon State.

RACE DRIVER DIES

Los Angeles, Oct. 12—(U.P.)—Midget Auto Racer Clarence (Sports) Briggs died in receiving hospital last night two hours after his tiny car crashed at high speed into an inner wall of the Los Angeles coliseum.

SEALS WIN FIFTH PLAYOFF CONTEST

San Francisco, Oct. 12—(U.P.)—The San Francisco Seals today held a 3-2 edge over the Seattle Rainiers in the $10,000 Pacific Coast League Governor's Cup playoffs after a ninth inning home run last night broke a tie and gave them a 7-4 victory.

The winning run was scored by Rightfielder Neil Sheridan who hit a homer with two men on base. Two of the three tallies were unearned.

Bob Jovee was credited with his second win over Seattle in the playoffs.

The teams meet tonight with Bob Barthelsson on the mound for the Seals against Joe Demoran.

WRIGHT SEEKS CROWN

Paterson, N. J., Oct. 12—(U.P.)—Abe J. Greene, president of the National Boxing Association, disclosed today that Veteran Chalky Wright of Los Angeles has filed a challenge for Ike Williams' N. B. A. lightweight crown.

ADDED BLEACHERS FOR GRID CONTEST TONIGHT

Added bleacher seats will help to accommodate the crowd expected at the Eureka-Medford football game here tonight, Principal Lester Harris said today. There were also a few reserved seats left, Harris said. The principal added there will be a seat for everyone who attends the game.

UNION GRATIFIED
New York, Oct. 12—(U.P.)—New York building owners prepared today to pay $5,000 to 70,000 service employees retroactive pay checks of $50 to more than $100 under a new contract which union leaders said "was very gratifying."
