Lakeside Chapel In San Francisco Scene of Wedding

Miss Fern Kinsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Day of Route 3 Medford became the bride of Jerome E. Jacobson of San Francisco in a ceremony held Saturday, Oct. 6 at the Presbyterian Little Chapel of the Lakeside in San Francisco. Dr. Rogers read the double-ring service in a setting of candles and flowers.

Miss Kinsey's wedding gown was of white marquisette, lace-trimmed and designed with a train, and her fingertip length veil fell from a sweet-heart cap. Her bouquet was of orchids and bouvardia.

Attendants were Mrs. Richard Porter of Long Island, New York, matron-of-honor, and Mrs. Frances Anfinson of San Francisco. Mrs. Porter wore yellow chiffon with a shoulder length veil held with plumes and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of blue and yellow blossoms. Mrs. Anfinson's gown was of aqua chiffon and she also wore a veil held with plumes while her bouquet was of yellow and blue flowers.

Michael De Cataldo of New York gave the bride in marriage. The groom was attended by Steven Barolda and ushers were Floyd Ritchie and R. V. Stone.

A reception was held at the home of Mrs. Anfinson and the bride and groom left afterwards for a wedding trip to southern California.

Both the bride and groom are in the navy, the bride holding the rating of mailman second class in the Waves and the groom being an aviation radio-man first class. Mr. DeCataldo, Mrs. Porter, Mr. Ritchie and Mr. Stone are also of the navy.

Mrs. Jacobson, a graduate of the Grants Pass high school, has been in the service 16 months. The Jacobsons are both stationed in San Francisco.

Marjory Stewart Wed This Month To Army Sergeant

Announced this week was the wedding of Miss Marjory Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Stewart, 50 Modoc avenue, to Master Sgt. Fred J. Kafer of Glendale, Ore. The service took place in Long Beach, Calif., Oct. 2.

The bride, a graduate of Medford senior high school, later attended Southern Oregon College of Education and the University of Oregon. For the past three years she has served as executive secretary of the Eugene Girl Scouts and Nov. 1 will take up her duties as an executive for Seattle Girl Scouts.

Sgt. Kafer returned to the United States in June after one and one-half years overseas service with the army.
