

Rebekah District Meeting To Be in Medford in 1946

Decision to hold the 1946 convention of District No. 12, Rebekah lodge, with Olive Rebeckah lodge as hostess, was made at the 1945 district convention, held recently in Ashland. Julia Gregory, Medford, was elected chairman of the district, succeeding Celia A. Berninghausen, Ashland, who presided over the recent meeting.

Visitors were Ethel Bailey, Roseburg, state president of the Rebekah Assembly, Louise Peruzzi, Ashland, past state president; Alma Cofer, Klamath Falls, assembly conductor, and many out-of-state visitors.

Lona Dameron of Ashland gave the address of welcome and a tribute to past chairmen was given by Ethel Fense of Medford. A round table discussion on "good officers" was conducted by Alice Gowland and a memorial service was conducted by the Central Point Rebekahs with Esther Sullivan, noble grand, Betta Pankey, Clara Vincent, Rebecca Stewart, Nettie Smith, Velma Kline, Viola Tratumann, Bette Wheeler, Eva Kight, Dora Jones, Lillian Weidman and Bessie Fredenburg taking part.

Tribute to the flag was paid by the Gold Hill lodge, with Ella Mae Gail singing and Ella Gould, Medford, read a paper on "courtesies to officers, visitors and members." Gifts and corsages were presented each officer by Hope Rebekah lodge of Ashland.

During the evening session Dorothy Dickey and Nellie Madden presented a piano duet and accordion numbers were given by junior high school students. Etna Rebekah lodge of Grants Pass initiated a class of candidates, with Dr. H. W. Herman serving as noble grand, Marian Hussey, vice-grand, Nellie Johnson, chaplain, William Lamphere, past noble grand, and with 20 members assisting. The drill was planned and drawn by Leah Ivie, formerly captain of the Grants Pass degree staff.

Mrs. Bailey delivered the address of the evening. Since this was her official visit to the Ashland lodge, a gift was presented to her. Closing songs were presented by the Ashland Rebekah chorus.

Olive Barber's Letter

Putting up the men's lunches this morning, I felt pretty much over the dainties I had prepared, not the least of which was half a fried chicken in each bucket. Unconsciously, I always give my husband the best of the deal. So this morning he got the end of the cake where frosting lay the thickest.

I told the men about the fried chicken and then realized this was a mistake. For men never grow up in many ways; least of all do they outgrow their little boy greediness. And my mind went back to the school lunches of my girlhood. Any fried chicken my mother put in our school lunches never lasted until the noon hour. All through the early morning period devoted to the times tables my greedy little mind was leaping ahead to morning recess. The minds of my classmates must have worked the same way for at recess we dashed to the lunch bucket shelf.

At noon, any one watching us open our buckets would have thought our parents skimping providers for every little pail would be polished clean of all but the more prosaic items. By that time, cake, pie and chicken were already being made into more boy and girl as fast as digestion could accomplish it in the hour and a half which had elapsed since recess.

Caution as well as greed urged this mid morning dining. With the Jones children never bringing anything but plain sandwiches, they were not above browsing among our pails if the opportunity presented itself to do so. So we removed temptation from the little pillagers by "beating them to the draw" as it were.

It is noon as I write this but I have a feeling my men folk are lunching on plain bread and butter; this because about mid morning they had a snack of fried chicken followed by a chaser of chocolate cake. For logging camps as well as schools, have their "Jones children" and though ethical in most matters, well, fried chicken and chocolate cake are out of bounds to the man as they were to the boy.

TWO-WAY BOWLING

Erie, Pa. — (U.P.) — Two-way miniature bowling is catching on fast at the boys' club here. Instead of the bowlers rolling from one end of the alley, one player rolls from each end, replacing each other's downed pins. It's a duck-pin affair. The boys can't run before releasing the ball, but premier results showed scores are just as effective.

Assembly of God Evangelist Draws Increasing Crowds

All departments of the Assembly of God church, 11 Newtown street, are enjoying growth and stimulation as a result of the indoor camp meeting now in progress under the ministry of Evangelist Martin Luther Davidson of Houston, Tex., according to the pastor, the Rev. G. O. Baker. Despite inclement weather, large crowds have assembled from night to night to hear the Rev. Davidson speak, and the Sunday School attendance has broken all previous records, the minister declares.

Yesterday began the third week of the campaign and last evening the Rev. Davidson spoke on "Must We Some Day Fight Russia," basing his remarks on the 38th and 39th chapters of the Book of Ezekiel. The evangelist declared that "Communism cannot tolerate Christianity" and added that "War has not changed the moral character of the Russians. She has not repented for slaughtering Christians," referring to the revolution in 1917.

Services will continue throughout the week, at 7:30 p. m. each day.
