"I WAS CONSTIPATED FOR MANY YEARS!"

Relieved by
KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN

Constipated? Then here's an unsolicited letter you'll want to read:
"I'd been troubled with common constipation for many years. Was taking laxatives and pills all the time, and feeling very weak and run down. 3 months ago, I began eating KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN daily. Now, I have a regular, natural movement every morning, which helps me feel my best!" Mr. Samuel D. Blank, 292 Kings Highway, Brooklyn, New York.

You, too, may be able to free yourself from pills and purgatives for the rest of your life—if your constipation is due to lack of bulk in the diet, and you eat a dish of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN every day and drink plenty of water! If not satisfied, send empty carton to Kellogg's of Battle Creek. You'll receive double the money you paid for it! ALL-BRAN is not a purgative. It's a highly nutritious food made from the vital outer layers of wheat. It's one of nature's most effective sources of gentle-acting, natural bulk.

Get ALL-BRAN at your grocer's. It's made by Kellogg's of Battle Creek and Omaha.

NEW FALL BOOKS TO BE DISPLAYED DURING BOOK WEEK

National Book Week will be celebrated this year from Nov. 11 to 17. In the boys and girls department of the Medford public library, it will be heralded with many activities, and an interesting display of new fall books.

Among the books to be shown are a number of outstanding biographies and career stories for older boys and girls—such as "The Little Giant; the Story of Stephan A. Douglas"—Nolan; "Oliver Hazard Perry"—Fenton; "Runway to the Sun"—Scott. This last will be of special appeal to boys liking aviation, as it is the personal record of this famous aviator.

Girls will enjoy "Brave Nurse"—Newcomb, which includes ten true stories of heroic nurses of our own and other lands. "We Have Tomorrow"—Bontemp, is timely and inspiring as it tells of the struggle and successes of a dozen Negro Americans, who have distinguished themselves in one or another art or profession. Adults as well as boys and girls will find this an arresting book.

Boys will especially like the following: "Mudhen"—Allen, a first rate school story. "Hurricane Treasure"—Sackett; "Black Stallion Returns"—Farley; "Wings Over the Desert"—Dean; "Patriot in the Saddle"—Nolan, and "Mystery of the Logging Camp"—Reynolds, are all well written stories charged with mystery and suspense.

Books for older girls are varied, with a predominance of career stories. Listed with these are: "Fair is the Morning"—Erdman; "Gail Gardner, Junior Cadet Nurse"—Sutton; "Crossroads for Penelope"—Thompson; "Lady Leatherneck"—White. Other good girls stories are: "Bramble Bush"—Dickson; "Windigo"—Pinkerton, and "Up With Your Barrier"—Lockwood. Younger children will find new friends in "Tenka"—Kingman; "Secrets"—Jones; "Augustus"—Bishop; "Little Thunder"—Burrows; "Guess What's in the Grass"—Mitchell, and "9 Crybaby Dolls"—Bernhard.

Miss Mildred Selby, children's librarian, urged parents, teachers, and children to drop into the library sometime during the week to browse. Those in charge will be glad to aid in suggesting books for home purchase, and in making suggestions for Christmas gifts.

CHURCH AIDING IN CLOTHING DRIVE

Ladies of the Friends Church, Old Highway and De Barr avenue, will meet at the church Thursday at 1 p. m., to set up a program to handle clothing to be sent to people in war-torn Europe. The Missionary Guild will be reorganized for the winter season, and committees appointed to serve on the clothing drive.

Any kind of wearable clothing or cloth for adults and children, as well as shoes of any size can be used. Even if the clothing is not cleaned, or mended, the need is so great that the ladies of the community will prepare the materials and the men will package it for shipment, and send it direct to the American Friends Service Committee in Philadelphia, and the church committee on Overseas Relief and Rehabilitation.

All ladies are invited to attend the first meeting of the season. The church will become a depot to handle the clothing, and pick-up service will be had by calling 2926.
