"Belted Tweeds" The COAT Success Of the Season

This is a success story. It's about tweed coats that caught the fancy of American women and quick, like a jack-rabbit, zoomed right up to the top of the fashion ladder—and stayed there. Women love these coats because they're perfect for town or country wear—comfortable and smart—plenty warm for the most severe winters and they give every woman that cherished, casual, well-dressed American look.
