Golden Wedding Celebrated By Talent Couple

Talent—In celebration of their golden wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bell held open house at their home in Talent Saturday, Nov. 17, between two and nine o'clock. Many friends called to extend congratulations and many gifts were presented to the couple.

The Bells were married Nov. 17, 1895, at the home of Mrs. Bell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Sloper, near Phoenix, the service having been performed by the Rev. Hoxie. Mr. Bell is a native of Jackson county, having been born near Talent and having lived in the county his entire life. Mrs. Bell came to Oregon from Kansas when 18 years of age and has resided here since that time.

Three grandchildren of the couple, Darrel and Marion Bell of Phoenix and Mrs. Dallas Reeder of Medford, were present for the celebration.

Wedding cake for the reception was served from a plate which was among the Bell's wedding gifts.

Members of the Talent Grange entertained Thursday, Nov. 15, in honor of the couple.

Aletha Birdsall, Leonard Negles Married Sunday

Talent—Miss Aletha Birdsall became the bride of Leonard F. Negles at a service held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Negles, Talent, Sunday, Nov. 18. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Mary Birdsall, also of Talent.

The Rev. George Bales performed the ceremony in a setting of chrysanthemums which formed an archway. For the service the bride wore a black crepe dress with sequin trim and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and white blossoms. Matron-of-honor, Mrs. Bill J. Lorton, wore a flowered jersey dress of red and white.

A reception followed the ceremony and the couple then left for a wedding trip to California.

Guests for the ceremony in addition to the parents of the bride and groom were Mrs. Mary Wood, Mr. and Mrs. John Sample, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Nichols, Sr., Miss Betty Negles, Miss Leola Lindstrom and Miss Betty Hamlin.

The groom recently returned home from overseas duty in Germany with the coast artillery, having been overseas 14 months, and has been released from service.

Miss Watson Wed Saturday Evening To Wisconsin Man

The wedding of Miss Beverly Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Watson, of 1121 West 10th street, and Milton E. Vanderlinden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Vanderlinden, Appleton, Wis., was an event of Saturday evening, Nov. 17, in the First Methodist church here.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Louis Kirby in a setting of white chrysanthemums and palms and lighted white tapers.

Miss Kay Gentner played the wedding music and Miss Sue Parkinson was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and georgette, fashioned with a yoke of lace and with a georgette overskirt forming a train. Her elbow length veil, held in place by a Juliette cap of seed pearls, was of old lace from England, and she carried a colonial bouquet of rosebuds and orchids.

Miss Connie Meador, maid-of-honor, was gowned in white lace and carried a colonial bouquet of rosebuds and sweetpeas and wore a white floral arrangement in her hair. The Misses Verene Bailey and Margaret Sullivan, bridesmaids, wore pink and blue net with matching flowers in their hair and carried colonial bouquets of chrysanthemums and sweetpeas. The little flower girl, Zelia Moran, wore a long pink crepe dress with georgette overskirt and carried a nosegay of pink sweetpeas.

Carl Peterson acted as best man for the groom and Harlan Eisenbrot and Irving Kuehn, all of Camp White naval hospital, were ushers.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Medford hotel banquet room. Refreshments were served from a table arranged with white fringed chrysanthemums and lighted white tapers. Mrs. Victor Milnes, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Harry Watson, also an aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Gene Davis served at the punch bowls.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanderlinden left on a short trip up the coast after which they will reside on Austin street in Medford.

The bride is a graduate of Medford high school and later attended La Grande junior college. She is now employed at the Business Men's Assurance office.

The groom was recently discharged from the marine corps

Sander-Williams Wedding Is Held In Local Church

Sacred Heart Catholic church here was the scene last Sunday of the wedding of Miss Caroline Sander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sander of Ashland, to Jack W. Williams, son of Mrs. Dott Williams, also of Ashland. Father Hamilton read the service at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Sander, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white silk net over taffeta fashioned with a bodice and peplum of Chantilly lace. The veil extended the length of the gown's long train and was held by a Mary Stuart headdress. The bride's bouquet was of white orchids, Briarcliff roses, stephanotis and bouvardia.

Mrs. Bill Blackmer, Jr., the bride's sister, was matron-of-honor. She wore powder blue crepe and carried yellow roses and white chrysanthemums. Other attendants were Mrs. Leo Zupon, Ashland, sister of the groom, Mrs. L. G. Morthland, Mrs. David Lowry and Mrs. Clark Thomas, all of Medford, sisters of the bride. All wore pale yellow organza frocks with pattern of frosted white and carried white pom-pom chrysanthemums. Carla Jean Sander, Yreka, niece of the bride and junior attendant, wore yellow taffeta and carried a Colonial bouquet of white chrysanthemums centered with a yellow rose.

The bride's mother wore aqua crepe with a pink rose corsage and Mrs. Williams, the groom's mother, was gowned in old rose with a corsage of gardenias and pink carnations.

Dale Williams was best man for his brother and ushers were Victor Sander, David Lowry, Gordon Miller and Leo Zupon. Charles O'Donnell and Miss Steele of Yreka, Calif., sang "Ave Maria" and "Panis Angelicus," accompanied by Miss Blanche Steele who also played the wedding marches.

The reception was at the Morthland home, 35 Windsor avenue. Mrs. William Sander of Yreka cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Richard Wright poured coffee and Mrs. Roma Lindstedt served punch. Mrs. Laverne Dungey and the bride's sisters assisted about the rooms.

Upon returning from a wedding trip south, Mr. and Mrs. Williams will reside in Ashland, where the groom will return to the staff of the First National Bank. He returned recently after three years of overseas service in the European theater. The groom attended Southern Oregon College of Education and the bride attended Oregon State college before joining the staff of the First National Bank, Medford.

Recent brides and grooms are Lt. and Mrs. Jack Mace, left, and Mr. and Mrs. Don F. O'Brien. Mrs. Mace, the former Miss Olive Morton, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Morton, Old Millary Road and the naval lieutenant is the son of Mrs. Helen Mace, La Crescenta, Calif., and John Mace, Central Point. Mrs. O'Brien, the former Miss Lilly Belle Casebolt, is a daughter of Mrs. E. Casebolt, 738 West Eleventh street while her husband, aviation radioman in the navy, is a son of Mrs. Roland Smith, Applegate, and Jack O'Brien, Applegate.

Valley Children See "Peter Pan" At Local Theater

Hundreds of valley children were at the Holly theater Wednesday afternoon and evening for the presentation of "Peter Pan" by the Clare Tree Major children's theater of New York. Sponsoring organization was the Medford Branch, American association of University Women. Miss Della Whisenant and Miss Marian Farrell, co-chairmen in charge of the play's presentation here, stated yesterday that the branch was well pleased with the success of the venture.

The chairmen expressed their appreciation to members of the senior high school band, who played for the matinee audience, and to various Medford firms who aided with the project.

Couple Honored By Church Class At Recent Party

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Williams, who have left Medford to spend the winter in Arizona, were honored at a potluck dinner which the Shipmates Class of the First Methodist church held recently at the church parlors.

Hostesses were Mrs. Blanche Burke, Mrs. Helen Wilks and Mrs. Balderston.

During the evening Clarence Meeker gave an inspirational talk on "Thankfulness." Mrs. Louise Brockway was in charge of an evening of games.

About 50 attended.

Students Spend Vacation Here

Among students at home for the Thanksgiving holiday was Miss Anne Scripser, University of Oregon, who is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Scripser, 60 Rose avenue. Arriving with Miss Scripser was Miss Charlotte Wickie, Hawaii, president of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority at the university.

Also home is Miss Betty Mack, who with her house guest, Miss Ruth Robinson of Spokane, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mack, 45 Barneburg Road. Miss Dolores Ray and a guest, Miss Anne Stewart, spent the holidays with Miss Ray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ray, 1013 East Main street, and also here is Miss Betty Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Rose, 358 South Oakdale avenue.

All the young women are members of Alpha Delta Pi chapter at the university.

VITAMIN RICH BREAD

PERHAPS you're not quite sure of what enriched bread is—so we'll tell you. In refining processes by the time wheat is turned into baking flour, many of the minerals and vitamins become separated. However, modern science has found a way of returning those precious food values to flour—and our Government has ruled in the basic requirements to truly "enrich" every loaf you buy!
