Elizabeth Sample, Sgt. Alfred Beck Married Tuesday

Among last week's weddings was that of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Sample, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bittle, Maple Park drive, to Sgt. Alfred M. Beck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Beck. The service took place Tuesday, Oct. 9, at the Beck home on the Old Stage Road and was read at high noon by Dr. Louis C. Kirby of the Methodist church.

Preceding the double-ring ceremony Harry Young sang "O Promise Me" and "Because", accompanied by Roberta Ward Bebb, who also played the wedding march. The fireplace, banked with ferns and white and pink blossoms, served as a setting for the bridal party.

The bride wore a powder blue afternoon dress with a feathered hat of matching shade and a short white veil. She carried a white prayer book and wore a corsage of orchids. Matron-of-honor was Mrs. Richard H. Witt, sister of the groom, and for the service Mrs. Witt wore a watermelon pink dress with black accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Richard H. Witt served as best man for his brother-in-law. The bride's mother was gowned in sage green while the groom's mother wore a suit of fuchsia tone. Both wore corsages of gardenias and rosebuds. Louis Bittle, Jr., lighted the candles before the ceremony. Diane Hight had charge of the guest book and D'Ann Beck was in charge of gifts.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Earl D. Scripser and Mrs. A. Orin Schenck, who poured, and Mrs. Albert Frank, who completed the serving of the cake. Later in the day a wedding dinner for the family was served at Burgoyne's.

After the honeymoon in California Sgt. Beck and his bride will reside at Fairfield, Calif., where the sergeant is stationed as an instructor with the Army Transport corps. After the sergeant's release from the army the couple plan to reside at Klamath Falls where the groom will take over the management of Beck's Bakery.

The bride has recently been employed by the Pittsburgh Paint company.

Golden Wedding Celebrated By Medford Couple Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Skeeters, widely known native residents of Jackson county, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Sunday with an informal reception at their home on the old Crater Lake highway. More than 100 friends and relatives called during the day.

The affair was planned by their daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Hopkins, who was assisted during the day by Mrs. Charles L. Skeeters, Mrs. Ivah Murray, Mrs. Roy Byrd, Mrs. Al. Floyd, Mrs. Emerson Anderson, Mrs. Barney Tenant, Mrs. Claude Scott and the Misses Heene Clausen and Effie Corless.

Among the flowers used to decorate the Skeeters' home were chrysanthemums from the Crystal Springs company packing crew and from the Charles L. Skeeters family of Talent. Special wedding cakes were made for the couple by Mrs. Emerson Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Naffziger and Mr. and Mrs. Iver Ellis also presented the Skeeters with wedding cakes. Individual decorated cakes were served each guest.

On display were several wedding gifts which were presented to the couple on their wedding day Oct. 9, 1895 and also displayed were family albums with pictures, taken in the '90's, of many guests who were present for the celebration.

Miss Ruth Golden Becomes Bride Of Pennsylvania Man

Miss Ruth Lavonne Golden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Golden, 108 Lincoln avenue, and Elvin Otis Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto O. Fox of Williamsport, Penn., were married Sunday afternoon by the Rev. D. E. Millard in the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses.

The couple was attended by the bride's mother and father.

The bride wore a light gray suit with white and green accessories, and an orchid corsage, while Mrs. Golden wore gray with red and white accessories.

Guests included Mrs. Stella Fisher, grandmother of the bride, and the bride's uncle, Glen Johnson, Mrs. Johnson and Miss Donna Johnson, all of Medford.

The groom, recently discharged from the service, was chief purser in the army transportation service for nearly two years and prior to that served more than three years in the navy. Mr. and Mrs. Fox will reside in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Huson Entertain Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Huson and Mrs. Huson's father, Thomas Blackburn of Cloverdale, Ore., are in Medford to visit Mr. Huson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Huson, Route 1. Also here are Mrs. Huson's sister, Mrs. Lucile Smith and her two children of Salem. The visitors will remain all week.

Here for the reception were Mrs. Skeeters' only brother, Albert Scranton and his family from Klamath Falls. Mr. Skeeters' only sister, Mrs. Leo Martin of Waldport, was unable to attend. Oldest relative present was Mrs. Sally Riley, 85, a cousin, from Eagle Point, and the youngest was the two-month-old son of Edwin Owens, nephew of Mrs. Skeeters. Pictures were taken of Charles F. Skeeters and his grandnephew, William Joe Skeeters, son of Everett Skeeters of Prospect, as the oldest and youngest living members of the Skeeters family.

Charles Skeeters and Julia Scranton were married at the home of the bride's parents near Kerby, in 1895, and they have lived in this county for most of their 50 years of married life. Mr. Skeeters was born on the old Stimpson place near what is now the 401 Orchard in 1866 while Mrs. Skeeters was born in 1877 on the Taylor homestead on Butte Creek.

The Skeeters began playing for dances before they were married and even now play occasionally for local "old time" parties. In recent years they have had recordings made of a number of selections and during the day these were played for dancing on the lawn.

Only grandchild of the couple is Alvin Penn, Mrs. Hopkins' son, now in the navy.

Shower Honors Choir Member; Election Held

Mrs. Delbert Daniels was honored guest at an informal surprise shower party given by members of the First Christian church choir Thursday evening of last week after choir practice at the church. The affair was in observance of Mrs. Daniels' birthday anniversary and she was given a shower of handkerchiefs.

About 40 persons were present.

Choir election was held, with Mrs. Grant Hutchins being named president. Mrs. Ralph Cook was elected secretary and treasurer, Verne L. Bailey, librarian; Mrs. Eloise Winkelbeck, telephone chairman; Mrs. Arnold Bohnert, social chairman and Mrs. Ronald Rice, publicity chairman.

World Charter Reviewed At Meeting of Circle

Mrs. John R. Larwood reviewed the world charter drafted at the San Francisco security conference at the meeting of Loyalty circle of the Methodist church held Thursday at the home of Mrs. L. C. Kirby, 27 North Orange street. Mrs. Frank McKeown gave devotions and Mrs. Albert Frank read a poem on the devotional theme.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Ray Harrison and Mrs. John Carter. Hostesses for the November meeting will be Mrs. Lyle Schoppert and Mrs. Earl Hall.

Ivy LaVerne Frey Married Recently To Glenn Albert

At an afternoon ceremony Sunday, Sept. 30, in the Chapel of the Rocks and Roses, Miss Ivy LaVerne Frey, daughter of O. E. Frey, Prospect, became the bride of Glenn W. H. Albert, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Poole, Butte Falls. The Rev. D. E. Millard performed the ceremony.

Proceeding the service the Rev. and Mrs. Millard sang "Moonlight and Roses" and "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. Millard played the wedding march.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and lace with a long train and a finger-tip length veil. She carried red roses. Miss Barbara Frey, sister of the bride and maid-of-honor, wore a pale blue gown and a corsage of gardenias. Bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie McGrew and Miss Neoda Herman, wore pale blue gowns with gardenia corsages.

F. E. Poole, father of the groom, was best man. At the reception the wedding cake was served by Mrs. Joan Wright and Miss McGrew. About 30 friends were present for the wedding and reception.

Following a brief honeymoon the couple will take up residence in Prospect.
