

OPA AGENTS PLAN CHECK-UP HERE ON USED AUTO DEALS

It is expected that in the near future OPA investigators will arrive in this area to continue the check-up being made throughout the state on evasions concerning the sale of used cars, according to the local war price and ration board. A news release from Portland quotes Charles Kaufman, OPA enforcement attorney, to the effect that an alarming number of flagrant violations were uncovered during the first days of the Portland check-up.

Among the phony transactions uncovered were deals involving acceptance of trade-ins at a certain price which was later reduced when the customer finally got his contract papers, acceptance of "side payments" by customers, some of which were made in separate checks on which payment was stopped before the seller could cash the check, illegal repair bills, irregular record-keeping and the practice of some dealers of insisting unlawfully that he will not sell a car unless the prospective buyer has a trade-in, the release states.

Some of the illegal deals found in used car sales may be carried over into sales of new cars unless they are uncovered and stamped out now according to Kaufman.

ADVENTISTS PLAN GREATEST WORLD MISSION EFFORT

Four hundred delegates to the annual council of Seventh-day Adventists just closed in Grand Rapids, Mich., planned the largest world program ever undertaken by the denomination, according to a news release received by G. A. Thompson, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist church here. The release continues:

"Faced by the greatest demands in the church's history for appropriations and workers, the council voted a missions budget of $11,000,000 and approved plans for increasing and strengthening missionary forces.

"In the delegation were forty representatives of some twenty-four different countries outside North America, among them, nine missionaries who had been interned in the Philippines.

"The delegates were told that the 557,765 members of the church throughout the world gave last year for the support of the church in tithes and offerings approximately 28 million dollars, a gain of 3 1/2 million over the preceding year.

"The council spent much time on plans for the rehabilitation of properties destroyed by the war, and the reentry of missionaries into the countries from which they had been evacuated. Approval was given for the purchase from the government of a 250-bed hospital unit at Manila for $57,000.

"E. D. Dick, secretary of the foreign mission board, told the delegates that there are now in hand from foreign divisions, calls for 28 doctors, 29 nurses, 48 evangelists, 50 educational workers, and 62 other missionaries.

"J. L. McElhany, president of the world General Conference, pictured world conditions in his opening address and declared that the world is looking for hope and courage that the gospel of Christ alone can give. 'Seventh-day Adventists have one and only one mission in this world,' he said, 'and that is to proclaim the message for these last days in preparation for the coming of the Lord.'"

TIDAL WAVE TOLL IN ARABIA HIGH

Karachi, India, Dec. 3—(U.P.)—Radio reports from the scene of last Wednesday's earthquake and tidal wave said today that entire communities along the Arabian seacoast had been wiped out with a loss of life running into the thousands.

All district telegraphic communication with the stricken area—roughly 150 to 250 miles northwest of Karachi—were severed, but radio accounts indicated the disaster might be one of the worst in recent Indian history.

Sacramento, Dec. 3—(U.P.)—The state-wide non-partisan legislative conference will be held in Sacramento Jan. 3 and 6.
