Zonta Club Award Presented Tuesday To Vera Humphrey

For outstanding service as county chairman of the Junior Red Cross, Miss Vera Humphrey was presented the first service award of Medford Zonta club this week, the award having been made at a dinner at the Holland Hotel Tuesday evening. The affair observed the 26th anniversary of the founding of Zonta International.

Mrs. Effie Kurtz, Medford Zontian and district vice-chairman of Zonta, presented Miss Humphrey with the award scroll and a corsage of rosebuds. Mrs. Kurtz stated that the award would be made annually in the future to a woman giving outstanding volunteer service to the community. Miss Humphrey has served as volunteer chairman of the Red Cross juniors since 1940 and has carried on an extensive program among young people of the county. School children have enrolled 100 per cent for the past three years and what is expected to be the fourth 100 per cent enrollment drive is being closed this week-end.

Speaker of the evening for the dinner was Dr. H. B. LaFavre, captain of the navy medical corps in charge of the Camp White hospital. The officer related interesting details of his part in preparing for the invasion of North Africa, the doctor having been in charge of purchasing medical supplies and equipment for the hospital, dispensaries and first aid stations set up as soon as possible after the landing of troops. He also told of his part in the preparations made at Casa Blanca for the attendance of the late President Roosevelt at the historical conference held there.

Musical numbers were presented by E. Ronald Rice, accompanied by Mrs. Kurtz, and Johnnie Eads, magician, also entertained. Mrs. Florene Bolton, president of the club, welcomed guests and Miss Josephine Kirtley presided as toastmistress. Guests were Miss Humphrey, Dr. LaFavre, Mrs. Alice Hightower, Mrs. Vivian Kellom, Mrs. Wallace Haskins, Mr. and Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, Cole Holmes, A. T. Lathrop, James Grigsby, Tom Gifford, Jimmie Bolton and Tom Kurtz.

Cleanliness Is Guardian of Every Child's Health

It's so important that they wear clean clothes daily as a safeguard to their health. And it's important to mother's health that she let us do the family wash, so as not to overburden herself with home and family. Leave your washing and ironing to us.

Announce Troth Of Bettie Brown To Ray M. Huson

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Bettie Ruth Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brown of Route 1, Box 470, to Ray M. Huson, son of Mrs. Ina Huson, Lozier Lane, was made last week-end. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Brown, who is a civilian employee at the Marine Barracks, Klamath Falls, was home last week-end and with her fiancé was honored at a party given by Mrs. Tyley Evans and Mrs. Vernon Evans at the latter's home. Announcement of the betrothal was made during the evening and Mrs. Theodore Graham and Sgt. Bob Carlson sang a duet, "I Love You Truly" in honor of the couple.

Miss Brown attended Linfield College, McMinnville, and the Southern Oregon College of Education after graduating from Medford high school. Mr. Huson, who entered the army after graduating from Medford high school, recently returned home after serving 69 months in various parts of the Pacific theater with an artillery unit, his last station being on Okinawa. He held the rank of corporal.

Troop Members Annual Dinner Held Thursday

Closing event of the season for members of the Ladies' Mounted Troop was the annual dinner which took place Thursday evening at the Holland hotel.

S. M. Tuttle, drillmaster for the troop, was guest of honor and during the evening was presented with a handsome Navajo saddle blanket which had been monogrammed by Mrs. Fred Slate. In a short talk Mr. Tuttle told troop members of some of the compliments paid them during the past year by persons who had seen troop drills.

Mrs. S. E. Phillips, troop captain, reviewed the year's activities, pointing out that in addition to promoting good horsemanship among women of the valley the troop's all-time project is the promotion of additional bridle paths and trails in Oregon. Mrs. George B. Dean and Mrs. R. B. Hammond serve on a troop committee to further this project.

The dining tables had been cleverly decorated by Mrs. C. Lyall Fidler. Centerpiece was a miniature corral filled with toy horses and riders and place cards were silhouettes of horses bearing the names of troop members' mounts. Nut cups were filled with oats.

Twenty-six members were present. Following dinner the group attended a show at the Craterian theater as guests of Mrs. Walter Leverette.

Friendly Society Dinner Hostesses

The Girls' Friendly society of St. Mark's Episcopal church entertained at a dinner Thursday evening at the parish hall on North Oakdale avenue. Guests were the Right Rev. Benjamin D. Dagwell, bishop of the church from Portland, the Rev. R. A'Court Simmonds, Portland, and members of the Acolyte's Guild and others.

Following a confirmation service at the church conducted by Bishop Dagwell, the Rev. Simmonds showed pictures of Episcopal missionaries in China and of various institutions of the church in Oregon.
