OBITUARY
ROBERT D'ARMOND
 Robert DeArmond, 86, passed away at the home of his son in Central Point yesterday.
 Mr. DeArmond was born at Siloom Springs, Ark., Dec. 30, 1859. Coming to Jackson county in 1888, he settled in Sams Valley and four years later, purchased a ranch in what is now the Beagle district. August 8, 1942, exactly 50 years later, he moved to Rogue River. Thus, just 50 years were spent on the same farm. And the day of his passing was 57 years to the day after his arrival here.
 Besides his wife, Lillie DeArmond, he leaves one son and one daughter, Charles DeArmond of Central Point and Mrs. Luke Jennings, Rogue River, and grandchildren, Mrs. Loyal Abbott, Medford; Alta and Ritta Jennings, Rogue River; Cere-na and Raif DeArmond, Central Point, and Evan Jones. Also four great grandchildren.
 Arrangements for services are being made with Conger-Morris Funeral Parlors and will be announced later.

EDWIN S. HITZLER
 Edwin S. Hitzler, well known resident of Medford where he had resided for the last 40 years except the last three when he and Mrs. Hitzler moved on a farm which they purchased near the town of Rogue River, passed away at the residence Tuesday at the age of 75.
 Mr. Hitzler was born in Leighton, Mich., in 1870, the son of George and Theresse Hitzler. At the age of 20, he came west to Puyallup, Wash., and engaged in berry raising and March 25, 1903, was married to Ruby Bissell who survives. They came to Medford in 1905. Besides his wife, he is survived by one son, and one daughter, Ben L. Hitzler of Seattle, and Mrs. Lee Van Ausdall of Medford. Also three grandchildren.

GEORGE D. CAZEAUX
 George D. Cazeaux, serving in the U. S. coast guard, age 25, was killed instantly in an auto accident near Grants Pass Sunday morning.
 The remains are at the Conger-Morris chapel and will probably be forwarded to Mississippi where his wife resides.

GEORGE ROSH
 The remains of George Rosh, 64, who was found unconscious at his home on Sardine creek near Gold Hill last Thursday and who died in a Medford hospital four days later, are at the Conger-Morris chapel. Any person knowing the whereabouts of any relatives is asked to advise Mr. Conger or Mr. Morris.

HOWARD L. MORRISON
 The body of the late Howard L. Morrison who passed away here two weeks ago today, will be interred in Siskiyou memorial park at 10 a.m. Thursday.
 Services were held Oct. 29, and the body was held pending advice from relatives in New Jersey.

REX W. BUSHNELL
 Funeral services for Rex Wilbur Bushnell who passed away at the home of his brother, Ernest Bushnell in Philomath, Ore., last Friday at the age of 40, will be held in the Conger-Morris chapel at 2 p.m. Thursday with the Rev. L. C. Kirby officiating. Interment will be in Talent cemetery. Mr. Bushnell was a recently discharged veteran and had experienced much service overseas.

Modern Gold Hill Building To House 3 Establishments
 Gold Hill, Nov. 7.—Completion of a modern concrete business building on Main street here, on the premises where one of the oldest store buildings has been operated for 45 years, has been announced by A. A. Walker, who has been in business here for the past 21 years.
 The new building will house Walker's general merchandise store, a restaurant to be operated by Harry Horton, formerly of El Monte, Calif., and an electric store operated by H. W. Smith, formerly of Long Beach, Calif.
 Open house will be held by all three establishments Saturday when they officially open for business.

Jacksonville
 Jacksonville, Nov. 7.—Among servicemen who have recently received discharges from the armed forces and returned to their homes here are Vernon Hamaker, Carol Lewis, Bill and Simon Johnson, Donald Dorothy, Lewis Buckley, and Roy Walters.
 The new bus service between Medford and Jacksonville is proving popular with local citizens. The company operates six schedules daily.
 A clothing store has been opened in the building next door to the Miner's Cafe. A complete line of men's wear has been stocked and plans are made to include women's wear later.
 Members of the IOOF lodge have completely remodeled the U. S. dance hall. Walls, doors, windows and ceilings have been painted.
 The Chamber of Commerce has completely remodeled its meeting room. Membership has gained in the past few weeks.
 Jackson County Miners Association held a meeting recently in the Chamber of Commerce room. Plans to promote mining interests of southern Oregon as well as Jacksonville were discussed.
 Roger Cram has completed plans for a newspaper in Jacksonville. His office will be located next door to the post office.
 Jacksonville Ruth Rebekah No. 4 plans to attend the Rebekah Assembly at Ashland Nov. 13.
 City officials are drilling for a new well on the south side of town in an effort to supplement the community's water supply.
 Fire partially destroyed the garage of Dwight Hartman recently. The fire crew also extinguished a flue fire at the home of Mrs. Lee Wakefield.
 Sgt. and Mrs. Grant Montgomery of Salem and Sgt. Dale Montgomery have been visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. S. C. Peters and family. Sgt. Grant Montgomery has recently returned from 18 months in the armed forces while his brother has been in the army 3 1/2 years, including a year with a hospital unit in England. Both men have been honorably discharged. Arrival of their parents, Mr. and
