Dear.....

Armistice day activities attracted exceptionally large crowds this year. The American Legion annual breakfast was such a large affair that the dining room failed to hold all who turned out for the event and some 300 veterans attended the luncheon at the Elks' club. The usual crowds turned out for the patriotic parade and at Central Point many attended the ceremony for laying of a cornerstone for the new building for Myers-Holland post of the American Legion. Department Commander Neil Morfitt spoke and the stone was formally laid by Mrs. Susie Myers, mother of Homer (Stub) Myers, who died in the service of the navy early in the war. Football continues to be the topic of the week. Medford's amazing Black Tornado swept aside the Ashland Grizzlies, 52 to 0, in their annual struggle at Medford stadium last Friday night, completing the regular season with a record of 452 points to their opponents' seven points. This afternoon they meet North Bend's unbeaten Bulldogs at North Bend for the District Two title. Darrell Riggs, captain and left end of the team, was chosen "athlete of the month" for October by members of the Medford Athletic association. One of the largest real estate transactions to be announced recently was the sale of the Wing Orchards to Gordon and George Green for $100,000. In addition to handling of the orchards, Gordon Green plans to raise riding horses. Lt. Cecil Hunt, Jr., has been posthumously awarded the silver star medal. The officer was killed in action in Europe. His father, Capt. Cecil Hunt, also was a war casualty, having been killed when a B-17 in which he was traveling to the east coast exploded in midair. "Letter of the week" is that written by Cpl. Earl Jones to his mother, the 22-page letter having been written by the corporal while en route from Guam to China on a troop ship. Describing conditions at Tsingtao, Cpl. Jones recounted how a riot almost ensued when one of the Americans took out his false teeth in a crowd of natives. First Lt. Laurel K. Morris is attending Shrivensham American university in England while stationed overseas with the 48th reinforcement battalion. Harry Lawrence, AOMIC, has been transferred to the heavy carrier Lexington, and writes that his ship was recently in Tokyo Bay. Also serving on a carrier is Pfc. Volney Brock, aboard the Champlain, now being used to transport troops home. While most servicemen are returning home, a few are just being assigned to overseas duty. Among these are Pfc. Arlon Skinner, who is visiting at home before overseas assignment, and Pvt. Darrel Shirley, also home before being assigned to European duty. Wayne M. Turpin, S1c, was recently home for a brief leave from the carrier Saratoga, now engaged in returning troops from overseas. Also home is Sgt. Delmar Chapman, who spent 18 months in the CBI theater. Sgt. Francis W. Carter, veteran of the Normandy beachhead and who saw 46 months of service, is home on furlough. He wears the silver star among other decorations. Among men recently discharged and now home is former Master Sgt. Merrill Stanley, who was awarded the Legion of Merit for service with the signal corps in Persia. Also home are the Applegate brothers, John and Dick, both now out of service. Dick is now with the United Press and his wife, a native of Belgium, recently arrived in this country from Trinidad. Another recent arrival home is Major R. B. Thieroff, on terminal leave. He served two years in the Pacific theater and wears the silver star. Among others discharged are Bill Reed, former radio technician overseas two years; Edward C. Evanson, who served 27 months with the Seabees in Dutch Harbor and in the South Pacific; Clinton Neeley, who served on the destroyer Lambertson; Ted O'Neill, who spent 22 months in the Pacific on navy assignments; Clinton Forrester, who served on a Russian supply line with the transportation corps; Andrew L. Matney, former corporal who served in Hawaii and the Philippines; Robert L. Mullin, who served 11 months in French Morocco. Dick Shreeve, who served 10 months in Italy with the 15th air corps, is here on a visit and Major Robert Lowry has been here while on terminal leave from the army ordnance. James V. Knapp, has been discharged after three years with the 10th mountain troops, both in the Atlantic and Pacific, and also out of the army is Roy Swanson, who served with the 91st Infantry in Italy, and Joseph P. Smith, who served 20 months with the air corps in Alaska. Halbert S. Deuel, EM3c, was recently promoted to that rank. He is aboard the USS Pennsylvania, Bill Virgin, HA2c, is now stationed at Camp White. Announced last week were the weddings of Miss Ina Shakespear to T. Sgt. Wayne M. Fairchild; and Helen Webb to Capt. William Fairchild of San Francisco. Sgt. Fairchild, veteran of the Mediterranean and Pacific campaigns, recently re-enlisted in the air corps. John L. Wilson, recently discharged after service in the Pacific with the army, has been visiting at home, bringing his bride, the former Maud Walz of Lake Andes, S. D.

PONTIAC SHOWING SLATED SATURDAY

Pontiac, long considered a pacemaker in smart styling, will introduce the new 1946 model here Saturday, according to A. Z. "Tubby" Dean, local dealer. The finest of the famed "Silver Streaks" will be displayed at Dean's sales and service headquarters at Sixth and Grape streets.

There are many impressive improvements in the new 1946 line, according to Mr. Dean, and yet the Pontiac continues to be featured in the low priced field. Among these improvements are new and more attractive exterior styling, finer rust-resistant bodies, heavier chrome finish, new instrument panel, improved clutch and cooling system. The public has been invited to inspect the 1946 Pontiac this week-end. Both sixes and eights are featured in the line with engines interchangeable in the same chassis. Dean just returned from Portland where he previewed the new models. Mass production is now underway but the future output will depend upon industrial conditions. Prices will be announced as soon as OPA figures are revealed. About 90 per cent of the population of the Wyoming state penitentiary is made up of men from other states.
