Will you let PRICE cheat you on quality!

The man who unthinkingly follows the lure of a bargain price in choosing a diamond is most likely to be disappointed later.

The thing to do is to look for quality first, then a fair price. That's exactly what you'll find in our nationally known genuine Orange Blossom rings. We'll be glad to show you our many new designs.

Paulazzo-Lange Rites Are Held In Reno Sunday

Announced last week was the wedding of Darlene Coggins Paulazzo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coggins, to T/Sgt. Alfred Lange, marine corps, son of Mrs. Elmira Lange of Burlington, Vt. The marriage took place Oct. 14 in Reno, Nev.

Attendants at the wedding were the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Coggins of Medford.

The couple will reside in Klamath Falls until Sgt. Lange is released from the marine corps, after which they will make their home in Burlington.

Jewell R. Crowl, Charles Warner Married Sunday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Crowl, 1258 South Rive-side Ave., was the scene Sunday afternoon, October 14, of the wedding of their daughter, Jewell R. Crowl, to Charles Emmott Warner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warner, Trail. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. E. Millard at two o'clock before about 30 friends and relatives.

Preceding the ceremony, M. F. Sheets sang "O Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. Sheets at the piano. Mrs. Millard played the wedding march.

The bride wore a light blue suit with corsage of gardenias and roses. Mrs. Kenneth Russell, cousin of the bride and matron-of-honor, wore a sage green suit and corsage of gardenias.

Kenneth Russell was best man. At the reception following the wedding, the bride and groom first cut the wedding cake, and the serving was continued by Mrs. Sheets and the bride's mother. The Rev. and Mrs. Millard sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "I Love You Truly."

The groom, a former staff sergeant with the Fifth Air Force served for two years in New Guinea and has several decorations. He recently was discharged and is now with the forest service as a guard. The couple left that evening for a two-weeks honeymoon along the coast, after which they will make their home in Medford.

Matrons, Patrons Will Be Honored

Past matrons' and past patrons' night will be observed by Reames Chapter of the Eastern Star Thursday evening, with a covered dish dinner at 6:30 p. m. to precede the meeting and program.

The worthy matron, Mrs. George Hiles, urges all members to be present for this occasion and states that all Eastern Stars are invited to attend. Special entertainment is being planned.

Those attending the covered dish dinner are asked to bring table service.

Flynn-Birk Rites Are Held Recently At Home of Bride

At an afternoon ceremony Oct. 12, Miss Beryl Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flynn, became the bride of former First Sgt. Eugene Birk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Birk, Phoenix. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents near Talent.

The Rev. Earl Downing read the service. For her wedding the bride wore a blue suit with a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Nettie Bailey, sister of the bride served as matron-of-honor. She also wore a blue suit. Also in the wedding party was Miss Reta Birk, sister of the groom, who wore a white flowered jersey dress.

Mr. and Mrs. Birk left Monday for an extended wedding trip which will take them to the groom's former home in Kansas and to visit his brother, stationed in Texas with the air force. The groom recently returned from overseas after serving four years in the South Pacific.

Before her marriage the bride was a senior in Ashland high school.
