"The tilt with Grants Pass will be more or less a dress rehearsal for the Red-and-White and, even though Medford has been compared to a college eleven, the Pelicans will keep their minds on the business at hand Friday in an effort to hand the Cavemen a sound trouncing." So said Paul Haines in the Klamath Falls Herald and News one day last week.

Something must have gone wrong with the Klamath Falls dress rehearsal or the Klamathites must have forgotten to keep their minds on the business at hand, for when the smoke cleared they found themselves on the short end of a 13-12 score. It could be that the Pelicans were troubled with keeping their pants up after Medford's 68-0 lacing of Albany, Haines said, in print, that Medford was apparently trying to scare the Klamath players would have theirs on next Friday night when they take to Modoc field to oppose Medford.

We're not going out on a limb to make any predictions on outcome of the tussle Friday night but we will say Klamath Falls is going to know they have been through a football game—win or lose. We will drop a little hint on how we feel about outcome of the game by saying we feel Medford is destined to again be state champions this year.

Haines must feel pretty much as we do about outcome of the game for he said in his column recently: "We will stick the old neck out right now and make a prediction that Medford will clash with Grant this year for the Oregon prep school championship at Portland's Multnomah field."

Ivor Erwin, strong supporter of Ashland high teams, gave out with a bit of advice to fellow townsmen recently. Referring to a cartoon which appeared in the Portland Oregonian showing a "Black Tornado" swirling through Albany, Coos Bay, Eugene and Eureka, with the rest of Medford's opponents scampering out of its path, and bearing the caption, "Take to the Cellar, Boys," Erwin went into graphic detail to describe the drawing. When he had finished a patient listener said, "Well, what about it?" Erwin replied that the cartoon carried some good advice and added, "We'd better take to the cellar."

The sports department of the Camp White Grenade paid the Medford Black Tornado high respects the other day when they called them the ultimate in speed, power, deception and know-how among prep school football teams.

Tex Oliver, grid mentor at University of Oregon, and Honest John Warren, Oliver's assistant, said it was the finest high school club they had ever seen. We don't mean to be bragging up the Tornado, which is hard not to do, but do want the fans to know what outsiders think of our champs.

Only highest praises should be extended to the fine Eureka football club that opposed Medford here Friday night. It was by far the best team that Medford has been called on to face this year and bubbling over with sportsmanship. Not once did the Loggers draw a penalty. They bent over backwards to be gentlemen all the time and really played their hearts out.

Frank O'Neil, who coached that sweet Ashland high school football team that drubbed Medford 20 to 6 here in 1941, is now out of the navy and back at Ashland high. O'Neil spent a total of 25 months at sea and saw duty in Alaskan and Aleutian waters, then to the South Pacific in time for the Philippines, Iwo Jima and Okinawa. O'Neil will act as assistant to John Roberts at Ashland for the balance of the year and will coach basketball when the season starts and will take over football in 1946.

Frank Ramsey, who coached at Klamath Falls until leaving his post for duty with the marines, is now playing professional football with the Chicago Bears. He plans to return to Klamath Falls following a season of pro stuff.

Lt. Elmer St. Clair Morgan (Big Bill to you) was in town recently en route to Portland on rehabilitation leave after service at Spiritu Santos, Guadalcanal, Bougainville, Mindoro and Mindanao, where he was attached to the army in operations at Davao, Big Bill, while doing duty with the marines, had yellow jaundice, amoebic dysentery and what-have-you.

Medford grid enthusiasts of a few years back will remember Big Bill as a tackle on Prink Callison's Medford high team of 1925 through 1928. He later went to Oregon, '29 through '32, and played pro ball with the New York Giants from 1933 to 1937. He's now down to 229 pounds and intends to maintain it through the rest of his life.

New York, Oct. 15—(U.P.)—Cpl. Fritz Zivie, former welterweight champion, signed today for 10-round bout with Ray "Sugar" Robinson at the municipal auditorium in Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 3.

ARMY, MIDDIES TOP OUTFITS IN GRIDIRON SCENE

New York, Oct. 15—(U.P.)—While the Army and Navy football teams steamrolled along the high road of the unbeaten, Pennsylvania and Columbia in the east and Georgia in the south popped up today with elevens that must be reckoned with in the national title balloting.

At the three-week mark of season the sectional standings ran about like this:

East—Army and Navy still dominated the field by a big margin as a result of their victories, respectively, over Michigan and Penn State—28 to 7 for the Cadets and 28 to 0 for the Middies. Columbia and Gene Rossides looked like the best New York team since before the war in their 27 to 13 pasting of Yale.

Penn Shows Power Pennsylvania flashed terrific "power" in a 49 to 0 rout of a North Carolina team coached by Carl Snavely. Holy Cross stayed up there with a 26 to 7 victory over Villanova.

South—Alabama and Georgia over the field in a wide margin. "Bama" ripped South Carolina 55 to 0, and Georgia walloped Kentucky, 48 to 6.

Midwest—Ohio State on top after a hard-won 12 to 0 victory over Wisconsin with Minnesota a close second on its 14 to 0 win over Ft. Warren, no soft touch for any college team. Indiana piled it on Nebraska in a touchdown parade which netted the Hoosiers 54 points to the Cornhusker's 14. Hugh DeVore's loudly belittled Notre Dame team continued to confound the experts rolling over Dartmouth 24 to 0.

Arkansas In Upset Southwest—Arkansas dumped in a startling upset by Baylor 23 to 13, which puts the latter atop the cow country standings, closely followed by the Texas Longhorns who edged Oklahoma, 17 to 7.

West—Southern California's prestige collapsed under a 33 to 6 rout by the San Diego Navy, which won't keep the Trojans out of the Rose Bowl since the Leathernecks are an independent outfit. St. Mary's continued strong with a 61 to 0 pasting of College of the Pacific.

POGGI TO FACE MASK THURSDAY

Mack Lillard has lined up a strong card for Thursday night's Medford armory wrestling program when he throws another double main event. Clashing in one-half of the twin mix will be the detested Gray Mask and Gorilla Poggi, the South American who licked Jack Lipscomb last week. Rough Rufus Jones, the unpopular Negro, will tangle with Harold (Blood and Guts) Davidson in a rematch of their thrilling go a couple of weeks ago.

Herb Parks, clever Canadian champion, and Angelo Martindell, one of the sweetest grapplers to show here in a long time, will square off in the three-round opener.

El Toro Marines Take Measure Of Second Air Force

Colorado Springs, Colo., Oct. 15—(U.P.)—The El Toro Marines of California today held a 20 to 9 victory over the Second Army Air Force Superbombers after meeting the soldiers in a game matching former All-American stars.

Elroy (Crazy Legs) Hirsch, former Wisconsin and Michigan athlete, paced the Marine attack yesterday, scoring the first touchdown with a 14-yard run around left end.

Frankie Sinkwich, who played for the Air Force, suffered a serious knee injury in the third quarter and was removed from the game.

FAMED TENNIS PLAYER OF EARLY 1900'S DIES

Venice, Calif., Oct. 15—(U.P.)—Funeral services were incomplete today for Thomas Clark Bundy, 64, head of a famous tennis playing family, who died Saturday after an illness of several months.

Bundy, who competed nationally in tennis in the early 1900's, was the former husband of Mrs.

Nelson Cuts World Mark

Seattle, Oct. 15—(U.P.)—Byron Nelson's rounds of 62-63-68-69 shot on the impeccable fairways and greens of the Broadmoor Golf club set a new world's record for 70-par courses and a new mark for 72-hole tournaments.

His total, which earned him $5,724 a stroke, eclipsed the 261 placed in the record by Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., in the Portland open at the 72-par Portland Golf club two weeks ago. Hogan, however, gave par the harshest beating the old man has ever suffered—27 strokes.

In reaching a new height of perfection, Nelson shattered his own record of 263 for 70-par courses set last spring at the capital City club, Atlanta, Ga. He finished 13 strokes ahead of the field in the roundup of the barnstormers' Pacific Northwest tour yesterday. On his heels throughout the four days' event was the Seattle amateur and tournament chairman, Harry Givan, who finished in a tie for second with Harold (Dug) McSpaden, Sanford, Me., with 272.

CLEVELAND RAMS HAND CHAMPIONS 27-14 TROUNCING

New York, Oct. 15—(U.P.)—The Cleveland Rams appeared headed for the western division National Football league title today—unless their opponents find a way to stop Bob Waterfield.

He was the backbone of a fourth-quarter drive that scored three touchdowns and beat the champion Green Bay Packers yesterday, 27 to 14. That makes Cleveland the only unbeaten, untied team in the league, with three straight wins. The former UCLA star didn't score any touchdowns himself, but he converted three times and his passing and running sparked the Ram rally.

The defeat dropped Green Bay into a second-place western division tie with Detroit's Lions, who upset the Philadelphia Eagles, 28 to 24, with an effective passing game.

The Chicago Cardinals came up with the day's prize upset, dumping the Chicago Bears, 16 to 7, to end a 29-game Card losing streak.

Sammy Baugh came up with a dazzling aerial show to lead the Washington Redskins to a 14 to 10 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Joe Louis Signs To Fight in June

New York, Oct. 15—(U.P.)—Promoter Mike Jacobs signed a contract today with Joe Louis, in which the heavyweight champion agreed to a title defense in June, 1946, against Billy Conn or "any suitable opponent" designated by Jacobs.

Under terms of the contract, Louis also agreed not to engage in any boxing match or exhibition prior to the June title match without the written consent of Jacobs.
