

Purdue Bolts To Top of Grid Ladder With Astounding Upset of Ohio State

New York, Oct. 22—(U.P.)—Boop-poop Purdue rode right up there with the nation's top football teams today after its astounding upset of Ohio State. Alabama was winning not far behind on the whiplash arm of Harry Gilmer.

Fourteen teams in all remained unbeaten and untied as the season rounded out its first month but their number can dwindle sharply this week if the games follow the pattern of last week's upsets in which Ohio State and Georgia, among others, bit the dust.

Both army and navy face dangerous opponents. The Cadets play a strong Duke team that expects to have key players back in action. Navy plays the red hot Pennsylvania Quakers and the odds will be close.

The various sectional races

shape up as follows:
East—Army, Navy, Columbia, Holy Cross, Temple, and Pennsylvania all unbeaten and untied. Columbia sees visions of a rose bowl invitation after its 31 to 0 trouncing of Colgate but has some stiff foes still on the list including Penn.

Midwest—Purdue and Minnesota both unscathed with the Boilermakers the toast of the Big Ten as a result of their 35 to 13 pasting of Ohio State. Minnesota was only slightly less impressive in disposing of Northwestern. Oklahoma A. & M., a member of the Big Six conference, running independent, thrashed Utah to remain undefeated. Oklahoma and Missouri are tied for the Big Six leadership, but neither has showed impressively outside its own loop.

South—Alabama towers over the field and if the Crimson Tide gets by Georgia this week it has almost clear sailing to one of the major bowls. Georgia, with Charley Trippi back in the line-up, was a big disappointment in a 32 to 0 loss at the hands of Louisiana State but can be expected to bounce back against Alabama. Mississippi State defeated Maxwell Field to remain in the unbeaten ranks.

Southwest—Texas is almost a cinch to repeat as cattle country champion. Texas plays Rice this week and should keep its record spotless.

Far West—St. Mary's is the only undefeated team in the section but the Gaels don't come in for Pacific coast conference or Rose Bowl consideration. Southern California still looks the best in the conference and the Trojans' prospects of a third straight trip to Pasadena look bright.

Joe Louis Arrives For L. A. Vacation

Los Angeles, Oct. 22—(U.P.)—In good condition and "glad the deal is set for the Conn fight next June," Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis was in Los Angeles today for his first visit to the coast since his discharge from the army.

The Brown Bomber was deadpan as to his plans except that he is to appear on the Jack Benny show, do some refereeing and play "a lot of golf" during his two month stay.

JONES REFUSES GRAY MASK GO; LIPSCOMB SIGNS

Rufus Jones, for the second straight week, refused to meet the Gray Mask in the Medford armory ring. Mack Lillard has signed Jack Lipscomb, Pacific Coast junior heavyweight champion, to face the hooded head butting artist in the top half of a double main event Thursday night. Lipscomb, one of the most cold-blooded and toughest matmen ever to set foot in the Medford ring, will be given an excellent chance to halt the Mask's winning streak.

Jones, who has offered all sorts of excuses to keep from facing "Old Stoneface," will go against Angelo Martinelli, the Buckeye Blockbuster, in the other half of the dual main event. If Jones is looking for set-ups, he will be badly fooled for he draws a formidable foe in Martinelli.

Joe Lynam, the ever-popular youngster from Redmond who has recently returned after three years in the South Pacific, meets clever Herb Parks in the opener, a match which promises all the speed and color of last week's curtain raiser.

CLEVELAND KEEPS UNBEATEN RECORD

New York, Oct. 22—(U.P.)—The National football race appeared today to have evolved into a two-man affair, with Bob Waterfield of the Cleveland Rams still slightly ahead of Don Hutson of the Green Bay Packers.

Waterfield's superb passing led the Rams to a 41 to 21 victory over the hibernating Chicago Bears yesterday, keeping the undefeated Rams with four straight wins. It was the fourth Bears' fourth defeat.

The defending champion Packers dampened the championship enthusiasm of the Boston Yanks with a 38 to 14 decision sparked by Hutson's fine pass-catching.

In other games yesterday, the Pittsburgh Steelers broke a 15-game losing streak with a 21 to 7 victory over the New York Giants; Detroit's Lions stayed in the western division chase with a 26 to 0 win over the Chicago Cardinals, and Washington virtually erased the Philadelphia Eagles' eastern title hopes with a 24 to 14 beating.

OAKLAND, HOLLYWOOD WIN PRO GRID GAMES

Los Angeles, Oct. 22—(U.P.)—The Coast league leading Oakland Giants downed the Los Angeles Bulldogs 12 to 10 yesterday in a professional football game at Wrigley field, scoring all their points in the fourth quarter.

Hollywood, Oct. 22—(U.P.)—Paced by Halfback Earl Eisey, the Hollywood Rangers scored an easy 48 to 14 victory over the San Joaquin Cowboys yesterday in a professional game at Gilmore field.

The average daily temperature of San Francisco is 58.1 degrees.

It seems our friends in Klamath Falls get a kick out of referring to the Medford Black Tornado as the black wind or the black breeze. It is our guess that, after that 51-0 pasting they will receive Friday night, they will acknowledge that it is a tornado of the first order.

Medford dominated the play in almost every department as they amassed a total of 564 net yards from scrimmage and passes to Klamath's mere 53. Medford chalked up 23 first downs to the Pelicans three. They tried 15 passes, completing eight while Klamath Falls made 13 aerial attempts, completed four and had three interceptions.

The Tornado averaged 46.4 yards on kickoffs to 50 by Klamath, who kicked off but once. Medford's average kickoff return (one), was 20 yards while Klamath averaged 22 yards. Al Simpson's boys averaged 33 yards on punts, kicking once, while the Pelicans averaged 31.5 yards. Medford's punt returns were for an average of 9.5 to Klamath's 38 garnered from one return attempt. Medford drew a total of 75 yards in penalties to the Pelican's 19.5. Medford recovered three Klamath fumbles while the Pelicans failed to grab up a single Medford fumble.

There were several fumbles by each team for the field was a soggy mass as if it had been deluged by a heavy rain. The track around the field, however, produced dust when the sound truck was driven over it. The wet turf failed to demoralize the Tornado although it did hamper Bostwick's long break-away runs but didn't stop the terrific power produced by the rampaging Medfords.

Klamath Falls had predicted the Grants Pass game would be a "dress rehearsal" for the Medford contest and we laughed long and loud when the Pelicans wound up on the short side of a 13-12 count. But the Klamath Falls writer who said that knew more of what he was talking about than we figured. It did turn out to be a "dress rehearsal" and when the real thing came along the Pelicans played their part well.

Klamath Falls might be able to attribute that humiliating 51-0 thrashing to the fact that the Klamath boys were having trouble keeping their pants up. A Klamath writer said earlier in the season that Medford was evidently running up big scores in an effort to scare the pants off opposition but that Klamath boys would have their pants on when the game started.

We suggest Dave Rees give up broadcasting either football games or wrestling matches. Three times during the Klamath-Medford broadcast, Rees said, "Both teams are in the center of the ring." We presume he meant in the center of the field.

The Southern Oregon conference picture took a change over the week-end although this department predicted otherwise. Ashland pulled a belated fourth quarter rally to take a 19-7 decision over Grants Pass which now makes the Ashland-Medford game here Nov. 12 loom as the contest for the league championship. Previously we had pictured Grants Pass as being the thorn in Medford's side. However, figures and comparative scores mean nothing in a ball game and anything can happen before the thing is finally settled. Medford is now on top of the heap with one conference win and no losses. Grants Pass and Ashland are knotted with a win and a loss and Klamath Falls brings up the rear with a win and a pair of defeats.

FIGHTING COCKS ROUNDED UP IN SOUTHERN RAID

Los Angeles, Oct. 22—(U.P.)—"Jack Dempsey," champion game cock of the Pacific coast, was in the pound today along with 16 of his pugnacious penmates, impounded by sheriff's deputies in breaking up what they called the nation's biggest cock-fighting ring.

Jack Dempsey's gaffs, miniature boxing gloves, fighting and training accessories were also impounded by deputies cleaning out the alleged "cock walk."

Two simultaneous raids by the vice and narcotics detail led by Detective S. L. F. Schaeffer and M. W. Kapic netted the 17 birds and the alleged leader of the enterprise, Hugh Perry.

Perry was arrested at his Temple City, Calif., home after cocks with trimmed combs were found at his ranch in nearby El Monte, Calif.

Trimming the cock's comb indicates the bird is a fighter and the act is a misdemeanor, investigators said.

More than 100 other birds were being bred for battle on the Perry ranch, deputies said, although the actual matches were held in San Bernardino and Bakersfield, Calif., and in southern states.

Sought in the second raid was Frank Lugo, hunted in Utah on a warrant charging him with breeding the fighting bantams.

Hollywood Race Sets 2 Records

Inglewood, Calif., Oct. 22—(U.P.)—Two new records went into the 1945 season books of Hollywood Park race track today following Challenge Me's upset victory in the $75,000 Gold Cup classic.

JIM CAVE RECOVERS FROM GRIDIRON HURTS

Jim Cave, center on the Medford high football team who suffered minor injuries to his chest at Klamath Falls Friday night, is showing satisfactory recovery. Coach Al Simpson said today. The injury is not expected to keep Cave from practice this week in preparation for the Grants Pass game there next Friday night.

PHILIPPINES TRIP IS DESCRIBED BY SHARON F. WIGHT

Describing his trip from San Francisco to Manila by way of the Marshall Islands, and scenes in the Philippine Islands, Pvt. Sharon F. Wight recently wrote to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright, Route 1, Pvt. Wight, who left the United States in August, is en route to Japan.

The young man stated that the bay was full of sunken ships, mostly Japanese, and that the countryside around Manila is strewn with wrecked planes. The tin roofs on native houses are full of shell holes, he wrote, and the brick and concrete houses are all badly wrecked.

Describing the native villages, Pvt. Wight wrote of the bamboo and grass houses, built five feet off the ground, and commented on the fact that there were no fences to keep stock up.

Horses Cute
"Their main way of traveling is a little light two-wheel buggy," he wrote, "and they use one horse. Their horses sure are cute. They are about the size of a three-weeks old draft colt."

The soldier commented on the train coaches, writing "They are real small and made of wood with no windows, just square holes. They look just like the first ones that ever came out."

Pvt. Wight stated that the men had nothing to do but just "lay around and sleep" and added "we were the first bunch to come over without rifles and we haven't any yet, and I'm glad."

"The natives have quite a racket here. There aren't any bananas, coconuts or pineapple growing in camp, so the natives sell them over the fence and do they get a good price. Two coconuts for one peso, or half a dollar to us. Three pesos for a pineapple—or a dollar and a half."

Pvt. Wight embarked Aug. 18
