

SEAL BOOTHS TO OPEN ON MONDAY

The booth sale of Christmas seals will open here Monday morning, Mrs. Robert Sleeter, chairman, reported yesterday. Booths will be maintained at the post office sub-station, Mann's department store and Montgomery Ward's.

Monday and Tuesday sales will be in charge of the Women of Rotary, who have volunteered to assist the Jackson County Public Health association in the program. Presiding Monday will be Mrs. E. P. Merrick, Mrs. John Perl, Mrs. Kenneth Denman, Mrs. Allen Perry, Mrs. B. L. Nutting and Mrs. Diamond Flynn. On Tuesday, Mrs. Robert Duff, Mrs. C. C. Leonard, Mrs. Jim Moore, Mrs. Stan Phillips, Mrs. Mark Goldy and Mrs. H. G. Christensen.

Workers were asked by Mrs. Sleeter to turn their stamps and money into the office at each location at the close of the day. They will also find their supplies at the office of the firm where they reside each morning.

The Christmas seal sale finances the anti-tuberculosis program of the Jackson County Health association throughout this county. This program has brought the free X-ray to this region for the first time and the manner in which people have lined up at the mobile unit is sufficient proof that "We should buy Christmas seals," Mrs. Glenn A. Gibbons, county seal sale chairman, said yesterday.

Cadet Dan Graham Graces Army Paper

Pictures of Cadet Dan Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graham, 108 Cottage street, and a senior at the United States Military Academy, West Point, made up the cover of the Nov. 16 "Pointer," weekly magazine issued at the academy. A copy of the magazine has been received by the Grahams. The cover depicts the young man gazing into a mirror. He wears his cadet uniform, but the reflection shows him in the regular army uniform which he will be permitted to wear after graduation in June. Cadet Graham graduated from Medford high school with the class of 1943 and entered the academy soon after.

"Rhapsody in Blue"

"Rhapsody in Blue," the all-star musical romance based on the life and music of George Gershwin is the current attraction at the Craterian theatre thru Tuesday. The role of the immortal American composer is portrayed by Robert Alda, newly-created star. Other outstanding roles are filled by Joan Leslie, Alexis Smith and Charles Coburn, Oscar Levant, Al Jolson, Paul White-man, George White, Hazel Scott and Anne Brown.

Disabled Veterans Honored Today in DAV Ceremonies

Appropriate ceremonies marking today as "Disabled Veterans' Day," are planned by Jackson county Chapter No. 8, Disabled American Veterans and at the request of the organization, public recognition of the day has been asked by Mayor C. A. Meeker.

Commending the DAV for its service to the nation's veterans, the mayor called on local residents to help observe the day in a proclamation which said in part:

"It was on the first Sunday in December 1941 at Pearl Harbor, that Americans were first called upon during the period of World War II, to sacrifice their lives, limbs and blood. Since that day more than three million Americans have been wounded or handicapped by service incurred or service-aggravated disabilities as a result of taking part in World War II."

Screen Villain Not Any Angel At Home

Hollywood, Dec. 1—(U.P.)—Actor Boris Karloff, the screen's horror man who gives the creeps to his audiences, wasn't so soothing either to his wife, Dorothy Pratt Karloff, who today filed suit for divorce.

Charging cruelty, Mrs. Karloff asked for custody of their daughter, Sara Jane, 7, and for $2,500 a month alimony. She said her husband earns $150,000 a year in portraying evil characters on the screen and radio.

Notes From the Men's Shop

IT'S A STETSON

A fine name in a fine store. Unfortunately, allotments are still limited in these fine hats, but they are being received regularly, and we all look forward to the time when full and complete stocks will be available at all time.

ARROW SHIRTS

Yes, we still get them, but not enough to go around. Uncle Sam still gets the bulk of this production and rightfully so, but allotments are increasing, and we should see improvement in this situation before too long. Arrows are worth waiting for.

Michaels Stern SUITS

Government contracts are completed now, and the reconversion program will of necessity be a slow one; no one knows just when clothing stocks will be back to normal, but be assured that when they are, Michaels Stern will again be among the leaders.

FINE HOSIERY

Again Uncle Sam has made heavy demands on Hosiery and Interwoven Hose, but improvement is definitely in sight on these two lines and we hope to see normal hosiery stocks in another season.

Other Famous Names

Such as Hickok belts; Lissner slacks; Nobelt pajamas; McGregor sweaters; Munsing underwear; Alligator coats.

All fine names, and each one has contributed his share to the Government's needs. We all look forward to full stocks at the earliest possible moment. In the meantime, we shall continue to serve you to the very best of our ability. We do appreciate your patience.
