First Aid Stations On Highways Given Red Cross Survey

Miles J. Handy, Red Cross field representative for first aid, accident prevention and water safety, from San Francisco spent Friday and Saturday conferring with Maurice Tedrow, Medford, county first aid chairman and Robert Dodge, Ashland, county water safety chairman.

Because of the post war increase in traffic accidents on a national scale the Red Cross is completing a survey and inspection of all Highway Emergency Aid Stations.

Mr. Handy visited the station at Prospect in charge of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Grieve, Shady Cove in charge of Elinor Mee and Mrs. Seggessenman, Brownsboro, handled by Mrs. Vera Wright and A. R. Rutledge and Siskiyou Patrol Station, in charge of Miss Vera Lutz. The Rogue River Station has been recently closed since Mrs. Miller is now teaching.

Mr. Handy approved plans made by Mr. Tedrow for opening of several new stations in the county, and tentative arrangements were made for a first aid instructors school in January to be held in both Medford and Ashland.

After the first year your Victory Bonds increase in value with each succeeding year until maturity.
