who, with his dog, had wandered off from the family home about 4:30 p. m. The boy was found at 7:10 p. m. about a mile from home in a dense brush area by "Red" Biederback of the state forest service. He was unharmed.

State police and the sheriff's office were called to Lincoln about 6 p. m. yesterday to aid in locating the 19-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kennedy.

MAJOR CHANGES ARE NEEDED IN SCHOOL SYSTEM

Dr. Harry K. Newburn Tells Chamber Forum of Two Shifts Needed in Education

Two major changes needed for this country's system of education is a shift from our present standard of "time spent and credits accumulated" to a basis of "what can the student demonstrate he has learned" and additional emphasis placed on attitudes and appreciation of values rather than skills and abilities, according to Dr. Harry K. Newburn, president of the University of Oregon. Dr. Newburn spoke yesterday noon at a luncheon forum meeting of the Jackson county Chamber of Commerce.

Developing his first point, Dr. Newburn said that under present standards our schools graduate pupils if they have "a piece of paper showing they spent so many hours, so many days and so many weeks in a certain class," and that these same certificates or transcripts are used to advance into other institutions of learning regardless of whether the pupil actually has the knowledge or not.

"Credits do not necessarily indicate what a pupil has learned," the president stated, and added that some basis for determining "what a student can do" must be devised to replace the present credit system.

Discussing his second point, Dr. Newburn stated educators and the public need to decide what results we want from education and added that in his opinion in the past too much emphasis has been placed on the teaching of mere skills and too little on "appreciation, attitudes, values and understanding."

"We may not be able to teach values directly," the educator stated, "but we must operate our schools so students will come out with the proper sense of values." Dr. Newburn said that science and mere knowledge are undervalued and asked "What are we going to do with the power our knowledge brings?" Americans some times fail to realize the vast power of public education, Dr. Newburn said, and illustrated this by pointing out what had been accomplished in Germany and Russia through political control of the schools and indoctrination of the masses.

AMERICAN HEROES

by WOODY COWAN

INVESTMENT in War Bonds has helped win the war and was no sacrifice compared to Pvt. Furman L. Smith's. The brave Central, S. C. lad, who has been awarded the Medal of Honor posthumously, stood between two wounded sergeants and 80 advancing Germans with a lone Garand rifle and some clips. From a shallow shell hole he killed 10 of the enemy and littered the field with writhing wounded, in a hopeless stand before a machine gun burst ended his fighting. Your investment in Victory Bonds will care for his Buddies who were wounded in the same battle.

"When the peace treaties were being made after the last war, Russia didn't count," the speaker said, "but now, because Russia's people have been educated, the country is a power."

Dr. Newburn prefaced his talk by speaking of enrollment problems at the University of Oregon, stating that the enrollment of young women is at an all-time peak and this fact, coupled with the fact that 25 per cent of the veterans enrolling are married, has brought about a critical housing problem at the school.

Introduced at the luncheon by President Herb Grey were Mrs. Newburn; Capt. H. B. LaFavre, head of the Camp White naval hospital; Lt. Col. John Horsley, Camp White commanding officer; E. H. Hedrick, superintendent of Medford schools; L. H. Andrews, director of the state apprenticeship council; Winston Purvine of the state department of vocational education; E. L. Knight of the Veterans' administration; Warren Whitlock, manager of the Josephine county Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. Whitlock.

Hope Chest Brings Marriage Bliss To Veteran of Europe

Kansas City, Mo. (AP)—Several years ago a young boy eagerly watched his sister fill her hope chest. Not to be outdone by a girl, he asked for a similar chest and his parents promised him one.

Recently Lt. Robert D. Ainsworth telegraphed his family: "Getting married. How about that hope chest?"

Mother and father came through with enough items to fill several chests. Included among the gifts were matching pajamas for bride and groom made from the parachute that landed the lieutenant on French soil when his P-47 was shot down. A French parasol, supplied by French partisans after they discovered Ainsworth tangled in blackberry bushes, also was among the items. The parasol had been used to keep off rain until Nazi soldiers quit looking for the officer and he was rescued by the partisans.

Other presents were household linens and kitchen items, including the officer's old silver napkin ring, a cookbook and a kitchen apron with three cigars in the pocket.

Marseille Faces Biggest Criminal Wave in History

Marseille (AP)—American military courts of the Delta Base Section, of which Marseille is headquarters, have issued 8,893 sentences since November of last year.

According to authorities, only 70 of this number were for acts against the French.

Marseille, which has always had a reputation for being a tough town, is now one big headache for both Americans and French. With thousands of Yanks awaiting repatriation and regiments of Arab soldiers who are standard in France due to the shipping shortage, a black market flourishes and holdups and other crimes of violence are higher than ever in the city's history.
