Miss Piatt Wed To Californian At Local Church

Medford's Baptist church was the scene Sunday, Nov. 18, of wedding of Miss Carlin Piatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donn V. Piatt, 30 Laurel street, to Maurice W. Davis, son of Mrs. Bessie Davis of Stockton, Calif., and the late James Davis. The doubling ceremony was performed at four o'clock by the Rev. W. A. Dawes in a setting of greenery, white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers.

Preceding the service Mrs. Verl Felling played traditional wedding music, concluding with "Clare de Lune," requested by the bride. Just before the vows were said Mrs. William Uhrine, accompanied by Mrs. Felling, sang "Oh, Perfect Love" and at the close of the ceremony "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of traditional white satin fashion, basque style and with a long train, and the finger-tip length veil fell from a Juliet cap. She wore pearls, gift of the groom, and carried an arm bouquet of white pom-pom chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

Miss Muriel Piatt, maid-of-honor for her sister, wore rose satin and carried pink rosebuds and stephanotis. The Misses Verna Weeman and Jean Ann Cosgrove of Corvallis, Ore., college classmates of the bride, were the bridesmaids and wore identical gowns of pastel pink and yellow satin, carrying bouquets of contrasting colored rosebuds. All three attendants wore silver sequined Juliet caps.

Stevie Hoag, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hoag, was ring-bearer, Linden D. Sowell of Stockton, Calif., uncle of the groom, was best man and ushers were Donald Minear and Leo Hoag.

The reception was at the Holland Hotel. Mrs. C. S. Finley had arranged the bride's table with white chrysanthemums and tapers, centered with the wedding cake. The bride and groom cut the first slice, using a silver knife which was a wedding gift to the bride's maternal grandparents. Mrs. Linden D. Sowell, aunt of the groom, completed the cutting, assisted by the bride's attendants. Mrs. Leo Hoag served punch.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. J. E. Lester, Mrs. N. A. Mead, Mrs. D. M. Minear and Miss Marjorie Vroman. Mrs. Wallace Purcell of Stockton, Calif., sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Davis was graduated from Medford high school and Oregon State college. She is a member of Phi Chi Theta, national honor society for business and professional women, and Collegiate Players, drama honorary.

The groom was graduated from Yreka high school and also from the University of California, Santa Barbara. He is a member of Pi Sigma Chi, national honorary of industrial education and of Kappa Delta Pi, education honor group. Mr. Davis served in the air corps for several months and returned to Oregon State college last winter for post-graduate work.

Margaret Whittle Becomes Bride of Price M. Hennan

Ashland—Of interest to many friends in the valley will be the news of the wedding of Miss Margaret Whittle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. David Whittle, 123 High street, to Price M. Hennan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Price M. Hennan of Albuquerque, New Mexico. The doubling service took place Tuesday afternoon, November 27, at 3 o'clock at Trinity Episcopal church in Ashland and was read by the rector, Father A. H. MacDonnell.

The bride wore a blue-grey crepe afternoon dress with black accessories and carried a bouquet of gardenias and pink carnations. Her maid-of-honor, Miss Clara Ann Roberson, wore pink with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Joe Burdick was best man for the groom. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Whittle wore a lime green dress with a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums.

Present for the service were members of the family and a few close friends, including Miss Betty Whittle, sister of the bride, Elwood B. Hedberg, Mr. and Mrs. Karl P. Nims and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Applewhite. Mr. and Mrs. Hennan made a wedding trip to the northern part of the state and expect to return this week-end to spend a few days in the valley before leaving for New Mexico.

The bride graduated from Ashland high school in 1942 and later attended Oregon State college where she was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta sorority. For the past two and one-half years she has been on the staff of the county clerk's office here in Medford. The groom, discharged last week from the army, served as a first sergeant with the 104th Evacuation Hospital unit, attached to the Third Army in Europe, for nearly two years and holds the Legion of Merit medal for service in Germany. He was stationed with that group at Camp White for several months before going overseas.

Three Newcomers Honored Guests At Social Events

Three newcomers to the city have been complimented at a series of social events given during the past two weeks by Mrs. V. J. Robinson, who entertained at her home, 31 Geneva street. Mrs. Robinson was hostess for three luncheons and a tea which honored Mrs. Alfred Potter, Mrs. Richard Armond and Mrs. Lyman Robinson, the latter two being nieces of Mrs. Robinson.

Mrs. Potter came to Medford from Portland, Mrs. Armond, who formerly lived in Great Falls, Mont., came here from Bremerton where she and her husband resided during the war, and Mrs. Robinson came to Medford from Colorado where she spent the war months with her parents while her husband was in service.

Mrs. John Wilkinson assisted Mrs. Robinson for the luncheons and at the tea, given last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Justin Smith poured.

Little-Mordoff Rites Are Held At Local Church

An event of last Saturday was the wedding of Miss Evelyn Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Little, Prairie City, Ore., to Douglas F. Mordoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Mordoff of this city. The rites took place at a candlelight service at four o'clock, with the Rev. Louis C. Kirby reading the double-ring service in a setting of white and pale yellow chrysanthemums and white tapers.

Miss Katherine Gentner was at the organ for the wedding marches and George Maddox sang "Yours Is My Heart Alone," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," with Mrs. Maddox accompanying.

Miss Little's wedding gown was of sheer marquisette and lace and her fingertip length veil fell from a halo type head-dress. She carried a white prayer book with white orchids, Mrs. Fenton Mell, Riverside, Calif., was matron-of-honor. She wore a blue taffeta gown with a Juliette cap, the same material and carried a small yellow bouquet of chrysanthemums and Tallban rosebuds.

Flower girls were Anita Marcy, niece of the bride from Riverside, and Janet Jerry, Medford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Perry and niece of the groom. They wore floor-length white taffeta gowns and carried baskets of rose petals.

Best man for the groom was Richard Hoening of Berkeley, Calif., and Lt. Joseph Duprez of Brawley, Calif., was usher. The reception which followed was at the home of Mrs. J. A. Perry, 604 West Main street. The table from which the wedding cake was served was arranged with white rosebuds and crystal candlesticks with white tapers and the rooms of the Perry home had been decorated with baskets of large chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Richard Hoening completed the serving of the wedding cake and Mrs. J. A. Perry and Mrs. Jimmy Hall poured.

Following a wedding trip to a California coast resort Mr. and Mrs. Mordoff will reside in Berkeley, Calif., the groom being a chemical engineer for the Standard Oil company at the Richmond plant.

Before her wedding the bride was a student at the University of California while the groom was graduated from Oregon State college.

In Medford for the wedding were the bride's parents and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rundell, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Boyer, Mrs. Lyle Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Webb, all of Klamath Falls.

Choir Members Are Entertained At Kurtz Home

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Kurtz entertained members of the choir of the First Christian church at a buffet supper and games party at their home, 204 North Ivy, Monday evening. Mrs. Otto Bohmert, social chairman for the choir, aided with arrangements. Robert Church was in charge of prizes and Miss Jeanne Rice had charge of games.

About 35 persons attended the enjoyable affair.

For Week-end Visit Mrs. James W. Grigsby, Jr., of Oakland is spending the week-end in the valley and is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gunter, 808 South Central avenue, and her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Grigsby, Sr., Jacksonville.

Sgt. and Mrs. LeRoy Edward Nelson, married last fall at Sacred Heart Catholic church, are making their home at 645 South Holly street. Mrs. Nelson is the former Sydney Brown, daughter of the late Sheriff Syd L. Brown and Mrs. Anna C. Brown, and the groom, stationed at Camp White, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. House of Oakland, Calif. (Photo by Shangle)

Crater Lake Guild Entertains Choir At Evening Party

Presbyterian church choir members were entertained by Crater Lake Guild of the church Monday evening at a "Long, Long Ago" party which had been planned by Mrs. W. E. Tummy. About 50 persons attended the enjoyable affair, held at the church.

With Mrs. Tummy acting as mistress of ceremonies, program numbers were presented which called to mind celebrities of past days. Mrs. Sydney Bouck appeared as Adeline Patti, Mrs. Helen Holt Wilson was cast in the role of Mrs. Scott Sidden, dramatic reader, and Miss Deborah Trembley as a piano student of Mozart. Singing of old-fashioned songs closed the program.

Mrs. Verl Walker, Mrs. Florence Erbes, Mrs. Paul Bulkin and Mrs. Frank Hussong appeared in costume as head waiter, waitress and chef to help with the serving of refreshments. Much amusement was derived from clever "blind menus," prepared by Mrs. Tummy. Hostesses for the refreshment hour were Mrs. Harry W. Hansen and Mrs. Vera Humphrey.

Decorations for the fireplace room and dining room were in keeping with the theme and included old photographs of some of the persons present. The dining table had been arranged with an old-fashioned red and white tablecloth centered with a bowl of wax fruit.

Medford Couples Entertain Friday At Dinner-Dance

With approach of the first post-war Christmas holiday season, an increasing number of social events are being planned by valley residents. One of the first of these was the formal dinner and dance at which Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Boyle and Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbury entertained Friday evening at Chalkers-on-the-Rogue.

The rooms of the lodge and the dining tables had been attractively decorated with chrysanthemums, red-berried greenery and tapers.

Tell Engagement Of LaVelle Mason To Walter Ricks

Among engagements announced during Thanksgiving week was that of Miss LaVelle Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Mason, Talent, to Walter Chester Ricks, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chester Ricks, Sr., of Route 3, Medford.

Both young people are on the staff of the Pacific Telephone and Telephone company here. Mr. Ricks was recently released from the navy after serving three years, 27 months of which was sea duty, as a seaman first class.

No date has been set for the wedding. A dinner will be given by members of the Past Commanders' club, DAV Auxiliary, at the home of Mrs. L. Tingley, 816 West Eleventh street Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. Husbands of members will be guests.
