LAST RITES FOR MRS. BLAKELEY FRIDAY 3:30 P.M.

Last rites for Myrtle Wall Blakeley, widely known Medford resident who passed away Tuesday afternoon at a local hospital where she had been a patient for nearly three months, will be held Friday at the Conger-Morris funeral parlors. The Rev. George Turney of St. Mark's Episcopal church will conduct the service in the chapel at 3:30 p. m. and interment will be in the Jacksonville cemetery.

Mrs. Blakeley, who had lived in Medford 40 years, was a former county treasurer, having served from 1915 to 1919, and prior to that was an accountant in the office of the county recorder. For the past 24 years she had been an accountant and office manager for the Medford Mail-Tribune.

Mrs. Blakeley leaves to mourn her passing one daughter, Nina F. Blakeley, Medford; one brother, Etha W. Wall, Medford, and one sister, Mrs. O. E. Blackington of Woodside, Calif., as well as a number of nieces and nephews.

The deceased was a native of Nebraska, having been born at Niobrara April 22, 1887.
