

FALL CARNIVAL FRIDAY EVENING AT JUNIOR HIGH

By Patricia Sether
Friday evening, Medford Junior high school will open its doors promptly at 7 o'clock to provide entertainment for the public, the occasion being the annual fall carnival. The varied program will furnish amusement for young and old.
Main event in the auditorium, will feature Ray Henderson's minstrels with the traditional interlocutor, end men, costumes, music, dances and jokes.
At 8:15 booths, concessions and shows will open. The amateur show will consist of performances by students possessing talents in different fields. Three comics will be shown for movie fans. A style show is to be put on by the boys. Beauty shop attendants will apply make-up. Games will include ring the duck, spot, baseball, darts, and rollo, fish pond, grab bag and a booth where noise makers and serpentine may be purchased.

For refreshments one may buy hot dogs, peanuts, popcorn balls, ice cream, and soft drinks. Coffee, pie, and cake will be served at reasonable prices in the cafeteria by the P.T.A.
As a convenience for visitors, there will be a check room for wraps.
A small general admission charge will be made at the door. The public is urged to attend not only to enjoy themselves but to help the school financially in an effort to secure more advantages for the students.

5 CONCERTS FOR MUSIC ASSN. TO MAKE UP SEASON

Five outstanding concert attractions have been selected by the Jackson County Civic Music association board for the 1945-46 concert season here according to Seth M. Bullis, chairman. The annual membership campaign closed Saturday noon when the capacity of the high school auditoriums was reached.
Topping the list of artists booked for the series will be the Markova and Dolin ballet company, headed by Alicia Markova and Antone Dolin. The two dancers will bring a troupe of performers and an orchestra for this appearance. Miss Markova is considered America's leading ballerina.
Also appearing will be Selma Kaye, dramatic soprano currently singing leaders with the Chicago Opera company. Miss Kaye will be making her first concert tour of the west.
One program will be given by E. Robert Schmitz, concert pianist and leading interpreter of French music, and one by the LeRoy Foster Schultz instrumental trio. The trio is composed of flute, cello and piano and both the trio and Mr. Schmitz have been highly praised for performances for other civic music association audiences. It is stated.
