Treaty Signing Is Described By Medical Officer

Describing the signing of the formal treaties ending the Japanese war, Captain B. N. Ahl of the navy medical corps spoke at a meeting of the Medford branch, American Association of University Women, Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Frances Flinn, 604 West Main street. Capt. Ahl was aboard the battleship Missouri, when the treaty was signed.

Stating that this was the first time in history that such an event had taken place aboard a ship, Capt. Ahl described the reaction of both the American and Japanese officers and gave many interesting details of the arrangements made for, and the events which followed the treaty signing.

Captain Ahl told of the evacuation of prisoners from the prison camp in Tokyo Bay and said that "everything you have heard about the way the Japanese treated our prisoners is true," adding that words fail to describe the conditions in the Tokyo Bay camp. The captain prefaced his talk by giving a description of the Missouri and telling something of life aboard the ship.

Miss Nansen introduced her high school grils' trio composed of the Misses Harriet Houghton, Loree Montieth and Vera Smith who sang two songs.

Introduced at the meeting were Mrs. Ed. Boldt, Gold Hill; Mrs. Phillip Moore, Jackson county public health nurse; Mrs. Victor Morgan, Miss Martha Morgan, and Mrs. E. W. Lorenz of Coquille, a guest of Mrs. Angus Bowmer, Ashland.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Flinn, Mrs. H. G. Dowson, Mrs. Maynard Bush, Mrs. Gordon Gilmore, Mrs. W. W. Deakins and Miss Marian Farrell.

It was announced that the production of "Peter Pan" to be sponsored here by the group will take the place of the November meeting and that the Creative Arts group will meet Oct. 22 at the home of Mrs. Dowson, 47 Berkeley Way.

Mexico Subject Of Club Program Given Wednesday

With "Mexico" as the subject, the Wednesday Study club met at the Girls' Community club with the new president, Mrs. C. A. Renken, presiding.

Mrs Ruth V Goodwin, R. N., clinic nurse at the Farm Supply center, gave a most interesting account of the work at the Medford camp where practically all of the 500 Mexicans who assisted in the fruit harvest were housed. Mrs. Goodwin described living conditions at the camp, the clinic, infirmary and treatment rooms and related many interesting and amusing experiences, stating that many of the men had never before had an opportunity to consult a physician or nurse.

As proof that this country had made a few good friends south of the border, Mrs. Goodwin read a letter from one of the men who was a member of the first group of Mexicans to arrive in Medford. He expressed his appreciation of his treatment while here, his joy at our victory over Germany and his hopes for the success of the work here.

Mrs. O. A. Welsh gave a comprehensive review of the book, "Covering the Mexican Front" by Betty Kirt. This is an account of the emerging of Mexico from "revolution to evolution", covering the great changes that have taken place in politics, education, religion and labor during the regimes of President Cardenas and President Avila Carmacho. The author tells of the oil controversy, gives eye-witness accounts of fifth column activity, sabotage and international rivalry, by which the Axis powers attempted to strike at the United States through Mexico.

The book has a foreword by Josephus Daniels in which he points out that there was never a time when it is more important to grasp the significance of this nation's neighbors to the south, "for Mexico is at once the 'Achilles Heel' of the United States and the key to Latin America."
