GERMAN DIESEL CARS ARRIVE FOR STUDY
 Boston, Nov. 15 — (U.P.) — Three German Diesel, self-propelled mechanical railroad cars reached here aboard the transport Wallace M. Tyler and an army spokesman here said they would be taken to Fort Monroe, Va., for study by railroad experts.

Arrival of the unarmed cars—one a diner, the others Pullman type—gave rise to erroneous reports that the ship carried the train in which Adolf Hitler traveled through Europe.

There are 21,619 miles of steam railroad track in Texas.

CENTRAL PT. POST MARKS ARMISTICE AT NEW BUILDING
 State, Local Legion Officials Speak at Formal Ceremony; Navy Men Guests.

Central Point, Nov. 15—Armistice Day was celebrated here Monday with Myers-Holland Post No. 129, American Legion, in charge. The day started with a large number of our members attending the breakfast in Medford with Medford Post No. 15 as hosts. After the parade most of the veterans returned to Central Point to attend the luncheon given in honor of Department Commander Neil Morfitt, Department Adjutant Fritz Nissen, Past Department Commander Niel R. Allen, District Commander Bob Bryant, Mayor E. E. Scott and Captain H. B. La Favre, U. S. Navy, commander of the Navy Hospital at Camp White; Commander Doyle and Lieut. English, U. S. Navy, of Camp White Navy Hospital.

After the luncheon the party proceeded to the new Legion Memorial building, where a large crowd was waiting to greet them.

Highlight of the day was laying of the cornerstone of the post's new home.

Krupp Presides
 Commander Joe Krupp was master of ceremonies and the program got under way with the Central Point high school band, under direction of Comrade Harry Myers, playing the national anthem, the invocation was given by the Rev. Harry Hansen.

Mayor E. E. Scott delivered the address of welcome to the assembled guests.

Department Adjutant Nissen responded, complimenting the post on the progress of the building since he visited here last July, when the only semblance of a building was the foundation and a small section of the west wall.

Post History Told
 Comrade H. P. Jewett then gave the history of the post for the past year, the progress they have made, comparing it to a baby with its eyes wide open, standing on its own feet, putting forth lusty yells of achievement, that has doubled in size in the past year, and which has outgrown its 3-cornered garments and will soon be completely clothed in up-to-date building.

Commander Krupp then introduced Captain La Favre, who gave an impressive talk on the friendly and patriotic spirit of the people of Southern Oregon, complimenting the post on its achievement of having their building so near completion without incurring any indebtedness.

Department Commander Morfitt was then introduced and gave the principal address of the day, talking on the subject, "Jobs for the returning veterans." He stressed the fact that the government had promised jobs for all of them and that promise must be kept.

The Drum and Bugle Corps of Boy Scout Troop No. 2 played two numbers which were greatly enjoyed.

Kilties Honored
 Ashland Post No. 14 then presented their Kiltie Band for three numbers after which Commander Morfitt designated them as his official band for the state convention in 1946 which will be held in Medford.

The formal laying of the cornerstone was made by Mrs.

VETERAN OF K-9 OVERSEAS ACTION IS PROSPECT PET

Lee Lincoln, Prospect cafe owner, received from the war department this week an ex-war dog named "Baron", who recently was given an honorable discharge from the K-9 corps. Baron, a five-year-old Doberman Pinscher, spent three years overseas with the 2nd and 5th marine divisions, taking part in action on Tarawa, New Guinea and the Solomon Islands and making an outstanding record for himself.

The dog, which was awarded the presidential unit citation along with the fifth marine corps, was wounded in action on Tarawa. In the service three and one-half years, he just completed an eight-weeks course in reconversion for civilian life.

Owner Lincoln, who first saw the dog in the Solomons, where he was stationed as a chief aviation pilot with the naval air corps, returned to Prospect early this year following an honorable discharge from the navy, and wrote his request for ownership of the dog to the war department. While in the service Lincoln served in several theaters and received the purple heart, for wounds received in action in the European theater, the distinguished flying cross and the air medal.

Medford Cocker Becomes Champion
 Ginger, Greene-Lea Town Debutante, as she is known in the show ring, proudly bears the title of champion today. The red female cocker owned by Mrs. Charles R. Greene, 611 South Riverside, finished for the title with a five point win at the Inland Empire Kennel association all-breed show held at Spokane, Wash., November 11.

Ginger won her championship at four consecutive shows under four different judges in 28 days,
