

LOCAL and PERSONAL

Club To Meet—Sacred Heart Parents' club will hold their monthly meeting Monday at 8 p. m.

CALENDAR

Saturday
2:00 p. m.—Crater Lake chapter, D.A.R., home of Mrs. D. O. Hood, 1114 South Oakdale avenue.

Men Released—Discharged from the army at Ft. Lewis recently were Sgt. Robert D. Hollenbeck, 722 North Riverside avenue, and M. Sgt. George C. Smith, 208 Medford building. S. Sgt. Robert D. Johnson, Route 1, Box 651, Central Point, was also discharged at the same time.

Captain Home—Capt. Charles E. Overmeyer has arrived in Medford after 43 months overseas in the Southwest Pacific and is spending a leave at the home of his parents, Col. and Mrs. O. L. Overmeyer, 610 South Holly street. Capt. Overmeyer served with the 138th Infantry, known as the "Bushmasters."

Cars Damaged—Damage estimated at $30 was caused an auto operated by Richard Morgan, 850 King street, Wednesday in collision at the intersection of Main and Front streets with a car driven by Nate Russell, route 2, according to accident reports filed with city police. Also reported as damaged slightly in an accident Wednesday was a car driven by C. Holmes, 2015 East Main street, when cars operated by Holmes and Bessie M. McCall, 121 Wilmette avenue, collided on East Fourth street.

Vets Report—Following honorable discharges from the service veterans reporting to county selective service board No. 1 Wednesday were Herbert E. Allen Julius W. Bartels, George L. Brown, Herbert L. Edwards, Emil C. Hunemiller, Lyle E. Jarmin, Aldo Roselli, Galen H. Shaw, Marion G. Thomas, Wilmer L. Wallace and Boyd Whit.

In Picture—Appearing with the 77th infantry division in the film "Story of G.I. Joe," now being shown in Medford, is Pfc. Ernest W. Beer, whose wife, Margaret, and son, reside at 305 Beatty street. Beer, now in Japan with the 81st engineers battalion, was stationed near Culver City, Calif., at the time of the filming.

Hunemiller Discharged—Cpl. Emil C. Hunemiller of Rogue River was honorably discharged from the army at Camp Beale, Calif., Nov. 18, according to information received from the camp today. Hunemiller, in the army nearly four years, went overseas in February of 1945 and was attached to the 96th bomber group. He wears three battle stars and a unit citation.

Yocom Released—S. Sgt. Robert L. Yocom was released from the army air force Nov. 14 at the Drew Field separation station at Tampa, Fla., according to a release from the field. Yocom, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Yocom, 416 Laurel street, served overseas from January, 1945, until July in the European theater and holds the air medal, two oak leaf clusters and the ETO ribbon with two stars.

Attending College—Two new members of the student body at Lewis and Clark college, Portland, are John Logan, son of Chester Logan, Rogue River, and the Rev. Everett Bowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dana W. Bowers, 20 Laurel street, Medford, a news release from the college states. Logan, returned veteran who spent three and one-half years in the army, is a special student at Lewis and Clark. He attended Medford and Sams Valley high schools before he entered the service. The Rev. Bowers, pastor of the Beaverton Methodist church, is a religious student.

Explanation Made—For the benefit of those planning to attend the open house and tea tomorrow being given for Miss Percy Gill, Red Cross worker, it was explained today that the Episcopal parish house where the affair will be held is the former Markade. The tea will be from 3:30 to 5 p. m. and is being sponsored by the Auxiliary-Guild Red Cross sewing unit of St. Mark's Episcopal church. Miss Gill will speak during the affair, telling of her war work on the Hospital Ship Seminole. It is stated by those in charge that all Red Cross volunteers, board members and the present Red Cross staff at the naval hospital at Camp White are urged to attend even though unable to make reservations as indicated previously.

Apply For Permits—Applying this morning for building permits at the office of the city superintendent were W. E. Brooks, 20 Valley View drive, to erect a new residence and garage at a cost of $5,000 and Neva Holman, 1211 West Main street, to reshingle a garage at a cost of $75.

Firemen Called—City firemen were called to the home of C. M. Worthley, 618 Dakota avenue, at 7 p. m. yesterday to extinguish a fire which reportedly caused no damage. Another run was made yesterday afternoon to the grandstand at the ball park where a small trash fire was extinguished shortly before firemen arrived.

Ward Returns—Charles Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowdish, 1216 Sunset avenue, returned to Medford yesterday following an honorable discharge from the navy at Bremerton, Wash. Ward, a chief boatswain's mate, served overseas with the 9th seabee battalion in both the European and Pacific theaters, that unit being the first seabee battalion to serve in both theaters. In the navy 44 months, Ward worked for some time on Wake Island before entering the service.

Veterans Here—John Marlette, former aviation machinist's mate, 2/c, returned to Medford yesterday from Terminal Island, San Pedro, Calif., where he received an honorable discharge from the naval air corps. Marlette spent 18 months in the Pacific theater. Arriving with Marlette was former pharmacist's mate, 1/c, Jack Marshall, who planned to leave the city today for his home in Eugene after spending a short visit at the home of Marlette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Marlette, 211 Laurel street.
