"IN THE MEANTIME DARLING"

"Summer Storm" Opening

"Summer Storm" opening at the Craterian theatre today, brings to the screen a stark, intensely dramatic story of a Russian girl whose beauty destroys the men whom first it favors. Ruthless, fickle, greed for wealth and position, Linda Darnell, as Olga, gives a superb performance as an illiterate peasant girl who wrecks the lives of three other persons, and inevitably, her own. The story written by Anton Chekov, features in the excellent cast George Sanders, Anna Lee and Edw. Everett Horton.

Miss Doris Clark Married Saturday To Mr. Hassmann

Of interest to friends here will be the news of the marriage Saturday, Nov. 10 of Miss Doris Loraine Clark, daughter of Mrs. Florence Clark, Medford, and the late L. D. Clark, of Hill, Calif., to Telmond C. Hassmann, San Antonio, Tex. The wedding took place at 7:30 o'clock in a candlelight ceremony at the Trinity Lutheran church, Olympia, Wash. The Rev. Ernest Drews read the ceremony in a setting of white chrysanthemums and white tapers.

For her wedding the bride wore a white marquisette gown. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Arthur Clark.

Miss Marilyn Widstrand of Spokane, Wash., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and was gowned in white marquisette with long blue gloves and blue feathers in her hair. Her bouquet was of pink rosebuds and white chrysanthemums.

Flower girl was little Barbara Green of Seattle, niece of the groom, who wore blue taffeta with a nosegay of white chrysanthemums.

Lt. Frank Gasperatti served as best man and Roy Williams and Clarence Yocum were ushers.

A reception attended by 35 relatives and friends was held at the home of the bride's grandmother following the ceremony.

Mrs. Hassmann is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and before her marriage was employed at Camp White and Santa Barbara, Calif. The groom was recently discharged from the army.

After Dec. 15 the couple will make their home at 9831 32nd street; Southwest, Seattle, where the groom is employed.
