

Society and Clubs

Marian Moore, Kenneth Beebe Married Sunday

Among recent weddings was that of Miss Marian Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rawles Moore, Old Stage Road, to Kenneth Ray Beebe. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Beebe, Central Point.

The rites took place Sunday, Oct. 28, at St. Mark's Episcopal church, the service being read at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. George R. Turney. Only members of the two families and a few intimate friends were present.

The bride's wedding costume was a blue suit worn with a feathered hat. She carried a small prayer book, which had belonged to her great-grandmother, and a lavender orchid. Matron-of-honor was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. David Amoss Moore of Fresno, Calif. She wore a turquoise blue suit and a corsage of tulle and roses.

Mr. Moore gave his daughter in marriage and the bride's brother, David Amoss Moore, served as best man.

Ushers were Harvey D. Field, brother-in-law of the bride from Bend, Ore., and Hugh B. Collins of Medford.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Field sang "O Perfect Love" with Mrs. Nell B. Taylor at the organ, and Mrs. Taylor played the traditional "Wedding March" from Lohengrin and the Mendelssohn march for the recessional.

St. Mark's church was decorated with white and yellow chrysanthemums.

The reception was in the new parish house, which had been decorated with autumn leaves. During the reception, Mrs. Field sang "Because," with Mrs. Moore at the piano.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Porter J. Neff, Mrs. J. C. Collins, Mrs. Myron L. Root, Miss Helen Bullis and Mrs. Robert Willet.

Mr. and Mrs. Beebe will make their home on the Table Rock Road.

Branch Study Group

The international relations study group of the Medford Branch, American Association of University Women, has announced that the group will meet on the first and third Monday evenings of the month in the future rather than Tuesdays, the change having been made to accommodate branch members wishing to attend. Next meeting will be Nov. 5 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. W. E. Lantis, 723 Palm street.

Miss Winningham Married Tuesday To Carl Dykstra

In a setting of lighted candles and palms at the First Methodist church, Miss Mabel Winningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Winningham of Jacksonville, became the bride of Carl Raymond Dykstra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dykstra of Grand Rapids, Mich., Tuesday, Oct. 30. Dr. Louis C. Kirby read the double ceremony at 8 o'clock, with more than 100 guests present.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin with lace sleeves and yoke and her shoulder-length veil and halo headpiece were also lace-trimmed. She carried a colonial nosegay of white roses, gardenias and stephanotis.

Miss Hazel Davis, maid-of-honor, wore a turquoise net dress with a matching halo headpiece and carried a nosegay of pink roses. Miss Sue Parkinson, dressed in a yellow gown, lighted the tapers. She also sang "My Devotion" and "Answer to the Lord's Prayer." Miss Catherine Gentner played the wedding march.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Winningham wore a dress of tan silk and a tulle rose corsage.

Charles Bottjer, uncle of the bride, was best man. Miss Barbara Bottjer and Miss Jocelyn Bauer were ushers.

A reception for the immediate family and a few close friends was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bottjer, 1211 East Main street. The wedding cake, first cut by the bride and groom, was then served by Mrs. Charles R. Nelson, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Anthony Bolzano. Mrs. Ira V. Smith, sister of the bride, poured.

Mr. and Mrs. Dykstra made a wedding trip to the coast. For traveling Mrs. Dykstra wore a sage green suit with black accessories and a black topcoat of fur. Her corsage was of gardenias. After the first of the week Mr. and Mrs. Dykstra will be at home at 1205 East Main street.

The groom was recently discharged from the army after four and one-half years of service.

Meeting Is Changed By Fidelity Circle

Fidelity circle of the First Methodist church will meet Tuesday at the church at two o'clock. Mrs. Robert Taylor and Mrs. Joe Wilkinson will be hostesses and Mrs. I. N. McCollom has the study.

Members are asked to note that the date has been set up one week due to a speaker scheduled for the following week.

Dorothy Hanson, Douglas Plumley Wed on Saturday

At an evening ceremony at Zion Lutheran church Saturday, Oct. 27, Miss Dorothy Mae Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hanson, 832 West 12th street, became the bride of Douglas Plumley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Plumley, 1501 North Riverside avenue. Trs. Rev. Elvin Hansen, pastor of the church, read the ceremony at 8 o'clock.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lace-edged white georgette over white satin en train with full length veil of fine net, also edged with lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of white pom-pom chrysanthemums and pink roses with floral streamers of sweetpeas.

Miss Phyllis Plumley, sister of the groom, was maid-of-honor. She wore a pink floor-length gown and carried a mixed bouquet of white pom-poms and pink carnations. Bridesmaids were Miss Yvonne Moore of Gold Hill and Miss Noelle Slonaker of Medford. They wore harmonizing floor-length gowns in pastel colors and carried bouquets of pom-poms and pink roses.

Homer Sullivan was best man and ushers were Loyd Huston and Loyd Smith.

Petite Nadra Moore was flower girl.

Sebastian Apollo played the wedding march and Harry Young sang "Because" and "Oh, Promise Me" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" preceding the altar vows.

A reception was held in the parlors of the church immediately following the ceremony. The bride and groom cut the first slice of wedding cake and the serving was continued by the bridesmaids. Mrs. Louie Mertons, aunt of bride, and Mrs. Harry Marsh poured. Miss Myrla Ball assisted in the serving.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums, pink carnations, white pom-pom chrysanthemums and candelabra decorated the chancel of the church.

For the wedding and reception both the bride's mother and the groom's mother wore black ensembles with corsages of gardenias and sweetpeas.

For traveling the bride wore a brown suit with matching accessories and her corsage was gardenias and roses. After their return from a trip to northern Oregon points Mr. and Mrs. Plumley will be at home at 1501 North Riverside avenue.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. Fisher, Milbank, S. D., grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Louie Mertons, aunt of the bride, also from Milbank; Mr. and Mrs. M. Kopp and three children of Prineville and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moore, Gold Hill.

Mr. Plumley is a graduate of Medford high school with the class of 1944 and his bride graduated with the 1945 class.

60th Anniversary Of Phoenix Couple Celebrated Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts were honored at a family reunion and dinner in celebration of their 60th wedding anniversary, the affair being given Sunday, Oct. 28, at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hughes in Fern Valley. Mrs. Hughes and Mr. Roberts are brother and sister.

Guests included Dr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts, Mrs. Margaret Beer and son, Ernest, Mrs. E. E. Marshall, Joyce Marshall of Medford, Miss Marian Roberts of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coffman of Talent, Mrs. Frank Harris of Los Angeles, Calif., Dr. Harold Roberts, recently discharged from the army and en route to his home in John Day, Ore., and Miss Lulu Roberts of Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, married in Missouri, came to Oregon in 1900 and have made their home at Phoenix ever since. Miss Lulu Roberts is their only child.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gray Thompson were married recently in the First Christian church, Medford. The bride is the former Norrene Bohnert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bohnert, Central Point, and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson, also of Central Point.

Olive Morton Wed To Naval Officer In Home Service

Miss Olive Morton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Morton, Old Military Road, became the bride of Lt. Jack Mace, USN, at an afternoon ceremony Saturday, Oct. 27, at the Morton home. Lt. Mace is a son of Mrs. Helen Mace of La Crescenta, Calif., and John Mace, Central Point.

The Rev. H. W. Hansen read the double-ring service at two o'clock, with about 40 friends and relatives present. The living-room window, arranged with an arch of greenery and white and yellow chrysanthemums, formed a setting for the bridal party.

Miss Morton, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white satin with a long train and finger-tip length veil. Her bouquet was of white roses centered with orchids.

Maid-of-honor was Miss Coral Morton, sister of the bride. She wore a pink and white tulle gown and carried a fan of white pom-pom chrysanthemums and red roses. Little Miss Linda Morton, another sister of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore a floor-length pink organza dress and carried a basket of white chrysanthemums and pink carnations.

Victor Sether, uncle of the groom, was best man.

Miss Mary Virginia Wait played the wedding march and Miss Helen Webb sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the service.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore an afternoon frock of blue crepe and the groom's mother was attired in a green suit. Both wore corsages of red roses.

At the reception following the wedding Lt. Mace and his bride cut the first slice of cake and the serving was continued by Mrs. J. L. Haskins, Mrs. Victor Sether and Mrs. Paul McCurley poured. They were assisted in serving by Miss Margaret Pence, Miss Lois Yost and Mrs. Al. Mercer.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Haskins and Doyle Haskins of Merrill, Ore., and Miss Virginia Bradish, student at the University of Oregon.

Lt. and Mrs. Mace left the next evening for New York, where the officer will report to his ship. Mrs. Mace will remain in the east for the present.

The bride graduated from Medford high school and later attended the University of Oregon while the groom is a graduate of Oregon State college.

Fiancee Honored By Social Affairs At Central Point

Central Point—Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jewett of Central Point entertained Friday, Oct. 27, with a dinner honoring Miss Doris Doughton, fiancée of their son, Richard D. Jewett, who recently returned from three years service in the European war theater.

Table decorations and favors followed a heart theme and small birds carried the announcement that the wedding will be an event of Nov. 18 at the Jason Lee Methodist church in Salem.

The guest list, in addition to the honor guest and Mr. Jewett, included Mr. and Mrs. Alan Jewett of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. William Grimes of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. John Tharp, Mrs. Stanley Parrish, Mrs. Joe Munshaw, Mrs. Chester Grimes, Miss Maxine Ayres and Mrs. Delbert Ayres.

Honoring Miss Doris Doughton of Salem, Mrs. Everett Faber of Central Point was hostess at a beautifully appointed shower Tuesday at the Faber home. The guests contributed recipes and embroidered tea towels for the guest of honor after which they presented Miss Doughton with many gifts.

The refreshment table was centered with a small cellophane church enclosing a miniature wedding scene. Each guest's place was marked by a cluster of small bells.

Present were the Mesdames Sam Koehler, Don Patterson, Joe Munshaw, William Grimes, John Tharp, Gladys Beebe, J. Sanford Richardson, William Anhorn, Alan Jewett, Don Faber and Howard Jewett; Miss Bette Wilson, the honor guest and the hostess.

Miss Doughton has returned to her home in Salem after a visit at the home of her fiancé.

Couple Will Visit In California City

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jordan, Talent, will leave Tuesday for Berkeley, Calif., where they will be guests of Mrs. Nathaniel Gardner.

Lester-Stewart Marriage Rites Held Thursday

Miss Gloria A. Lester, daughter of Mrs. Ora Lester, 814 Beckman avenue, became the bride of James W. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart, 50 Modoc street, Thursday, Nov. 1, in an afternoon ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Armstrong, Janney Lane.

The Rev. George R. Turney, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, read the service before a fireplace arranged with palms and chrysanthemums. Friends and relatives of the couple attended.

The bride chose a blue-gray suit with navy hat and veil for her wedding. She carried a Bible and a spray of white gardenias.

Attending the couple were Miss Ruth Slorah, bridesmaid, who wore a gold colored suit with Tulleman rosebuds, and Robert Stewart, brother of the groom, who was best man.

Preceding the ceremony La Ray Armstrong played "Serenade," and Miss Deah Jean Rose played the wedding march. Wedding refreshments were served following the service and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left immediately for a wedding trip in Southern California.

The groom recently returned home after 39 months with the 41st division in the South Pacific and he held the rank of sergeant. The bride is a graduate of Medford high school. They plan to make their home at 117 Almond street.

Entertained By Teacher

About 20 members of the girls' high school of the First Methodist church were entertained last night with a dinner at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Clarence Meeker, 724 East Jackson street.

Shower Is Given At Hanson Home For Miss Morton

Miss Olive Morton, whose wedding to Jack Mace took place Oct. 27, was honored at a shower given by her aunt, Mrs. Marie Hansen, 22 West Jackson street, the evening of Oct. 26. The affair was at Mrs. Hansen's home, which was decorated with chrysanthemums.

Games were played during the evening, with prizes won by Miss Coral Morton and the guest of honor. After opening of the miscellaneous shower gifts, Mrs. Hansen was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. E. H. Niedermeyer.

Guests present were the Mesdames B. M. Lininger, Clara Rhoades, Ray Pence, Guy Cox, Frank Blore, Fred Foust, W. H. Dyer, O. O. Morton, Lydia Morton, E. H. Niedermeyer, L. J.

Haskins of Merrill, and Ben Music, and the Misses Alta Morton, Sadie Pence, Margaret Pence, Coral Morton, Teckla Olson, Shirley Shade and the honor guest, Miss Olive Morton.

Buying and keeping Victory Bonds is the safest, surest way to long-term security and independence.

Use Mail Tribune Want Ads.

Holmes Children Nursery

402 Boardman. Phone 4510 Medford, Oregon

Day Care for Children Two to Six

Hours: 7 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Rates: 20c per hour by day or $8.00 a week.

STIRRING GOSPEL MESSAGES!

THE APOSTOLIC FAITH

(N. Central at 3rd St.) Services: Sunday, 11 A.M., 3 P.M., 7:45 P.M. Tuesday and Friday, 8 P.M. Special Music by Orchestra and Chorus-Choir Sunday Evening at 7:45

Come Early—Bring Your Friends

"The church without a collection"

ADRIENNE'S

we're backing

BLACK

THE COAT THAT ALWAYS MAKES A WOMAN LOOK WELL DRESSED

Specialized Sizes for Women

Top: Rich touches of velvet and Persian Lamb distinguish this well tailored coat. $79.98

Center: The fitted Chesterfield with its velvet collar is designed to make a woman look more slender. $49.98

Right: Graceful bands of Persian Lamb emphasize the broader shoulders of this fitted coat. $79.95

Little Lady Sterling

SAY Merry Christmas WITH A DIAMOND!

...in a beautiful Genuine "Orange Blossom" ring. Whether it be a new engagement ring or the careful resetting of a treasured stone these lovely "Orange Blossom" creations will greatly enhance the beauty of your diamond.

See our selection of these fine rings before you decide.

Rings shown here $50.00 to $500.00

Lawrence's JEWELRY AND GIFT SHOP 35 Years in Medford. Specializing in Fine Diamonds only. Ask the person who wears a Lawrence Diamond.

A NEW LOOK for A NEW SEASON

With the

NEW PIN CURL COLD WAVE

Here is the Permanent Wave that every hair dresser and so many women have been wishing for—no injurious chemicals—no more frizzes or kinks—no curlers—no discomfort. We have given many of these Cold Waves and they have proved to be very successful. Come in and let us give you one of these lovely waves.

Operators—Dorothy Elliott, Iona McMahan

HARMONY BEAUTY SHOP

213 Fluhrer Bldg. — 2nd Floor

Phone 3096

Happy Housewives

—have learned the secret of eliminating as much of the drudgery of housework as possible. Wash day is one of the hardest times in the week for the average housewife — that is, the one who hasn't learned the convenience and economy of AMERICAN LAUNDRY service. It banishes blue Monday — and means added hours for enjoyment of the family and vital war activities. Just try it this week — you'll LIKE this convenient, thorough laundry service.

Buy War Bonds

