Boy Scout News

Court of Honor
Boy Scout Troop Two held a court of honor Tuesday evening at the Lincoln gym. The court was opened by C. D. Griffiths, scoutmaster, who acted as chairman, and he was assisted by H. J. Ylvisaker as clerk. Presentation of colors, pledge to the flag, the Scout oath and laws were conducted by Dick Hake, junior assistant scoutmaster.

The reviewing court was composed of Seth Bullis, Eugene Thorndike and Eldon Drysdale, scout officials. K. J. Knutson, troop committee and Cubmaster Al. Lindquist of Pack Two.

Kenneth Kohn and Lloyd Dyer were awarded the second class honor by Mr. Bullis. One first class award was made to Harlan Bosworth by Mr. Drysdale and he also presented a mothers' pin to Mrs. Bosworth. Eugene Thorndike made an interesting talk on Scouting and he complimented the troop on its fine work in the past.

Merit badges were given to Ted Sidwell, carpentry; Leonard Gillin, handicraft, and Lytle Gillin, handicraft and woodwork. These were presented by Mr. Thorndike.

Special awards were made by Mr. Knutson to Robert Pitts and Charles Wagner, who received second-year perfect attendance bars and to Dick Simonson, who was presented a one-year perfect attendance pin.

Scoutmaster Griffiths awarded a senior patrol leader's badge to Robert Pitts and a scribe's badge to Billy Dailey. He also presented 16 one-year service stars. Three selections were played by the troop drum and bugle corps under the supervision of Bliss Heine.
