Frank Basher, one of the outstanding football officials in the state, will referee the Medford-Bend game at Medford Stadium, starting at 8 o'clock tonight. It was announced today. Basher made a tour of the state at the beginning of football season, giving football rules examinations to would-be officials. He will be assisted tonight by Norm Warthley, umpire, and Ralph McCollough, head linesman. Coach Al Simpson said this morning that Bill Singler had recovered from a minor illness earlier in the week and will be ready to relieve Glenn Bostwick, fleet-footed left half. Herb Hill, who was shifted to second-string center when LeRoy House went to end, is definitely out of tonight's game because of flu. Darrell Riggs will also be on the sidelines because of a sprained ankle.

Al Kircher has been shifted to Riggs' left end position with Don Waldron moving up to Kircher's regular right end spot. Medford will average 181 pounds per man for the inter-sectional clash while Bend's average is about 166. Only comparative scores for the two teams is Eugene which Medford drubbed 52-7. Bend bowed to the Axemen last week to the tune of 20-0.

Many American military men will have to remain on foreign soil for many months to come. To feed, clothe and care for them will take huge sums of money. Your Victory Bond purchases will ease their burdens.

DEMAREE GRABBED BY PHILADELPHIA IN MAJORS DRAFT

Lou Novikoff Goes to Phillies For Fourth Baseball in Big Time Baseball

Chicago, Nov. 2—(U.P.)—Seven major league clubs took only eight minutes to select nine minor league players today in baseball's annual draft with the Philadelphia Phillies grabbing Lou Novikoff from Los Angeles. The nine player total, worth an aggregate $62,500 was considerably lower than the previous war-time selections. During the war-time manpower shortage, major league clubs picked up an average of about 20 players in the draft.

Demaree To A's
The meeting, the first presided over by Commissioner A. B. "Happy" Chandler, started when the Philadelphia Athletics, selecting first as the last place American league club, picked outfielder Frank Demaree of Portland, Pacific Coast league, who hit .308 last season.

On second choice, Gen. Mgr. Herb Penneck, selected Novikoff for the Phillies, giving the "Mad Russian" his fourth shot at a job in baseball's big time. Novikoff became eligible for the draft when the Cubs sent him to their Los Angeles farm club last winter, the big outfielder's third down-the-river shipment.

Before going into the army in July, Novikoff played in 101 games, hitting .318.

Other Selections
Following are the other selections, in the order picked: Chicago White Sox—Outfielder Pete Thomassie, Memphis, Southern Association, .365, ($6,000).

Boston Braves—Pitcher Earle Reid, Indianapolis, American Association, National Defense list, ($7,500).

New York Giants—Pitcher Mike Budnick, Seattle, Pacific Coast league, National Defense list, ($7,500).

Pittsburgh Pirates—Outfielder Ben Guintine, San Francisco, Pacific Coast league, .282, ($7,500).

Washington Senators—Pitcher Max Wilson, Portsmouth, Piedmont league, National Defense list, ($4,000).

Philadelphia Athletics—Infielder Gene Handley, Sacramento, Pacific Coast league, .298, ($7,500).

Chicago White Sox—Infielder Charlie Biggs, Milwaukee, American Association, .320, ($7,500).

The draft price for a ball player from a class AA league is $7,500. Players from class A leagues go for $6,000 while the class B player ticket is $4,000.

Fishing is expected to improve for the coming week-end after several days of wind and cold weather. Few anglers have braved the chill breezes the past week and reports tellings where to fish are lacking.

Al Piche says the winter run of steelhead is about ready to start and eggs in abundance will be the only lure to use. Places to fish will be eddies and deep holes at the edges of runs or at end of riffles that smooth out into deeper water.

Salmon fishing in coastal waters is not quite up to par for such a long trip but a few salmon were taken during the past week by local anglers in the Chetco river.

Dr. J. P. Bray caught five salmon in Chetco and Smith rivers earlier this week. Largest weighed about 28 pounds. Dr. Bray said the rivers were high but probably another week would produce good fishing.

Piche says he has been called lots of things for not having ammunition to sell would-be hunters during the bird season just ended. He says a party of 11 hunters came to the valley from California and in two days bagged 88 birds. "Where did that much ammunition come from?" queries Piche.

We were visited to have a visit from John Dunlap, formerly of Los Angeles, the other day. Dunlap recently purchased the old Vincent place between Trail and Prospect and is raising English Setter shooting dogs. Dunlap tells us the line breeding program that he has been conducting for the past several years is based around the highly-regarded field trial winner, Peekay Bill, whose Dunlap owned until the dog's death in 1941. Peekay Bill was a straight bred Llewellyn bearing three crosses to Ch. Riley Frush, close in, and was probably the last Llewellyn at that time who traced back to the immortal Count Whitestone in the fourth generation, male line. It is the dog's combination of nose, stamina, bird sense, style, ruggedness and disposition that he has been trying to breed into the strain and results have been most gratifying, he tells us.

Dunlap says the breeding of dogs is his hobby and in no way a commercial proposition. The puppies are not for sale at any price, but Dunlap gives them to sportsmen who will hunt them under the gun and thus advance the qualities bred into the line.

We are informed Dunlap has between 50 and 60 brood matrons in southern California and already has had some puppies shipped to him at Medford. He hopes to establish permanent kennels at the Domino Ranch, which he has named his place, when he is a bit more settled.

MASK TAKES WIN OVER LIPSCOMB

The Gray Mask whipped Coast Champion Jack Lipscomb for the second time in as many weeks before nearly 2,000 shouting and screaming fans at Medford armory last night. It was a match in which practically anything was allowed with Referee Norval Stockstill trying to keep some semblance of order.

With falls standing one apiece, the Hood answered the bell for the final tumble with his water bottle poised to crack down on Lipscomb's skull but Stockstill took it away from him. Lipscomb tossed "old Stoneface" out of the ring and went out after him. The Mask grabbed Lipscomb and cracked his head against the ring underpinning and the match was over.

Rough Rufus Jones had his hands full in winning from Herb Parks in the other half of the double main event. After each had taken a fall Parks had Jones in an airplane spin but the Negro slugged Parks in the neck knocking him off balance and falling on him for the match.

Joe Lynam man-handled Gorilla Poggi to take the only fall in the opener.

Gun Club Shoot Set For Sunday

Medford Gun Club will hold a practice shoot at the club grounds at Crater Lake Four Corners at 11 a. m. Sunday. Ammunition will be available to club members only but any shooter bringing his own shells will be extended shooting privileges.

An effort is being made to renew skeet shooting at the club in the near future when ammunition is expected to be more available.

JACKSONVILLE ROUTS CENTRAL POINT, 27-6

Jacksonville, Nov. 2—Jacksonville high school's six-man football team thumped Central Point 27 to 6 in a Jackson county league game here Thursday afternoon. The Indians had command of the game throughout.

It will take billions of dollars to provide mustering out pay for returning veterans and to care for these disabled. These are only two reasons why Victory Loan Bonds must be bought in quantity and kept.

ELK SEASON TO OPEN SATURDAY; BAG LIMIT ONE

Opening day for elk season in Oregon this year is Saturday, Nov. 3, as listed in the official synopsis of hunting regulations published by the Oregon state game commission. Some question has arisen as a result of a typographical error on elk tags stating the opening date is Nov. 13.

In the area east of the Cascade range and in eastern Lane county the season extends until November 25. Bag limit is one bull elk having antlers except that in southeastern Oregon the bag limit is one elk of either sex.

In western Oregon only specified portions of Clatsop, Tillamook, Columbia, Coos and Douglas counties will be open, the season extending to November 18. Bag limit in this area is one bull elk with forked horns or better.

Complete descriptions of the open areas and regulations pertaining to elk hunting are included in which are available at all license agencies as are elk tags that are required in addition to the regular hunting licenses.

American Nazis Found Listed In Files at Munich

Munich, Nov. 2—(U.P.)—A secret list classifying the names of more than 600 American Nazis has been discovered along with the sketch of a swastika flag designed to fly over the United States in 1951, it was disclosed today.

The list was unearthed from more than 22 tons of Nazi party files by military government workers under the direction of Maj. William Browne, former Portland, Ore., detective.

Americans in every major city from coast to coast were listed definitely as Nazi party members. Officials would not disclose the names but said they were being forwarded to government and military authorities.

The sketch of the flag depicted a swastika replacing the stars in the American flag but it retained 13 red and white stripes.

Not Up to Label, Federals Charge

Los Angeles, Nov. 2—(U.P.)—Twenty-three cafe operators from Skid Row to the swanky Sunset Strip—including the owner of Ciro's of Hollywood—were under federal indictment today charged with selling bad liquor from good bottles at premium prices.

Each of the 12 indictments carried three felony counts and one misdemeanor under federal law making it a criminal offense to refill a liquor bottle on which a revenue stamp has been placed.

Most prominent of the 12 cafes named in the indictment were Ciro's movie colony favorite owned by Herman Hover, and Hollywood's Streets of Paris cafe, owned by Larry Goldner.
