

Young Women Arrive To Visit Parents Here
Spending Thanksgiving holidays in Medford with their parents are Miss Ann Drysdale, seaman first class in the Waves, and Miss Margaret Drysdale, freshman student at Oregon State college. Miss Ann Drysdale arrived Thursday from Washington, D. C., by plane and is on a 21-day leave from her duties at the separation center there. Her sister will return to college today. She is enrolled in the school of home economics and is a pledge of Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

The two young women are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Drysdale and granddaughters of Mrs. Lelia M. Paxson, 1123 West Main street.

SOCIETY and CLUBS

Calleen Moore, William Gentry Wed At Yakima

Prospect—A wedding of interest here took place at Yakima, Wash., Nov. 14, when Miss Calleen Moore of Prospect, became the bride of William Wayne Gentry, of Selah, Wash. The Rev. Orval D. Peterson of the First Christian Church read the wedding service in his study at 4 p. m. Attending the couple were the groom's mother, Mrs. Beas Noll of Medford, and his uncle, Ben F. Gentry, of Selah. The bride wore a brown tailored suit with gold and brown accessories. After the wedding dinner the newly married couple left on a wedding trip and on their return will make their home on a fruit farm at Selah. Mrs. Gentry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rueben E. Moore, attended Prospect schools for 12 years, graduating from high school with the class of 1944. For the past year and half she was secretary at the local high school office. Mr. Gentry attended Medford schools, and for the past three years has been with the army engineer corps in Europe, returning to this country and receiving his honorable discharge last month.

A group of friends gave a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fraedrick, Jr., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Grieve, Nov. 16. Five tables of pinocle were in play, and refreshments were served later. High score prizes were awarded to Mrs. Fraedrick and Gus Ditsworth, and Mrs. Tracy Boothby when the traveling prize. Attending were the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Fraedrick, Jr., also Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Dinkens, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Boothby, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Grieve, Dewey Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Kelley Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Ditsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kelley, Mrs. Mary E. Grieve. Mr. and Mrs. Fraedrick left Nov. 19 for Eugene, where they have bought a house and an interest in business with Mr. Fraedrick's brother, Audrey Fraedrick. The Fraedricks have lived here for the past 20 years, and during that time he served California-Oregon Power Co., as a lineman.

Mississippi Girl Married Recently To Pvt. Brownlee

Miss Doris Elaine Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Williams of Biloxi, Miss., and Pvt. Floyd H. Brownlee, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brownlee, 419 Clark street, were married Saturday, Nov. 10, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kelly, Guilford, Miss. Chaplain Eugene F. Stump of Keesler Field, Miss., read the marriage vows. The bride wore a pink wool dress with black accessories and a corsage of orchids. Matron of honor was Mrs. Jimmie Wiman of Jackson, Miss. Pvt. Stephen Feola of Keesler Field served as best man for the groom. At the close of the ceremony there was an informal reception and Mrs. Dudley Sandifer presided at the punch bowl. The Kelly home had been decorated with baskets of white gladioli and candelabra holding white tapers for the wedding and reception.

Pvt. and Mrs. Brownlee came west on a wedding trip and are now here visiting relatives. Tuesday Pvt. Brownlee will leave for Spokane, Wash., where he will be separated from service, and upon his return the couple will establish a home in Medford. Pvt. Brownlee is a graduate of the Medford schools.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our friends for their sympathy and kindness during our recent bereavement; also for the beautiful flowers.
