Mariners' Class Election Is Held At Last Meeting

Twenty-two friends and members of the Mariners' Class of the First Christian church met at the church for the monthly party Wednesday, the evening opening with a dinner.

During a short business session, presided over by Skipper Yvonne Haggard, it was voted to purchase a slide projector for use in the Bible School. Election of officers followed, with Mr. and Mrs. Claud Cooper named Skippers, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Doty, quartermasters; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Younger, pursers. Mrs. William Foley is teacher of the class and the Rev. and Mrs. Delbert Daniels are chaplains.

Seven servicemen were welcomed back as civilians.

Games brought the evening to a close.

The committee in charge of dinner and games was Mrs. Robert Church, chairman; Mrs. Claud Haggard, Mrs. Irwin Doty and Mrs. Ralph Cook.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Church, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Younger, Mr. and Mrs. Shirell Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gillinsky, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cash, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William Strode, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cook, Mrs. Harry Stahl, Mrs. Claud Haggard, Mrs. Irwin Doty, Mrs. Riley Thomas, Mrs. William Foley and Tom Miller, PHM3/c.

Gardeners Plan Wreath Making For Camp White

Medford Garden club members will meet two days this week to make wreaths and other holiday decorations for the Camp White hospital. Mrs. Max Leischner is chairman in charge of the project.

First of the meetings will be Wednesday from 9:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. W. L. Greenleaf, 103 South Holly street, (basement entrance) when greenery and other supplies will be assembled and samples made for the workers. The second meeting will be Thursday beginning at 9:30 a. m. and continuing throughout the afternoon, this also to be at Mrs. Greenleaf's home. Members are to bring greenery, tools and paper sack lunch for the Thursday meeting. Officers urge a large attendance, since a large quantity of decorations are to be made.

During the tea hour Thursday Mrs. C. A. Renken will speak on traditional stories of Christmas plants. Mrs. Ralph Woodford is tea chairman.

Thanksgiving Dinner Is Given Last Week

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Krauss entertained at a Thanksgiving dinner Thursday, Nov. 29, at their home, 601 North Columbus avenue. Present were Mrs. O. C. Sabin, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bringle, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Rindt, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Sabin and daughters, Sally and Karen.

Mrs. Carl Raymond Dykstra (nee Mabel Winningham) was married in October, the rites taking place at the First Methodist church. Mr. and Mrs. Dykstra are residing at 1205 East Main street. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Winningham, Jacksonville. (Evergreen photo.)

Portland Bride Is Married to R. D. Proebstel

Among last week's Portland weddings was that of Miss Barbara Lois Ketchum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Ketchum, Vale, Ore., to Richard D. Proebstel, a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Ben E. Harder, Old Stage Road, which took place Thursday, Nov. 29, at St. Stephen's Episcopal church chapel. Mr. and Mrs. Harder were in Portland to attend the ceremony.

The service was read by Dean Charles M. Guilbert.

Miss Ketchum's wedding ensemble was a winter white wool afternoon dress worn with a white felt hat piped in black and black accessories. Her bouquet was of white bouvardia, pom-pom dahlias and roses, centered with a white orchid. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Donna Jane Ketchum, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore powder blue wool with brown accessories and carried a nosegay of pink, white and blue fall flowers.

Major Robert I. Proebstel, brother of the groom, was best man, and John E. Blair was usher.

A reception was held at the Martha Washington hotel. Mrs. William McCauley cut the wedding cake, Miss Mary Falling poured and Mrs. W. Victor Ramis, Miss Elizabeth Robinson, Miss Betty Westby, Miss Pauline Boyd and Miss Bonnie Duncan assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. Proebstel are making a wedding trip to Carmel, Calif.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where she was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi, social sorority, and during the war served first with the signal intelligence service of the war department at Washington, D. C., and later with the army transportation corps at the Portland port of embarkation. Mr. Proebstel attended Medford high school, having made his home here with the Harders, and also graduated from the University of Oregon, where he was a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, social fraternity. He was recently discharged from the army after four years of service, having served overseas for 43 months with the 27th division's 165th "Fighting Irish" regiment as a sergeant-major.

Mr. Proebstel and his bride are expected in the valley later to spend some time with the Harders.

"THE MARK OF THE BEAST"

- The evangelist will illustrate from a large blackboard showing the name, number and sign of the Beast.
- He will reveal that two people have already been stamped with the number 666.
- The practice of stamping numbers on the forehead and right hand is now being used in several vital places.
- Is the Anti-Christ now alive?
