YOUTH MEETINGS SCHEDULED FOR FRIENDS CHURCH

A three-day youth conference, emphasizing music and evangelism will be held at the Friends church, Old Pacific highway and De Barr Ave., Friday, Saturday and Sunday, according to Milo C. Ross, pastor; and Jim Armstrong, in charge of youth activities.

Of special interest will be music presented by the male quartet of Pacific college, each evening at 7:30 beginning on Friday, and at 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. on Sunday.

As speakers, Paul S. Cammack, of Salem, field secretary of the Friends C. E. Union; and Paul Thornberg, of Newberg, president of the C. E. work in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, will lead, assisted by 10 or 12 young people being brought to the conference.

A carry-in dinner is being arranged for Saturday at 6 p. m. for all young people.

Sunday is to be observed by the church as third anniversary of its founding here. Services are announced for 11 a. m., 2 p. m. and again at 7:30 p. m. with the corps of youth leaders and musicians in charge. The anniversary dinner will be served at noon.

The general public is cordially invited.

Returning Vets Forced To Cast Pet Dogs In Sea

Boston, Oct. 18—(U.P.)—Charges that overseas veterans aboard the transport Hood Victory were ordered to throw their pet dogs overboard while en route here were under investigation today by port officials.

Brig. Gen. James C. Marshall, port commander, said that if the officer who gave the order is discovered he will be punished. The men are members of the 26th tank battalion of the 16th armored division.

Soldiers are permitted to bring home dogs if they are free of communicable diseases, officials said.

ALL WACS IN EUROPE BACK BEFORE APRIL

Frankfurt, Oct. 18—(U.P.)—Lt. Col. Mary A. Hallaren, WAC staff director, announced today that all WAC's in Europe, now numbering about 5,000, will be back in the United States before April.

She has been in Washington for conferences with the War Department.

Steady demobilization is expected to reduce the corps to 30,000 in all theaters by July, Colonel Hallaren said.

OREGON TO RECEIVE FEES FROM LAND USE

Oregon will receive $1,029.19 from the federal government for public roads, schools and other educational institutions as the state's share of proceeds from the leasing of public land in Oregon during the 1945 fiscal year, according to a release from the department of interior.

The amount includes benefits from the development of oil and gas, coal, potash, sodium and phosphate resources on land through federal leases involving payment of bonuses, royalties and rentals to the government.
